

Piano Concert Will Be Given

The piano team of Luboshutz and Nemenoff will present the first of two concerts sponsored by the Artist Series during the summer months.

The program will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in Schwab Auditorium. Tickets will be distributed at the Hetzel Union Building main desk beginning Sunday.

Students may pick up tickets without charge by presenting their matriculation cards at the desk. Faculty members and others may purchase tickets for the concert at $1.25.

Student distribution will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday and continue daily from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. through Wednesday or until the supply is distributed. Tickets will go on sale for non-students Monday.

The duo-piano team is now on its annual North American tour after returning from appearances

Conferences To Be Held On Campus

Two conferences which began earlier this week will also continue.

in London and Paris. During their tour of Greece they performed before King Paul and Queen Frederica and with the Athens Symphony Orchestra. While in Israel for three weeks, they performed a dozen orchestral concerts.

Luboshutz and Nemenoff are the only duo-pianists ever to appear as soloists with Arturo Toscanini. They have also appeared with the Philadelphia and Boston Symphony Orchestras several times.

The second program booked for the summer Artist Series is the Philadelphia Brass Ensemble, scheduled for August 2.

3-Day FFA Conference Ends Today

The Future Farmers of America will end their 3-day state conference this morning with the installation of state officers and the presentation of contest awards.

The officers, which were chosen by a group of special delegates, will be installed at 10 a.m. in Schwab Auditorium. People will be installed in the offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, sentinel and chaplain.

Awards will be given for contests held Tuesday afternoon. The contests included dairy, poultry and livestock judging; forestry, agronomy, land judging; and farm mechanics. A prize will also be given to the winning softball team in a tournament, which began Tuesday and will end this morning.

Over 1600 high school boys are attending the FFA conference, which has included a band concert, educational demonstrations by the College of Agriculture and joint meetings with the Future Homemakers of America.

Over 1100 high school girls attended the FHA conference, which began and ended last night.

They elected state and sub-regional officers Tuesday. A $1000 scholarship was awarded to Frances Snyder, Bentleyville High School.

The next time you feel like treating yourself to a big, delicious dinner and don't want to get all dressed up for the occasion, just hop in the car and head straight for Duffy's Tavern. You'll find that sport shirts outnumber the coats and ties at Duffy's. You can't beat the food at the old tavern either; Duncan Hines recommends it as one of the state's best.
