

Mateer Will Present 'Great Big Doorstep'

The University's Mateer Playhouse has announced that "The Great Big Doorstep" will replace Noel Coward's "Nude With Violin" as the last play of the season. The play opens Monday at Standing Stone.

According to Robert D. Reifsnider, managing director of the Playhouse, the change was made to provide a "family type" play to balance the season.

700 Folk Dancers To Attend Festival

Approximately 700 dance enthusiasts will attend the 6th annual Folk and Square Dance Festival to be held tomorrow and Saturday.

The College of Agriculture Extension Service and Blair County Round and Square Dance Association will sponsor the program.

It will include a workshop, demonstrations and general participation in dancing.

The workshop will be led by Burt Hall, of Detroit, Mich., and a teacher of dances with the Detroit Recreation Department. Music and callers will be provided by the Bulla-Hartzell orchestra, Bloomsburg.

Student Encampment To Begin Sept. 9

The eighth annual Student Encampment will be held Sept. 9, 10 and 11 at the University's School of Forestry at Mont Alto.

Ninety student leaders will join 30 members of faculty and administration for three days of discussion of present student-faculty-University problems. Six workshop areas have been established and will be chaired by students.

Municipal Union To Open Institute

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees will hold its first institute on campus beginning tomorrow and ending Sunday.

Approximately 40 persons are expected to participate in the program sponsored by the Philadelphia Council, Western Pennsylvania Council and the State Council.

The main theme of the institute will be to review the history of the union and give a progress report of union activities.

During a series of lectures, discussions and panels, the two major roles of the union will be examined.
