

Reverse Customs To Be 'Legalized'

By CAROL BLAKESLEE

Upperclassmen will get a "legal" chance to question freshman women and upperclass women may question the freshman men during "Reverse Customs" today.

The Freshman Customs Board has decreed that freshmen must answer only to upperclass students of the opposite sex.

Scholarship Trophy Won By AChiO

Alpha Chi Omega sorority was awarded the Pan-Hellenic scholarship trophy last night for the highest scholastic average of the spring semester.

AChiO, with a sorority average of 3.04, was also the sorority which showed the most improvement over the fall semester averages. Kappa Kappa Gamma, with a 3.01 average had the second highest sorority average.

The trophy was presented by Carol Dominick, PanHel president, at the first meeting of council this semester.

Rushing regulations and the rushing schedule for this semester were presented by Susan Chapman, PanHel Rush Chairman. Informal rushing for upperclass and transfer women begins Sunday with sorority open houses.

A committee to study the problem of inviting men into the sorority suites for socials, a suggestion from the Pan of Women, Dr. Dorothy Lipp, was appointed by the president. This committee, which will also try to arrange new suite hours consists of representatives of Delta Gamma, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Epsilon Phi, Beta Sigma Omicron and Phi Mu sororities.

Sororities interested in sponsoring skits and publicity for the pep rallies were asked to volunteer. Pep rallies are held on Fridays before a home game and Thursdays before an away game.

Applications Available For SCCA Positions

Applications for the staff of the Student Check Cashing Agency are available at the Hetzel Union desk.

Interviews for the staff will be held between Oct. 1 and 10.

Freshman men must respond to a call to "Button Frosh" from an upperclass woman and freshman women must curtsy when asked to do so by an upperclassman.

Freshmen must also sing, cheer or answer questions when it is requested by an upperclassman of the opposite sex.

Customs Board Chairman Donald Claggett said last night that there has been more participation than ever this year by upperclassmen.

"The response has been just terrific from both the upperclass students and the freshmen," he added.

Claggett said this year's Dink Debut probably had much to do with the increased enthusiasm, since customs was explained to the freshmen there.

A large number of freshman customs violators have been turned in to the Customs Board. The violators were called before the Board for a variety of reasons—refusal to give upperclassmen information, failure to wear dress customs during required hours, not carrying the Student Handbook and poor attitude.

Penalties given ranged from wearing a sign to looking up material in the Penn State Room of the Pattee Library.

Violators who came before the board Monday night and last night were Neil Buckley, Charlotte Lecky, Pam Ferrier, Pam Chadwick, Linda Burden, Marlen Mintz, Ellen Unser, Judi Lobley, Steve Kuntz, Barbara Hodge.

Pete Yeingst, Judy Miller, Carole Akers, Dave Aitken, Allen Bowser, Mike Mihm, Carl Bielfeldt, Ed Niner, David Slutzker, Ron Krajack, Terry Kelley and Arlyn Rubash.

BusAd Grad Club Will Meet Tonight

The Graduate Club of the College of Business Administration will meet at 7:30 tonight at Sigma Pi fraternity on the corner of Foster and Thompson Sts.

On the agenda are the election of new officers and a panel discussion on graduate requirements. Dr. Robert Pashek, assistant dean for research, will moderate the panel discussion.

The club is beginning its third year of operation. The purpose of the club is to promote a good relationship between faculty members and graduate students in business administration.

UN to Sidetrack Chinese Question

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States succeeded again yesterday in getting the United Nations to sidetrack for another year the question of admitting Communist China.

But despite recent turmoil in Asia for which the West blamed the Chinese Reds the victory margin was one vote less than last year.

By a vote of 44-29 with 9 abstentions the General Assembly approved a U.S. resolution asking that it postpone any consideration of proposals either to admit the Chinese Reds or exclude the Chinese Nationalists.

It was the ninth straight year the UN had sidetracked the Red China membership issue.

By its action the Assembly rejected Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's personal plea here last week that it was high time to kick out the Chinese Nationalists and install the Chinese Reds as one of the major UN powers.

The vote last year on an identical resolution was 44-28 with 9 abstentions. There were some switches this year. Guinea, a new member, joined the many Asian-African nations opposing the U.S. stand.

This year Laos changed its vote from abstaining to yes. The Southeast Asia kingdom has accused Peiping of encouraging North Viet Nam in acts of aggression along the northern border. A UN subcommittee is in Laos investigating the charges.

Cuba cracked the hitherto solid position of the 20-nation Latin-American bloc in supporting the U.S. position. Cuba abstained, the only Latin American nation to do so.

Greece, which abstained last year, joined the yes votes. Its vote last year reflected unhappiness with the Western delegations over their position on Cyprus. The vote was also a rebuff to India which again championed the right of Red China to UN membership.

India's defense minister, V. K. Krishna Menon, made a final plea for approval of a Nepalese resolution that would have reversed the U.S. proposal.

Radio Club Applications

All students who wish to join the Penn State Amateur Radio Club and affiliate with the University amateur radio station W3YA should contact Gilbert L. Crossley, assistant professor of electrical engineering in 102 Electrical Engineering.

WSGA to Give Results On Coed Smoking Vote

Results of the vote on coed smoking in the dining halls will be announced at the Women's Student Government Association meeting at 6:30 tonight in 119 Osmond.

Coeds cast ballots at dinner Monday. The vote for each dining hall will determine the procedure for that hall.

Grads to Meet Friday

The orientation meeting for all new graduate students will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Schwab Auditorium instead of last night as was erroneously reported in yesterday's Collegian.

Humid Weather To Stay in Area

Unseasonably warm and humid weather will continue for the remainder of the week as tropical air dominates the weather scene.

Scattered showers and possibly thunder showers are likely during the afternoon and evening hours during the next three days.

Temperatures will climb into the 80's for the third consecutive day. The low should be 62 degrees.

A long range glance at the weather for the Saturday football game shows sunny skies with temperatures around 70 degrees on the docket.

Holmes Hall Unit To Be Dedicated

The first dedication of a North Halls living unit will be held today.

Dedication of Centre House, a unit of Holmes Hall, will be held following a luncheon for invited county guests at noon. The ceremony will take place in the House's lounge and then guests will tour the facilities.

University students and area residents may tour the new North Halls from 6 to 8 p.m. An open house program will be held at that time in Warnock Hall, the dining building for the area.

Each of the four halls in the area has been subdivided into houses of approximately 70 men-students each.

Fourteen other units in the North Halls will also be dedicated. The schedule for these dedications is: Allegheny, tomorrow; Luzerne, Tuesday; Montgomery, Sept. 30; Philadelphia, Oct. 1; Blair, Oct. 5; Schuylkill, Oct. 6; Delaware, Oct. 7; Westmoreland, Oct. 8; Erie, Oct. 13; Lackawanna, Oct. 14; Berks, Oct. 15; Cambria, Oct. 21; Lehigh, Oct.

22; Bucks, Oct. 28; and Dauphin, Oct. 29.

County commissioners and other prominent persons will represent their home counties in the ceremonies.

The first counties to give their names to residence hall units were chosen on the basis of their undergraduate enrollment on the University Park campus. Dedication exercises are not necessarily scheduled in the order of naming. Units of Hamilton Hall in the West Halls area have been named after trees. They will later be re-named after counties. It is expected that each residence hall unit will eventually be named after a county in the state.

Registration to Begin for Fall Rush

By PAT DYER

Registration for informal sorority rushing begins tomorrow for upperclass and transfer women.

Coeds with a 2.0 All-University average may register in the Atherton and McKee lobbys from 9 a.m. till noon and from 1:30 to 5 p.m. A fee of $1 will be collected at registration.

Women who have been on campus for a semester must bring their transcripts with them. Transfer students do not need a transcript in order to register.

Informal rushing begins Saturday with a mass meeting at 12:45 p.m. in the Hetzel Union Assembly, of all women interested in sororities. Sunday all 23 national sororities on campus will hold open houses in their suites.

Starting Monday, rushees will be invited to a series of "chatter dates" in the suites of those sororities which are rushing this semester. All sororities except Delta Gamma are rushing; however, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, and Delta Delta Delta are not rushing juniors.

Invitations to chatter dates will be slipped under the rushees' doors Monday morning. Sororities may pick up replies at 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. in the dean of women's office.

Each sorority may set its own days and hours for rushing, but these hours must fall between 1:30 to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 8 p.m. A girl may accept as many invitations to chatter dates as she wishes.

On Oct. 8 the rushees will sign a preferential bidding card listing her first two choices. At 8 the next morning the sororities will bring their lists to the dean of women's office. The sororities may pick up their lists of pledges at 4:30 p.m. and then slip the bids under their pledges' doors. Ribboning will take place that evening (Oct. 9) in the sorority suites.

Throughout the two weeks of rushing a semi-strict silence period will be in effect. This means that Greeks may not talk to a rushee about sorority matters although they may talk about other things. During this period there may be no phone calls between a Greek and a rushee nor any visiting between rooms, coke dates, etc.

During rushing all contact between the rushee and a sorority outside of the chatter dates must be channeled through the dean of women's office. This includes informing the sorority if a girl suddenly finds herself unable to attend a rush hour for which she has accepted an invitation.
