

Weber Excels as Harrier Miller Out for Soccer Opener

Without Past Experience

Herm Weber, top notch cross country runner, is a classic example of the man who made the grade in a sport without any previous experience.

Weber, a fifth semester student in architecture, never ran cross country in high school. He was a varsity swimmer and miler on the track team.

Upon entering Penn State, he learned that swimming was not offered as an intercollegiate sport. So he decided to try out for the cross country team.

Almost immediately, he was turning in fine performances. He capped his fledgling year by finishing fifth in the freshmen intercollegiate.

Weber opened up his sophomore year with a tie for first against the Midshipmen of Navy, negotiating the 5-mile tryout around the University Golf Course in 26:59. He followed this up with two sixth places against the highly vaunted Pitt team and Cornell.

Last year Coach Chick Werner called Weber a very promising sophomore and a decided help to the team.

Weber said that the two secrets to success in running cross-country were proper conditioning and mental discipline.

"Only with these two things is one able to run five miles at a time," Weber said.

Weber admitted that he does not usually practice running in the summer, but this summer he did because he felt that he "needed some extra work."

Werner said that Weber has been running some strong practices this fall and has turned in one of the finest showings to date.

Werner also added that the squad has been doing fairly well since practices began. The main problem has been conditioning the runners in time for the first meet against Cornell on Oct. 3.

Most of the harriers did not do much summer running because of the length of the spring track season.

Because of the weather—a hot humid day being the worst to run in—Werner concentrated on downhill running in yesterday's practice.

Herm Weber ... no previous experience

The hill-and-dalers split up into groups and ran the long downhill stretch of the golf course that parallels Park Ave.

In practice of two days ago, the Lion mentor concentrated on the perfection of individual elements of form and individual weak points.

The runners worked out on their individual weaknesses such as downhill running, uphill running and timing.

Werner commented that the practices have produced results and could be classified as good.

Freshman coach Norm Gordon said that the turnout for the frosh squad has been poor. Anyone interested in trying out for the team can contact him in 237A Recreation Hall.

With the opening game only two days away, the Nittany Lion soccer team received a costly blow when Gary Miller, two-year letterman for the Blue and White booters, received a severe charleyhorse that may keep him out of the action for a week.

The versatile veteran sustained the injury in a practice session and will definitely be out of the lineup for Saturday's opener at Bucknell.

It was a tough blow for Lion mentor Ken Hosterman, who has been beleaguered with troubles that started when captain Billy Fiedler failed to return to school this semester.

Miller, a starting halfback last year, had moved up to the center forward position and was taking Fiedler's place as the inspirational spearhead of the line.

Miller was one of the team's leading scorers last fall playing out of his halfback position and has also had experience at inside.

He was being counted on heavily by Hosterman to provide the scoring punch needed since the departure of Fiedler.

However, the outlook is not completely dark for the Nittany soccermen.

After watching last night's workout, Coach Hosterman brightened up and reported that he thinks he has the two best goalies in the nation in Larry Fegley and Dave Grubb.

Fegley, star shortstop for Joe Bedenk's baseballers, just started playing soccer last year. With no experience the Allentown senior got his first chance in the Navy game when first string goal tender, Jerry Bruce hurt his hand and was taken out of the game in the third quarter.

The Middies had just gone on a scoring binge, kicking in three consecutive goals. The uninitiated Fegley came in and stopped the Midshipmen cold for the remainder of the game.

The other goal tender that has caused Hosterman to make a scoring change is Jerry Bruce.

Gordon Regains Job As Indian Manager

CLEVELAND (AP)—Joe Gordon, relieved as manager of the Cleveland Indians just Tuesday night, got his job back yesterday—with a two-year contract and a raise in pay.

Frank Lane, Indians general manager who had publicly berated Gordon for his handling of the team, told a startled press conference:

"The best man to succeed Joe Gordon, I thought, was Joe Gordon."

The announcement was a complete switch—speculation was that former National League manager Leo Durocher would pilot the Indians next season.

When Lane leaned back in his chair at the start of the press conference and shouted to an aide to "bring in Leo," Durocher was expected to step through the door.

But in strode a smiling Joe Gordon, who shook hands with the boss and said the feud was over.

Gordon dismissed the bitter exchanges as the actions of "two hot-heads in a pennant chase."

Until Tuesday night the second-place Indians could have copped the American League flag. But they fell before the Chicago White Sox 4-2, and were eliminated from the race.

Gordon said the two-year contract at a "guessed" annual salary of $40,000 shows that Lane "thinks I'm a better manager than he sometimes says I am."

Lane admitted meeting Durocher in Pittsburgh after Gordon resigned last Friday. He also said he contacted several major league clubs to find out whether they were trying to hire Gordon.

However, he added, he started looking for a manager only after he was honestly convinced Joe wanted out.

Tonic to See Action Against Southern Cal

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Quarterback Ivan Tonic of the University of Pittsburgh football team is expected to see a lot of action tomorrow night in Los Angeles against Southern California despite an injured knee.

Head Coach Johnny Michelosen of Pitt said he planned to start Dave Kraus at the signal-calling position, but added that he planned to use Tonic on offense for the main part of the game.

Meanwhile, the Panthers drilled on pass offense and defense and punt and kickoff returns Wednesday.

Last Saturday over 400 Outing Clubbers climbed Mount Nittany as an annual event of the P.S.O.C.

Bar B-Q's, potato chips, apples, and root beer were provided free to members.

Second and third helpings were common; one member came back again and again consuming 6 Bar B-Q's, several apples and helpings of potato chips as well as almost one half gallon of root beer—The infirmary anyone?

Buses provided free transportation for the weary, but happy hikers, back to the HUB.

See you there next year. If you missed out on the fun, there are more activities coming up.

Have fun with the PSOC gang.

White Sox Rest After Clincher

CHICAGO (AP)—While this baseball-delirious city began to calm down a bit yesterday, the American League champion White Sox rested for an anticlimactic series with the Tigers in Detroit this weekend.

Manager Al Lopez, scouting the San Francisco Giants in their game with the Chicago Cubs, turned over the Sox to Coach Tony Cuccinello.

Lopez said that although a few Sox players may be rested in the three-set finale at Detroit, his club would not just be going through the motions.

"Detroit is fighting for third place with the Yankees and Baltimore," said Lopez. "We have to play the best we think we can under the circumstances."

Lopez will remain in Chicago, scouting the Dodgers against the Cubs, or visiting Milwaukee to watch the Braves against Philadelphia this weekend, while the White Sox are winding up in Detroit.

"We may bench Little Looie shortstop Louis Aparicio and a few others who need rest," said Lopez. "But Nellie Fox stays in there—he's working on a consecutive game string, you know."

Fox played his 666th straight game last night in Cleveland when the White Sox clinched the pennant with a thrilling 4-2 conquest of the second-place Indians.
