

Sox Thump Dodgers 11-0 In Series Opener

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Musclemann Ted Kluszewski, a refugee from the National League, drove in five runs with two homers and a single for Chicago's hitless wonders yesterday while Early Wynn and Gerry Staley blanked Los Angeles in an 11-0 opening World Series victory.

Big Klu, obtained on waivers from Pittsburgh Aug. 25, knocked out both starter Roger Craig and relief man Chuck Churn with drives into the right-field stands.

The Go-Go Sox, who usually depend on speed, clobbered Craig and Churn, two recalled farmhands from Spokane, for seven runs in the third. They started hitting in bright sunshine. When they finally finished dark clouds had rolled in, obviously dispatched from the West Coast.

Kluszewski opened his assault on Craig with a single to right in the first, knocking in Jim Landis with the first of two Sox runs in the inning.

During the big third he finished Craig with his fly ball that just barely made it into the lower stands in right, once again scoring Landis. His second homer was a 400-foot power smash into the upper deck in right in the fourth with Landis once more trotting home in front of him.

This eye-opening performance by a man no National League team wanted, tied the series record for runs batted in, held jointly by Tony Lazzeri and Bill Dickey. They set the mark on the same day, Oct. 2, 1936, when the New York Yankees were thumping the New York Giants 18-2.

EARLY WYNN

As the score mounted the press box authors thumbed busily through the record books, looking for the most lopsided shutout. They had to go way back to the seventh game in 1934 when Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Cardinals threw an 11-0 cluncher against the Detroit Tigers.

Wynn, top winner in the majors with 22 victories, was removed in the eighth after leadoff man Junior Gilliam singled. It was the sixth Dodger hit. The losers got eight in all. Word from the dugout was that Wynn's right elbow had stiffened slightly and Manager Al Lopez did not want to risk any further damage.

Gerry Staley, the dependable bullpen ace, took over.

The Dodgers played as if they were the old Brooks of the Babe Herman era in the third when 11 men went to bat. The White Sox had two singles, three doubles and a homer in the inning and the Dodgers chipped in with three errors.

In the big inning, Duke Snider set a World Series mark for errors in an inning by an outfielder when he was charged with two on a dropped fly and a wild throw. Second baseman Charlie Neal also erred with a wild peg to the plate on an easy change.

Chicago had scored two on Craig in the first inning on a walk to Nellie Fox, the first of Landis' three singles. Kluszewski's single and Sherm Lollar's 400-foot sacrifice fly to deep center.

There was one gone in the third when the sky began to fall on the Dodgers, to the vast entertainment of most of the capacity crowd of 48,013. The White Sox fans who had waited 40 years for a series, chanted "go-go" like a college cheering section as the score mounted.

Harriers Will Meet Tough Cornell Foe

By DICK GOLDBERG

Last year, Cornell had the IC4A championship freshman cross country squad. Couple this with two returning lettermen and you can see why the Nittany Lions might face trouble in their opener tomorrow on the University golf course.

Penn State coach Chlck Werner feels that the Lions should hold a slight edge in the dual meet only because the harriers are competing on their home course. However, he stressed that anything can happen when competing against a team like this.

Last week in their opening meet, the Big Red stormed over Lemoyne and Colgate, 20-49-69.

They took first, third, fourth, fifth, and seventh places. They also had the next two finishers, although these men could not count in the score.

Top finisher for Cornell was John Einaudi. He negotiated the difficult five and one-sixteenth mile Cornell course in 28:53.

Next, placing in the third spot, was Bob Slater. His time was 29:02. Finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, were sophomores Bill Munday and Jim Groon. Munday's time was 29:12. Groon's 29:28.

The last three placers for the Bears were Jack Brockman, John McSweeney and Jim Adams. They finished with times of 29:54, 30:01 and 30:06, respectively.

Since the Big Red and Penn State started dual meets, the Lions have won 10 and dropped two. Last year, the Nittanies crushed Cornell, 17-42 with Ed Moran, Fred Kerr and Dick Engelbrink finishing one, two and three respectively.

The Cornell freshmen will also take on the Lion fledglings tomorrow. They have had one meet so far this season—a triangular one in which they finished ahead of Lemoyne but second to Colgate.

Top Cornell freshman was Dick Chunman. Chunman carded a first place finish with a 16:42 time over the three mile course.

Finishing third in the meet was Mike Hessiltin who came over the layout in 17:21.

Injured Raiford Lost For Tilt With Rams

From the way things have been going this season, it looks like the Penn State soccer team is running on an endless treadmill of bad luck. Coach Hosterman's crew was dealt another serious blow yesterday when it was announced that starter Gene Raiford would be unable to play Saturday because of an ankle injury.

It was feared that Raiford, who had been playing right inside but was switched to right halfback this week, had suffered a chipped bone in his ankle. However, this has not yet been verified by X-rays.

Raiford is the third Lion player to be sidelined in less than three weeks of action. Gary Miller and Larry Fegley had both been benched for most of last week's game due to charleyhorse injuries.

Replacing Raiford at right half will be either Carlos Astiz, the man whom Raiford had replaced, or Vernon Bounds, an upcoming junior.

Raiford's loss comes at an extremely bad time. The Lion booters, fighting to regain their status after last week's loss to Bucknell, face perennially tough West Chester tomorrow.

In the past three years, West Chester has been a sharp thorn in the Lion's side. In 1956 the Rams ended a two year, 19-game winning streak for the Lions as they fought the Nittany booters to a 0-0 deadlock. In 1957 the Teachers handed the Lions their only setback of the year as they trounced the frustrated Nittanies, 5-1. Again in 1958, what had been considered a green team by Ram coach Mel Lorbach, pulled a 2-0 upset over the Lions.

West Chester is the only team the Lions play that has distinction of holding the upper hand in the overall records, having beaten the Blue and White booters three times while only losing twice and tying once.

Although the West Chester booters had an inexperienced team last season, they still managed to post a 5-3-1 record.

This year the Rams' starting lineup boasts eight returning lettermen. Along with three promising sophomores, this starting unit posted its first victory last Saturday by a 5-3 margin over the West Chester alumni.

Coach Lorbach's restrained prediction was, "This season will depend on whether our sophomore players jell into good players."

In the goal for the Rams will be sophomore, Jack Jaunger. The fullback slots will be handled by senior Barry Ferich and junior Barry Remley.

The halfback slots fall to seniors Tony Zampella and co-captain Gene Davis, and to junior Joe Onyschuk.

The right flank of the forward line will be handled by sophomores Bud Woolley and Bill Fulk, while the left quadrant falls to co-captain Dick Dietrich and senior letter-winner Cris Jones. Center forward will be manned by Andy Kelly.

Steeler End Injured

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Rookie end Buddy Dial of the Pittsburgh Steelers suffered a wrenched back yesterday during a heavy practice session.

Steeler officials said the injury wasn't serious but probably would sideline Dial for Sunday's game against the Washington Redskins at Forbes Field.

Jack Butler, all National Football League safety man last year, was also slated to sit the game out for the Steelers because of a leg injury.

IM Bowling Entries

Registration of IM bowling teams begins today at the intramural office. Since the number of teams which can be entered is limited, entries will be on a first come, first served basis. Oct. 8 is the entry deadline.

The public writes the check for "public power"—in taxes

You and other Americans have already been taxed $5,500,000,000 for federally-owned "public power" systems.

And now the "public power" promoters are after $10,000,000,000 more—almost twice again as much—to put the federal government deeper and deeper into the electric business.

All this spending for more and more federal "public power" is unnecessary. For the hundreds of independent electric light and power companies, like yours, are ready and able to supply all the low-price electricity people will need—without depending on taxes.

"Public power" spending goes on because most people don't know they are paying the cost. The best way to stop it is to tell your friends and neighbors what's happening. When enough people understand, you can be sure something will be done to halt this unnecessary tax spending.
