Finkleston Finished For Season

short pass from Paske to end Jon Hunsinger. Hunsinger dropped the ball in the end zone, and Colgate captain Joe Wignot fell on it for the score.

Captain Pat Botula led Penn State's eight touchdown parade, scoring twice in the first period.

His first tally came with five minutes gone. Lucas set up the touchdown with an interception on his own 24. He ran it back 35 yards to the Colgate 41.

A Lucas to Dick Hoak aerial netted 17 yards and the Lions were on the Colgate 24.

Hoak ripped off two eight-yard gains and Botula knifed over from the one.

He scored again a few minutes later on a six-yard sprint through the middle of the Colgate forward wall.

Sam Stelatella's extra point made it 14-0. Stelatella wound up the day with four conversions and booted a 34-yard field goal.

The Lions kept pouring it on and scored their third touchdown right after the second quarter started.

This time halfback Dick Pae set up the touchdown when he took a punt on his own 27 and returned it 49 yards to the Colgate 23. Hoak slashed for 12, Botula powered his way for five more and then halfback Jimmy Kerr hit paydirt on a five-yard dash.

Seven minutes later the Lions had a 28-7 lead as the result of a Galen Hall to Jack Urban pass play which covered 14 yards.

Colgate squeezed in a score before Sam Stelatella booted his field goal to give the Lions a 31-13 halftime lead.

Hoak brought the crowd to its feet at the start of the second half when he took the kickoff on the 12-yard line and returned it 87 yards to the one. He plunged over on the next play and the Lions were out in front 37-13.

The other third period touchdown came on a 10-yard pass from Lucas to Norm Neff.

AFTER GAME VIEWS—Penn State coach Rip Engle and Colgate coach Alva Kelly discuss the highpoints of the Saturday's game at Beaver Field. Penn State whipped Colgate 58-20.

the two final scores. Halfback Tony Wayne went 3 yards for one score and tackle Bob Gilmore intercepted a pass on the Colgate 38 and galloped the rest of the way for the tally.

Lucas, who had the leading pass completion percentage in the country before the game, hit only 6 for 16 for 72 yards. But he proved his versatility by picking up 56 yards rushing.

It was Urban, though, who stole the show. The little third string halfback, playing in place of injured Eddie Caye, picked up 70 yards rushing in four carries.

His longest run was a 38-yard scamper in the second quarter.

"Urban was really something out there," said Engle, "he's really a fine boy. He's had nothing but bad luck since he came here, but Saturday he made up for it"

There was one sad note in the Lion win. Third unit quarterback Skip Finkleston broke his leg and will be lost to the team for the season.

He was taken to Geisinger Memorial Hospital in Danville where a pin will be inserted into his leg today. He's expected to be on crutches for three to four weeks but the pin will in for at least eight weeks.
