

Colgate Coach Issues Dire Warning On Lions' Pass Catching and Defense

By JOHNNY BLACK, Assistant Sports Editor

"You won't be able to win the close ones like that." These words of Colgate coach Alva Kelly, referring specifically to the dropped passes and also to the lax pass defense of the Nittany Lions, predicated a dire warning for the Englemen. These facets of their game, he indicated, must be sharpened if they have aspirations of winning the Lambert Trophy and/or going to a post-season bowl.

The Nittany gridders followed the urging of their boosters at Friday night's pep rally when they literally "brushed the field with Colgate," running up the highest score of any Engle-coached team at Penn State. But the two items to which Kelly referred stood out as a sore spot in an otherwise banner day for bearers of the Blue and White.

Kelly reiterated that except for the muffed aeriels the well-oiled Lion offensive juggernaut was strong and deep. He praised the play of both the second and third units as well as the first-string. "They've got three good units to throw against you," he commented.

"Nobody was kidding anybody when we came down here," said Kelly, "we knew we were in for a rough game." When questioned as to what specific phase of the Penn State attack hurt his team most, he glibly replied, "It looked like running and passing to me."

Kelly had one thing to boast about, and he smiled broadly when he spoke of Colgate's passing performance. "I was very pleased with my boys on that score," he said.

The Red Raiders, with Bob Paske doing most of the flinging, soared to a total of 284 yards via Beaver Field airplanes. The Penn State air yardage, decimated by the attack of dropsy, was 86 yards, considerably below that of the games against Missouri and VMI.

Though his passing percentage suffered for above mentioned reasons, Kelly was still impressed with Lion quarterback Richie Lucas.

In fact his initial spontaneous comment about Penn State's All-America candidate was, "He is the best I've ever played against." After a moment's reflection on his years of coaching, like any wise coach guarding his words, he decided to qualify the statement by changing the superlative adjective to one of the comparative degree.

Galen Hall, the Lions' number two QB, continued to run the rollout for sizable chunks of a yardage before he pulled a muscle just before halftime. He also fired two perfect strikes in two attempts. One was dropped by John Bozick, the other was held by Jack Urban for a touchdown.

Game Statistics

INDIVIDUAL STATISTICS				COLGATE
Colgate Rushing				Colgate Passing
Player	Times Carried	Net Yards	Times Carried	Att.	Comp.	Inter.	Yards
Dalley	6	25	Paske	22	8	2	187
Simunovich	1	14	Jones	10	4	1	63
Scull	4	12	Testa	3	1	2	38
Jaeger	5	11	Penn State Passing
Penn State Rushing				Player	Att.	Comp.	Inter.	Yards
Urban	6	70	Lucas	16	6	0	72
Lucas	6	66	Hall	2	1	0	14
Hoak	6	58	STATISTICAL SUMMARY
Kerr	6	51	Penn State		Colgate
Botula	6	28	First downs	24	20
Sobczak	6	24	Yards rushing	840	87
Pae	6	21	Yards passing	88	284
Finkleston	2	20	Passes completed	7 of 22	13 of 35
Colgate Passing				Passes had intercepted	0	5
Player	Att.	Comp.	Inter.	Punts	4	5
Paske	22	8	2	Punting average	35	87
Jones	10	4	1	Fumbles lost	1	2
Testa	3	1	2	Yards penalized	90	5

A BREAK—for Dick Pae (11), Penn State halfback. Pae broke away from Colgate guard, Ken Kerr (60) for a gain of 6 yards in the second quarter of Saturday's game.

Kikla Leads KDR To IM Grid Victory

By CRAIG YERKES

Last night was a night for standout individual performances on the IM grid scene. Theta Xi, Kappa Delta Rho, Chi Phi, Delta Tau Delta, and Beta Theta Pi, all sparked by individual stars, checked in with their first wins of the '59 campaign.

KDR was led by outstanding passing from the left arm of baseballer Ed Kikla. Kikla, who had a 9-1 record for the Lions, heaved three TD passes, hitting Chuck Baldock twice and Joe Corini to run up a 20-0 score over Sigma Chi.

Anderson Suffers Injury; Out Indefinitely

NEW YORK (AP) — Two leading All America candidates, Dick Thornton of Northwestern and Bob Anderson of Army, are among the several college backfield stars felled — some for the season — by a freak succession of injuries over the weekend.

Theta Xi defeated Delta Phi, 7-6, in overtime after Marlin Biesecker hit Jim Weaver in the end zone for the game tying TD with 30 seconds remaining. Chi Phi was sparked by some good ballhawking on the part of Charley Edmunds in its 7-0 victory over Phi Kappa Theta. Edmunds' first half interception set up the game's only score, as Jim Molenari hit Edmunds on the next play from 30 yards out.

Delta Tau Delta's combination of Sam Bowman to Junior Lane proved to be too much for Delta Sigma Phi. The Deltas scored early in the game and managed to hang on, 6-0, as a last ditch attempt by Delta Sig stalled on the four yard line with less than a minute to play.

In independent action, Lehigh defeated Watts, 6-0, as George Irvine scored on a 20 yard pass play, after he had plucked a Watts aerial out of the air on the preceding play.

Hemlock defeated Birch, 13-0, as Miles Cohen passed for two TD's and added his team's final point with a placement. Cohen hit Jack O'Neil twice for the game's only scoring.

In other independent action Jordan defeated Delaware, 9-0, and Linden edged Maple 5-4 on first downs.

Anderson, leading ground gainer of Army's high-rated machine, suffered a right knee injury in the game against Illinois. Doctors hope he won't be lost for more than two weeks but there is danger he will be out for the year.

Purdue lost its veteran quarterback, Ross Fichtner, who engineered the first two touchdowns in the 28-7 defeat of Notre Dame.

Repairs	Television
Car Radios	Radios
Phonographs

television service center at State College TV 232 S. Allen St.

BEAT ARMY

Catherman's BARBER SHOP basement of
The Corner Room
Daily 8-5:30 - Sat. 8-12

Is Letter Writing Your Problem?

Can't think of a thing to say? Parents waiting anxiously for Penn State news?

Solve your problem with a subscription of The Daily Collegian mailed directly to your home. All University sports, teas, lectures and elections are completely reported by The Daily Collegian. Keep the folks at home informed with either a semester's subscription (only $3.00) or a full year's subscription (only $5.00).

Fill in the blank below and mail to us or call UN 5-2531

The Daily Collegian
Box 261
State College, Pa.
Send To: (please print)
Name _____
Street _____
City _____ State _____

() Payment Enclosed: () $3 semester () $5 year
Make checks payable to The Daily Collegian
() Bill:
Name (please print) _____
Street _____
City _____ State _____

...the right move

In the winning fashion of Arrow knit shirts—you sport championship style. The flattering collar features the buttondown in front and center back. Built-in comfort, enduring fit in 100% cotton knit. Interesting patterns in long or short sleeves. $5.00 up.

ARROW

Each Saturday see the NCAA football "Game of the Week"—NBC TV—sponsored by ARROW.