

Theologians to Give First Grad Lecture

The Reverend Gustav Weigel, theologian at Woodstock College, will speak on "Ecumenics: Old and New World" at 8 tonight in 121 Sparks as the first lecturer in the Graduate School Lecture Series.

In his talk, Father Weigel will discuss the relationship between the ecumenical movement which in 1948 brought forth the World Council of Churches and the ecumenical council which Pope John has said he will convoke.

A graduate of Woodstock College, Father Weigel received his doctor of philosophy and doctor of sacred theology degrees at Universita Gregoriana in Rome. He is a leading Catholic theologian in the world today and a member of the Jesuit order.

Father Weigel has written several books the most recent of which have been "A Survey of Protestant Theology in Our Time"; "A Catholic Primer on the Ecumenical Movement"; and "Faith and Understanding in America."

This will be Father Weigel's second visit to the campus within the past two years. At the Brotherhood Banquet held in February, 1957, he was the guest speaker.

Tonight's lecture is being co-sponsored by the Office of the University Chaplain and the Graduate School.

Faculty Grants Now Available

The Danforth Foundation has announced that applications for teacher study grants for 1960-61 will be received until Oct. 20 from college and university teachers.

Deans of the various colleges have information concerning applications.

The grants, awarded yearly on the basis of academic excellence, personality congenial to the classroom, and sincere religious inquiry, are for study toward the doctoral degree at the American university of the recipient's choice.

Candidates must be between 25 and 40 years old, and must have had at least one year of successful graduate work and three of teaching experience, two of which must have been on the college level.
