

THE HARDER THEY FALL — An unidentified Penn State defenseman acts with a note of authority as he pins Army ballcarrier to the ground in the hard fought battle at Michie Stadium. Fierce blocking and tackling characterized the battle.

A DONKEY SERENADE?—Picture shows southern view of north-bound Army mules, beautifully bedecked with Penn State cheerleaders who enjoy a ride with their Cadet hosts.

Riverboat Romps In Lion's Conquest

(Continued from page one) 50-yard drive late in the first period.

After fullback Pat Botula and halfback Jim Kerr moved the ball to the Army 35, Lucas hit Norm Neff with a 10-yard aerial for a first down.

Halfback Dick Hoak gained a yard and then Lucas hit him in the right flat with a 17-yard pass to put the ball on the Army eight. Botula moved for five and Lucas carried three yards for the score. Sam Stellatella booted the extra point and the Lions led, 7-0.

Army broke into the scoring column with two minutes gone in the second period when quarterback Tom Blanda booted a 32-yard field goal to make the score 7-3.

Stellatella came through with his second field goal of the year a few minutes later and the Lions had a 10-3 edge.

Penn State's final score came with 10 seconds left in the half when Lucas sneaked over from the one. Once again Stellatella booted the point for a 17-3 halftime bulge.

Lion center Jay Huffman set up the touchdown when he intercepted a Joe Caldwell pass on the Army 44 and moved it to the 36.

Lucas then heaved a long aerial intended for Roger Kochman near the goal line and interference was called on the 4 when Blanda grabbed Kochman by the shirt. Penn State was then penalized 15-yards for illegal procedure when Hoak, whom Kochman had just replaced, was sent back into the game, and the ball was moved back to the 19. Lucas then hit Henry Opperman with a 14-yard pass. Lucas went over for the score on the next play.

Army came storming back in the third period and scored at 8:17 on a pass play from Caldwell to George Kirschenbauer. Caldwell then passed to halfback Roger Zailskas for the extra point and the Lion lead was cut to 17-11.

The Cadets didn't threaten again until late in the final period. After Stellatella missed a field goal attempt, the Black Knights marched up the field and appeared headed for the game winning score when Lucas came through with his clutch interception.

The Lions took over on the 16 and Pae, Botula and Lucas ran the clock out.

Pandemonium broke loose after the final whistle when some 5,000 Penn State rooters swarmed onto the field and mobbed the victorious Lions and carried Rip Engle off the field.

Lucas was picked as the most valuable back in the game by the sportswriters at Michie Stadium.

"He's the best all-round quarterback I've ever seen," said Phil Monahan, the captain of Navy's 1954 Sugar Bowl champs.

And Monahan, who is now a Navy coach and was scouting the game, played with George Welsh, who at that time was considered (Continued on page four)

Game Shorts

The Lions were in top physical condition and played man for man on par with the well drilled Cadets . . . President Eric A. Walker, Secretary of the Army Wilbur M. Brucker reviewed the Cadet march on the Plains before the game together with Superintendent Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, of the Academy . . . The weather was ideal for the game, sunny but cool . . . Not to be outdone the Cadets twice copied the Lion honor line coming onto the field to greet their players . . . Army's Bill Carpenter, an All-American in everyone's book, is a tremendous team leader . . . Army suffered several bad breaks through penalties . . . Penn State fans fell silent when Galen Hall was injured in the fourth quarter. This left only Lucas, but the Lions didn't need anyone else for the job . . . Hall was not seriously injured . . . In fact, no one was injured seriously which could be determined immediately after the game . . . Sam Stellatella hit on three of four placekicking attempts. His first field goal kick was perfect but the second went a little wide to the right . . . Cheerleader Joanie Cavanaugh rode the Army mule during the halftime intermission and made a big hit with the Cadets (no wonder) . . . The Lions lost only their second fumble of the season in the second quarter . . . Penn State scored with only 10 seconds left in the first half in a real thriller . . . Only seconds before an 80-yard Army touchdown run had been called back.

Rutgers Shaves Colgate

NEW BURNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—Unbeaten Rutgers tramped to an early football lead yesterday and then held on for dear life to defeat Colgate, 15-12.

STATISTICS

Penn State	7	10	0	0-17
Army	0	3	3	0-11
PS—Lucas 2 (plunge), Stellatella, Army—Field Goal, Blanda, 32, PS—Field Goal, Stellatella, 20, PS—Lucas 1 (plunge), Stellatella, kick, Army—Kirschenbauer 11 (pass from Caldwell), Zailskas (pass from Caldwell).

STATISTICS
	Army Penn State
First Downs	12 21
Rushing yardage	74 194
Passing yardage	148 126
Total yardage	222 320
Passes completed	13-23 12-24
Passes intercepted by	1 2
Punts	6-38 4-35
Fumbles lost	0 1
Yards penalized	146 85

LINEUPS
ARMY
TE—Evebach, Gibson
LT—McCarthy, Whitehead, Mengel
LG—Jerion, Butzer, Miller
C—Oswandel, Buckner, Joulwan
RG—Vanderbush, Casp
RT—Brown, Kuhns, Yost
RE—Carpenter, Waters, Fullhart
QB—Caldwell, Blanda
LH—Zailskas, Minor, Adams
RH—Waldrop, Kirschenbauer, Culver
FB—Bonko, Conners, Rushatz
PENN STATE
TE—Opperman, Bozick
LT—Janerette, Stynchula
LG—Kohlhaas, Stellatella
C—Huffman, Graham
RG—Popp, Korbini, Sava
RT—Mulroney, Barber
RE—Neff, Mitinger
QB—Lucas, Hall
LH—Hoak, Pae, Kochman
RH—Kerr, Cave, Urban
FB—Botula, Sobczak

LONDON FOG . . .

. . . The one coat you need

The weatherman may be wrong, but you're always right in this light-weight LONDON FOG all-weather coat! Wash 'n' wear, it keeps its crisp good looks through real rugged weather. Available in natural or black.

$29.95

Jack Harper

Custom Shop for Men

Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.

Visit our second floor . . . step up to an Atherton suit

Five Penn State Grid Rivals Romp

Here's how Penn State's future opponents made out yesterday. A rundown of the West Virginia-Boston University game was not available. The Terriers edged West Virginia 7-0.

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—The Holy Cross Crusaders, plagued by penalties, fumbles and interceptions, eked out an 8-0 win yesterday over the University of Dayton.

Quarterback Dick O'Brien hit right halfback Dick Murphy with a 34-yard pass into the end zone in the final seconds of the second period for the only score.

It was the 100th victory for Dr. Eddie Anderson as head coach of the Crusaders.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Ivan (The Tonic) Tonic passed 56 yards to end Mike Ditka for one touchdown and set up another with two lowflying aerials as Pitt defeated Duke 12-0 yesterday in an intersectional football game.

Tonic's throwing and Ditka's catching gave the crowd of 38,749 the only thrilling moments in a hot, sweaty game which otherwise was fought near the 50-yard line.

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Syracuse intercepted four Navy passes and overpowered the Midshipmen on the ground yesterday to gain an easy 32-6 victory in the 13th Shrine Oyster Bowl game.

It was an awesome display of power, both on offense and defense, by the Orangemen from upstate New York as they won their third straight game.

Navy, with Joe Tranchini tossing pinpoint passes, gained more ground in the first half than Syracuse's first two opponents had in two games. But nearly every time the Midshipmen got within scoring range, Syracuse's defense stiffened and someone grabbed off a Navy pass.

The power-packed Syracuse attack from an unbalanced wing T formation, ground out touchdown drives of 59, 84 and 58 yards, employing passes only enough to keep the Navy defense honest.

Another time the Orangemen went 74 yards only to have the drive fizzle out short of a score when Sarette failed to connect on a couple of pass attempts with a wet ball.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 73-yard pass play that bordered on the miraculous and a fourth-period field goal gave Illinois a 9-0 upset over Ohio State yesterday in a Big Ten football game which attracted 82,980 fans.

The Buckeye attack, once the scourge of the conference, foundered on the rocky Illinois defense as the Bucks lost the ball on downs on the 29 and 11 yard lines and on pass interceptions on the Illinois 11 and 12.

Delivery on

Hoagies Hamburgers
Steaks Cheeseburgers
Pizza Sausage
and Soft Drinks

9 P.M. till 12 P.M.

MORRELL'S

AD 8-8381

Clark's Desert Boots

Inspired by the original Boer Boot. Desert Boots by Clark's of England are truly the worlds most traveled shoe. Worn the world around to fulfill his dictates for comfort.

priced at $12.95

Bostonian Ltd.
AT
PENN STATE

Guy Kresge Jack Harper
Around the corner from the Jack Harper Custom Shop