Gridders Have Six Big 'Ifs'

By Sandy Padwa

The favorite sayings on the Penn State campus last weekend were "We Beat Army and See You in Dallas."

The first one is history but that last one is a l-o-o-o-n-g way off. Six games off to be exact.

And despite what the schedule critics say, all six are going to be tough, starting with Saturday's homecoming affair against Boston University.

Last year the Lions had no trouble beating the Terriers, but this year things might be different.

Boston U has its two top backs around again plus a good group of sophomores. They dropped their first two games to George Washington and Kansas, but last Friday they pulled an upset when they beat West Virginia, 7-0.

Saturday the Terriers will have plenty of incentive when they tangle with the Nittanians. Number one, they will be out to atone for last year's 34-0 loss. Number two, Boston U has never beaten the Lions. They've lost five times. Thirdly, a win over the tenth ranked team in the nation would boost Terrier stock quite a bit.

Following the BU game, the Nittanians move to Cleveland for an inter-sectional battle with the 13th ranked team in the nation—Illinois.

The fighting Illini hold wins over mighty Ohio State and Army. They dropped their opener to Indiana. The Illini have a sensational sophomore quarterback in Mel Myers and he should give the Lions plenty to worry about.

After the Illinois game the Nittanians travel to Morgantown for a game with arch-rival West Virginia. The Mounties tied Penn State last year and this season Pappy Lewis has another strong outfit.

Then comes the big one—eighth-ranked Syracuse. The outcome will determine who wins the Lambert Trophy—the mythical Eastern football championship.

The Orange are undefeated this year and they showed their strength last week when they mauled Navy, 32-6. And the Middles have plenty of talent.

Holy Cross, another undefeated team, is next on the schedule. The Crusaders of Eddie Anderson always put on a good show and could cause plenty of trouble in the final game on Beaver Field.

Holy Cross' 3-0 record is in danger this weekend. They play Syracuse. But don't forget last year. Holy Cross was the only team in the country to beat the Orange during the regular season.

The final game is the traditional clash with Pitt at Pittsburgh. As usual the Panthers have a good solid ball club. Things looked bad after they nearly lost to Marquette and then were dumped by Southern Cal.

But they have really come

Improved Harriers to Face Top Powers in Big Meet

The Nittany Lion cross country team won two smashing victories over Cornell and Pitt this season but coach Chick Werner warned that the harriers will not be able to breeze through the rest of its schedule.

The reason for this is that the three remaining meets for the year will be with perennial powers—Navy, Michigan State and Manhattan.

"Cornell and Pitt are not among the top powers in the league. The other three always field top rate cross country teams," Werner said.

Michigan State has the best record of any cross country team in the nation. Last year they won the PITTSBURGH (AP) — Coach Buddy Parker of the Pittsburgh Steelers, still smarting over last Sunday's 28-24 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles, made two lineup changes yesterday.

along in their last two games beating U.C.L.A. and Duke. The main reason for their wins was Ivan (the Tonic) Tonic.

He threw three touchdown passes in the last quarter to give the Panthers a 25-21 win over the Uclans and he engineered the win over Duke.

At the moment the big If's are Illinois, Syracuse, and Pitt. So whether it be Dallas, Miami, Jacksonville or even Philadelphia (Liberty Bowl) it's still a long way off

Horvath, Stanko Win Grid Prediction Contest

John Horvath and Jim Stanko won the season's first grid picks contest sponsored by WDFM's "Meet the Varsity" program by making the closest predictions to the actual 17-11 score of the Penn State-Army game last Saturday.

Horvath had predicted a 17-7 outcome and Stanko 16-13. The winners will receive two tickets to the Thespians' musical comedy and the Chordettes' concert. Winners may pick up their tickets at WDFM office, 304 Sparks.

One hundred and sixty major buildings are currently in use on the University campus. Commonwealth Campuses and research centers elsewhere in the State account for an additional 40 major buildings.

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine,
A loaf of Bread and Winston's
Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"? We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking. Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it: The Moving Lighter lights; and having lit, Flicks off. Then you draw on IT, And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts; With Filter-Blend up front, Winston's got what counts!
