

Service to Be Held For Alumni Families

A special Protestant Service of Worship, primarily for University alumni and their families will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

The Rev. Samuel Gibson, executive director of the University Christian Association, will be the leader of worship and the preacher. His sermon topic is "Self-Discovery and Home-coming." He will be assisted by Dr. Gordon Pritham, professor of physiological chemistry, and a member of the United Christian Association board of directors.

The Meditation Chapel Choir, under the direction of James Beach, will provide music for the service. The organist will be Nancy Hadfield.

At the regular Protestant Service of Worship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the chapel, Gibson will also be leader of worship and preacher. He will be assisted by Lee VanBremen, the student president of the Student Christian Association.

The Meditation Chapel choir will sing the choral anthem, "All from the Sun's Uprise" by Tomblings.

Tickets for the Newman Club's first Communion breakfast will be sold after all masses tomorrow. The breakfast will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Oct. 25 at the State College Hotel. Masses for Roman Catholics will be said at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Victory Church and at 9 a.m. in Schwab Auditorium.

The Wesley Foundation will attend the Sanctuary Service at St. Paul's Church at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m., with a Wesley morning worship at 9:15 a.m. The Wesley Discussion Seminar will be at 9:45 a.m.; and the Fireside Forum, "Work Project in Ethiopia" at 6:30 p.m.

Seniors of the Lutheran Student Association will sponsor the Senior Class Supper at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow at the student center. At 6:30 p.m., the Bryan Green Lecture tape recordings will be played and narrated by Samuel Gibson.

There will be a Sabbath morning Minyon service at 10 a.m. today in the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation. The Graduate and Married Club will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the lounge.

The Westminster Foundation will hold seminars at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Presbyterian University Center.

George E. Ceiga, University organist, will play "Psalm Prelude (psalm 139, verse 11)" by Howells. He will also play "Chorale Prelude on St. Peter" by Darke as the offertory; and "Fuge in G Minor" by Bach as the postlude.

The University Chapel Choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor, will sing "If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee" by Gerog Neumark as the choral introit, and a setting of "Psalm 95" by Jean Berger as the anthem.

Shinn received his bachelor of arts degrees from Heidelberg College and his bachelor of divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary. He received his doctor of philosophy degree from Columbia University.

Shinn was an instructor in philosophy and theology at Union Theological Seminary from 1947-49. In 1949 he became chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Heidelberg College. He later served as professor of theology at Vanderbilt University Divinity School until returning to Union in his present capacity this year.

'Book' Actor Suffers Injury

Samuel Parsons, senior in arts and letters from Allentown and a member of the Thespians' production "It's in the Book," was admitted to the University dispensary yesterday and held overnight for observation.

According to Theodore Pauloski, president of Thespians, Parsons was injured in an automobile accident and suffered a cut tongue and facial injuries.

Pauloski said the Parsons' two roles in the Thespians' production will be filled by James Currie, senior in labor-management relations from Pottsville, and Richard Mazza, senior in the arts from Drexel Hill.

Currie will play the lawyer in "The Goldilocks Caper," and Mazza will portray Friar Tuck in "Robin, The Hood."
