

Lion Harriers Will Meet Mighty Spartans Today

Any coach who has ever guided a successful team must face the day when his squad plays a "do-or-die" game. Today is such a day for Penn State cross country coach Chick Werner as the undefeated Lions meet the mighty Spartans of Michigan State at East Lansing.

This meet is important to the Lions because Michigan State stacks up to be the number one team in the nation. "If we win, we have a good chance to do well in the past-season meets. If we don't win, our chances of a top finish are not too good," Werner said.

The Lion mentor will send eight harriers to East Lansing to try to take the victory. Dick Engelbrink is the number one man on the team. Engelbrink has carded two firsts and a third in the three previous Lion meets.

Herm Weber is second man on the Lion squad. The speedy junior has finished second in all of Penn State's meets.

Rounding out the top five harriers are Steve Moorhead, Denny Johnson and Chuck King. "These three men must block out the Michigan State runners or we won't have a chance," Werner commented.

Completing the team are Mike Miller, Jack Williams and George Machlin.

The Spartans will field six returning lettermen from their 1958 NCAA and IC4A championship team. Top man for MSU is Fordy Kennedy. He was last year's individual collegiate champ and, according to this year's statistics, his ability has not decreased.

In five dual meets, Kennedy has recorded four firsts and one third. He holds the Penn State 5-mile course record.

Also returning to the Spartan squad is Bob Lake. Lake was Big Ten mile champion last year. In the Lion-Michigan State track meet, Lake dueled Ed Moran and pushed him to a 4:02.1 mile.

Other Spartan lettermen are Jerry Yocng, Bill Reynolds, Ed Grayson and Clayton Ward Young has finished in the top five in all MSU meets. Grayson, Ward and Reynolds have all card-

Lion Booters Meet Terps Tomorrow

Maryland's undefeated soccer team come to University Park tomorrow to face the Nittany Lions on Beaver Field at 1:30 p.m.

Maryland downed the Lions last year, 4-1, and went on to capture the Atlantic Coast Conference championship for the sixth straight year. The Terps posted a 9-0-1 record last season. A scoreless tie with Navy was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect slate.

The Terps are coached by Doyle Royal who is starting his 14th year at Maryland. Royal has the distinction of never having lost a conference game while he has been head coach.

Maryland has posted five straight wins thus far this season. Win number five came over perennially tough John Hopkins University, 3-2. The Booters from College Park, Md., have netted for an average of 6.2 per game. 31 goals in their first five games. This compares to nine goals for the Nittanies in four games, an average of 2.2.

Maryland has lost only two starters from last year's team. Leading the Terps will be Carhol Hess, outside left, who netted one of the four Maryland goals against the Lions last year.

The eight other starters from last year's game who will see plenty of action tomorrow are Fred Lehman, goalie Bob Voss-winkel, fb; Rich Romine, hb; Ernesto Ribeiro, ir; Bill Pflugrad, or; Cliff Krufg, cf; John Fulton, hb; Algirdas Bacanskas, hb.

DENNY JOHNSON ... one of top five

The Spartans have three outstanding sophomore prospects. They are Jim Howard, Tony Smith and Bob Bond.

Last year's Penn State-Michigan State meet was termed by Werner as the greatest cross country meet he has ever seen. The Spartans carved out a 23-32 victory. In this, Ed Moran and Kennedy dueled for the first four miles with Kennedy outlasting the Lion star.

N.Y. Plans Stadium For 3rd Major Loop

NEW YORK (AP)—The still-forming Continental Baseball League cleared a major hurdle yesterday. The city's Board of Estimate unanimously approved a $170,000 appropriation for an engineering firm to prepare preliminary plans for construction of a $15,000,000 sports stadium at Flushing Meadows Park.

The park is in Queens, a borough of New York City.

William Shea, Continental founder who was in Reading, Pa., said he was delighted and encouraged by the board's action.

"This was a necessary prerequisite to our completing the continental league," he said. "We can now look forward to the selection of the three remaining cities to complete our complement in the Continental League."

The five founding cities are New York, Toronto, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Only Wednesday Branch Rickey, the president of the Continental, said the last three would be chosen from among Montreal, Buffalo, Atlanta and Dallas-Fort Worth.

The engineering company will draw plans and specifications for a 55,000-seat all-sports stadium whose capacity could be increased later to 80,000.

Rigney Rehired To Manage SF

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bill Rigney yesterday was re-hired as manager of the San Francisco Giants with a one-year contract calling for an estimated $40,000.

President Horace Stoneham told a news conference the terms are the same as in Rigney's 2-year contract that expired at the end of the 1959 season. The Giants finished third in the National League after leading much of the year.

The terms were not disclosed but a reliable source placed Rigney's stipend in the $40,000 neighborhood, about half the salary paid his star outfielder, Willie Mays.

Stoneham said he hadn't talked about the manager's job with anyone except Rigney, but intimated his pilot would be on the spot to produce a champion next season.

THINK OF ALL THE GROCERIES THIS WOULD BUY!

But wouldn't you hate to see that much of your money being spent unnecessarily by someone else?

Sad to relate, that's just about what will happen if the lobbyists for federal "public power" have their way. They are after some $10,000,000,000 of tax money to put the federal government farther into the electric business.

This would cost each American family about $200, on the average. And this on top of $100 per family already spent for so-called "public power"!

This "public power" spending is quite unnecessary. For independent electric light and power companies like yours are ready and able to supply all the low-price electricity people will need—without depending on your family's taxes.

Unnecessary "public power" spending goes on simply because most people don't know about it. So spread the word among your friends and neighbors. As soon as enough people know, you can be sure it will be halted.

AP Favors Illini, Navy Notre Dame

By WILL GRIMSLEY AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Ever so often we take a few snips of the elixir of football foolhardiness and sail off into the wild blue yonder on a cloud.

Brace yourself, we've got that feeling again—especially after a banner week in which we picked 37 of 47 for a .788 average.

Don't demand a saliva test on these:

Notre Dame 20, Northwestern 14: The Irish and George Izo are bound to have a day when everything clicks. This is it.

Arkansas 13, Mississippi 7: Ole Miss may be looking a week ahead to the LSU game, and that could be costly.

Navy 19, Penn 14: The Midshipmen crack a three-game losing streak and end the Quakers' unbeaten record.

Texas Christian 20, Pittsburgh 18: The Southwest champs are coming strong, Pitt still nursing its West Virginia wounds.

Louisiana State 14, Florida 0: The Tigers win No. 18 straight, but continue to find it hard-sledding on foreign fields.

Texas 23, Rice 12: Rice halted the Longhorns' streak a year ago but the latter's memory is long.

Southern California 19, Stanford 7: The Trojans continue to look like the class of the Pacific Coast.
