

KAT's, KKG's Train For Football Clash

By PAT DYER

"Twenty-three — 43 — 78 — Hike!"

Any unsuspecting student walking along Shortlidge after 4 o'clock classes between now and Junior Prom weekend may have reason to doubt his senses when he hears such commands coming from between Simmons and McElwan

If he bothers to investigate, however, he'll find his hearing is perfect, it's just the members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority out for their daily football practice

Oh, you didn't know the Theta's practiced football every day? Well, neither did the Theta's till they were challenged by the Kappa Kappa Gamma's to appear in the Penn State Powder Bowl.

The Powder Bowl at one time was an annual one-game series played in Beaver Field between two campus sororities. Admission was charged and the proceeds given to a charity.

The last game was played about five years ago. The series was discontinued by the former Dean of Women, Pearl O. Weston, according to Veronica Antrim, manager for the Kappa squad.

This year's game will be played Sunday, November 8. Kickoff time will be 2 p.m. at admissions (25 cents) and the sale of programs (5 cents) will be given to the Athletic Association for purchasing a new Lion's suit.

Regular men's intramural touch football rules, with certain modifications, will be used for the game, according to Susan Wylie, manager for the Theta "Touchdown Tigers." Intramural officials will referee the game.

HEc Building Cornerstone Will Be Laid

The cornerstone of the newly-constructed Home Economics building will be put in place at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Preston N. Williams, University Chaplain, will present the invocation at the brief ceremony. Dean Grace Henderson of the College of Home Economics will offer appropriate remarks. Further remarks will be made by Albert F. Diem, vice president for business administration.

Judith Heckert, president of the home economics student council and Carol Braund, president of the Student-Faculty Board, also will participate in the program.

A sealed lead box is being prepared under the direction of Dr. Winona Morgan, head of the Department of Child Development and Family Relations, which will be placed in the cornerstone. The contents of this box will include items and information pertinent to the College of Home Economics.

In the event of rain, the program will be conducted inside the new building.

Coeds--

First, second, and third place ribbons will be awarded to booths for originality, workmanship and appearance. Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity, and Skull and Bones, senior men's hat society will help the women construct their booths Friday.

The five candidates who score the highest in penny voting at Mardi Gras will present a talent contest 1-4 p.m. Saturday at Mardi Brawl in the Heitzel Union ballroom.

Winner of the talent show will be crowned by Miss Jessie Janigan, one of the talent show judges.

Mardi Brawl, sponsored by Chimes, junior women's hat society, will feature the jazz combos of Don Grebbs and of The Four Dimensions. Vincent Marino, senior in business administration from Clearfield, will act as master of ceremonies.

J-Grads Elect Whitten

Harvey Whitten was elected president of the Graduate Student Association of the School of Journalism. Norman Goldstein was elected vice president and Conrad Mszanowski, secretary-treasurer.

LUCKY STRIKE presents Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH

Most college students today do not know the meaning of the word "adversity." Those who do are just a handful of English majors.

Dr. Frood, Ph. T.T.

Dear Dr. Frood: When raccoon coats swept the campus, I wore a polo coat. When the English bobby cape came in, I wore a raccoon coat. I'm always in last year's style. How come?

Dated

Dear Dated: This is an anxiety complex arising out of being a "late-diaper" baby.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am irrationally, incalculably, irrevocably in love with a girl on campus. How can I tell her?

Lovesick.

Dear Lovesick: Use small words.

Dear Dr. Frood: When I listen to stupid people or read anything boring, I fall asleep. What can I do?

Superior

Dear Superior: Yours is an extremely difficult prob mfh zzz

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I leave my husband without making him happy?
Prof's Spouse

Dear Prof's Spouse: Leave a note saying you'll be back.

DR. FROOD TELLS WHO HOLDS HIS CIGARETTE HOW

I have noticed that the solid, conservative type carries his cigarette between his first two fingers. The nonconformist carries it locked in the bend of his arm. The self-conscious type holds his lighted cigarette in his pocket. The most intelligent species of all carry Lucky Strike (usually between their lips).

Dear Dr. Frood: Our library is full of "no smoking" signs. When I want a Lucky, I have to go outside. Is this right?
Furious

Dear Furious: It's monstrous. But think of the poor souls who go outside only to smoke brand X or Y or Z.

Dear Dr. Frood: Boys are always whispering at me. Do you think my clothes are too snug?
Prudence

Dear Prudence: It's impossible to tell without a picture. Send one. Please.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco:

TOBACCO AND TASTE TOO FINE TO FILTER!

Product of The American Tobacco Company — "Tobacco is our middle name"
