

Knepp Throws Four TD Passes as TDChi Wins

BETA SIG's BRYAN POKRAS just misses a pass by Dick Haber, in the Lambda Chi Alpha-Beta Sigma Rho IM football game last evening.

By BOB YEARICK

Sub-freezing temperatures had little effect on IM football action last evening as every game but two saw scoring.

Theta Delta Chi's Bob Knepp was the passing star of the evening. He threw to Dave Bonello for three touchdowns and hit Jim Hockenbrock for a fourth while leading his team to a 27-0 conquest of Pi Sigma Upsilon.

In other fraternity contests, Rich Sacane passed to Butch Burdette and Read Roberts for scores as Pi Kappa Phi downed Triangle, 13-7.

Alpha Phi Delta won a hard-fought battle with Omega Psi Phi. Lou Spagnoletti set up the lone 6-pointer with a long heave to Bob Zamboni, who snatched the pigskin from two defenders on the two-yard line. Spagnoletti then hit Fran Gatto for the tally.

In one of the games which failed to produce a scoring play, Lambda Chi Alpha edged Beta Sigma Rho on first downs. The game ended in a tie and after a short break, the two teams played ed a sudden death overtime. Lambda Chi gained their decisive margin on a disputed play. Frequent interceptions kept the game in a stalemate.

The kicking and passing of Dick Fisher carried Nittany 42 to a close 10-7 decision over Nittany 32. Fisher, after missing a 50-yard field goal, tried again, and this time converted a 35-yarder. He threw a long pass to Bob Burket which set up Butch Cross's three-yard scoring sweep around end. Fisher then added the extra point. His consistent punting kept Nittany 32 in check most of the game.

Nittany 33 defeated Nittany 39, 14-0, as Carl DeCaspers intercepted an enemy aerial and galloped 15 yards for the score. Bernie Buhl tossed to Tom Boario in the closing seconds for a good-measure touchdown. Lou Beam kicked both PAT's.

Nittany 22 combined an intercepted pass and a miscue by their opponents, Nittany 21, for a 9-0 victory. Dwight Stern ran 30 yards with the interception for a TD. A Nittany 21 center sailed out of the end zone for an automatic safety for Nittany 22.

AP Tabs State, Syracuse, LSU, Army As Favorites

NEW YORK (AP) — To the folks in the magnolia belt there is only one game this week—Louisiana State vs. Mississippi.

"Ole Miss," writes one enthusiastic propagandist from the South, "will make LSU's Chinese Bandits look like geisha girls."

Last week we extended our neck with a series of upset picks and got the guillotine 42-12 for .777, but we're back again:

Louisiana State 14, Mississippi 7: Sorry, Rebels, we think you're big, fast and powerful, but believe Paul Dietzel and his champs have been saving up for this one. A vote for Cannon & Co. in the home frenzy and under the lights.

Army 25, Air Force 20: an exciting aerial battle between Joe Caldwell and Richie Mayo, but it's going to be a dull trip back to Colorado.

SMU 20, Texas 14: Our upset special of the week. We figure Don Meredith will bust loose for one of his best days.

Northwestern 26, Indiana 7: The Big Ten leaders come up with a different hero each week. Who this time?

Syracuse 14, Pittsburgh 0: The Panthers make a good game of it, but Ernie Davis scores a couple.

Notre Dame 18, Navy 12: A battle between a pair of battered giants. The Irish have fewer bruises.

Southern California 21, California 8: The Trojans have a constant touchdown threat in Clark Holden.

Wisconsin 23, Michigan 7: The Badgers still propelled by title hopes and the Wolverines are looking to the end of the season.

Penn State 20, West Virginia 7: The Mountaineers don't have an antidote for Richie Lucas.

Georgia Tech 18, Duke 14: The Blue Devils beat the point spread, but not the Engineers.

The others:

East—Princeton 21, Brown 0; Penn 25, Harvard 12; Holy Cross 19, Colgate 0, Yale 13, Dartmouth 7.

Midwest—Oklahoma 20, Nebraska 0; Michigan State 18, Ohio State 14; Purdue 23, Illinois 7; Iowa 28, Kansas State 6, Missouri 13, Colorado 0.

South—Auburn 21, Florida 6; Georgia 19, Florida State 0; Tennessee 14, North Carolina 7.

Southwest—TCU 19, Baylor 12; Arkansas 14, Texas A&M 7; Clemson 20, Rice 14.
