

Ed Prof to Discuss Beer, Babes, Books

Talks on such things as "Balancing Beer, Babes, Books and Brothers" will provide the fourth feature of Indie Week.

These fireside talks will be held at 8 tonight in the Waring and Haller lounges and the Warnock conference room.

Dr. Arthur M. Wellington, professor of counseling education, will deliver a talk on "balancing" the previously mentioned four B's and on "How to Do It; Graduate, That Is," according to Duane Johnson, chairman in charge of the talks.

Wellington will be speaking in the Warnock conference room.

Dorothy J. Lipp, dean of women, will speak on community living and promises to "answer questions on anything and everything," according to Johnson. She will be speaking in Waring lounge.

Dr. Clifford Adams, marriage counselor and writer for the "Ladies Home Journal," promises to give the "facts" about Penn State men and women in a talk in Haller lounge.

Indie Week began with an Association of Independent Men-Leonides dinner on Sunday. Sunday afternoon, members of the Town Independent Men's Council and Leonides climbed Mt. Nittany.

Tuesday evening, Indie talent went on display in a show. The talent contest was won by Edward Rolf, junior in journalism from Homer, Alaska, who sang "Old Man River" and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The entire week is designed to provide mutual social activities for the University's independents.

Tomorrow night's activities will feature a masquerade jam session and the week will climax on Saturday with the crowning of the Indie Queen at the Autumn Ball.

If you like the European Look in hair styles

Select yours from a collection just released from Europe.

Mrs. McCullough at the Vogue Beauty Shop spent last week in New York acquiring these styles for you.

Weaver Elected Officer Of Deans' Association

Dr. Palmer C. Weaver, dean of the summer sessions, has been elected vice president of the Association of Deans and Directors of Summer Sessions.

He was elected to the post at the annual meeting held last week at Purdue University. The Association will meet next year at the University of Colorado.

Ag Education Society

Norman K. Hoover, assistant professor of agricultural education, was elected national president of Alpha Tau Alpha, professional agricultural education fraternity, at their national conference in Kansas City.

He has served as the Penn State chapter advisor since 1954 and was chapter president as a student.

Ed Council Coffee Hour Will Be Held in HUB

A coffee hour sponsored by the Education Student Council will be held from 4 to 5 p.m. today in the Hetzel Union dining-room for all students in the College of Education.

Dr. Gordon H. Pritham, winner of the Benjamin Rush Award, will speak about mentally retarded children.

Finch Speaks On Laughter, Logic

By using amusing anecdotes, Dr. Henry A. Finch, professor of philosophy, said last night that intelligence and courage are achieved by laughter at stupid persons who seem to violate the laws of logic.

Finch gave an informal talk entitled "Logic, Laughter, and Courage" at the second meeting of the College of Business Administration Graduate Club.

He told the story about the Southern clergyman who was explaining how the Israelites crossed the Red Sea. "The fact is," said the clergyman, "that the Red Sea froze over and the Israelites skated across." There was an objection from the congregation.

"Geographers tell us that the Red Sea is in such a region that it never freezes over," said the voice. The clergyman was not baffled. "Why man," he replied, "there weren't no geographers in them days."

Danks & Co. has something NEW A YOUTH OPTIONAL TERM CHARGE ACCOUNT

For your sons and daughters, seventeen years or over. Danks & Co. feels that the youth charge account will teach boys and girls to use credit wisely and to buy wisely.

Your son and daughter need simply come to our credit office to open a Danks Co. Optional Charge Account and receive a personal credit card.

We hope that the youth charge account will help your sons and daughters learn the wise use of credit and establish for themselves the good credit rating so important to our way of life.

If your son or daughter would like a Danks Co. Optional Charge Account, please have them call at our credit office.

These New Terms Are Optional

Each month when you receive your statement, you may pay it in full within 30 days, just as you have in the past—OR, if you wish, you may make payments in installments of 1/4, 1/3, 1/2 or even more of the balance owing. You may make a partial payment one month and pay in full the next, taking advantage of the optional terms only when necessary or expedient to do so.

*Minimum payment 1/4 of balance owing, as shown on statement—or $10, whichever is the greater.

Here's How the New Terms Work for You!

If you elect to use the installment plan at any time, a small carrying charge will be added—but only to the unpaid balance. For example, if the balance on your statement should be $50, and you elect to pay $25, instead of the full amount, the unpaid balance carried over would be $25. The carrying charge added would be just 34c. All cash payments and credits will be deducted before the carrying charge is computed.
