

Injuries to Key Players Force Lineup Changes

Injuries to two key players have forced Lion grid coach Rip Engle to make some major lineup changes for the West Virginia game at Morgantown, Saturday.

Second unit halfback Dick Pae who suffered a slight concussion after colliding with Illinois fullback Bill Brown last weekend, will definitely miss the Mountie game.

And first unit guard Frank Korbini, forced to the sidelines against the Illini with a twisted knee, isn't expected to be in the lineup either.

To fill the gaps, Engle has moved Roger Kochman into Pae's spot and Bill Popp takes over for Korbini.

Kochman is one of the fastest Lion backs and is a breakaway threat. He's been running behind Pae all year but is regarded as an excellent replacement by the Lion braintrust.

He's only carried the ball three times this year but in those three carries he picked up 34 yards for an 11.3 average.

Engle switched Jack Urban from his right halfback slot to the third unit left half position to back up Kochman. Tony Wayne, another speedster from Hingham, Mass., will take Urban's place at right half.

Popp has been alternating with Korbini all year on the first unit, but last week Korbini was the number one right guard.

Filling the second unit position will be senior John Sava, and Bob Gilmour, a converted tackle, will be the right guard on the third unit.

GRID NOTES—Penn State and West Virginia played to a 14-14 tie last season at Morgantown. Penn State leads in the series 16-7-2. The first game was played in 1904. The Mounties are 3-3 this year. They've beaten Richmond, George Washington and Pitt. They lost to Maryland, Boston U, and Syracuse. Next week West Virginia plays Southern California in Los Angeles. They wind up the season against VPI and The Citadel. Saturday's Penn State-West Virginia game will be televised on a southern regional network, but will not be released to stations in West Virginia or Pennsylvania. Penn State clinched its 21st consecutive winning season last weekend when it beat Illinois, 20-9 in Cleveland. The Nittany Lions will travel to Morgantown by bus. They'll work out on Mountaineer Field Friday afternoon and will be quartered at the Hotel Morgan, Morgantown. It was in the 1957 Penn State-West Virginia game that Richie Lucas first rose to fame when he substituted for the injured Al Jacks. Lucas completed 8 of 14 passes for 102 yards, rushed for 48 yards in 8 carries and spurred the Lions to a 27-6 win.

FRAN KORBINI . . . injured guard

Lucas Leads In Four Departments

Richie Lucas, chosen as the New York Times' midseason All-American quarterback yesterday, is leading the Nittany Lions in four different offensive departments.

Lucas, third in the nation in total offense, leads the Lions in scoring, pass interception returns, and in passing and rushing.

He has scored five touchdowns for his 30 points, and has intercepted five passes for 114 yards.

In passing Lucas has completed 43 of 83 for 604 yards, a 51.8 percentage. In rushing the Riverboat has racked up 262 yards in 58 carries for an average of 4.5 yards per carry.

Halfback Jim Kerr is second in rushing with 221 yards in 45 carries and the other starting halfback Dick Hoak is third with 219 yards in 53 carries.

Galen Hall, the second unit quarterback has completed 10 of 17 passes for 95 yards. Hall also has gained 126 yards rushing in 21 carries.

In pass receiving, Henry Opperman is first with 10 receptions good for 154 yards. Norm Neff is right behind with 132 yards and Hoak is third.

Hoak leads in kickoff returns with 142 yards in three carries, an average of 47 yards a return. Hoak also leads in punt returns.

SIX GAME STATISTICS

Penn State	Opponents
First Downs	121
Rushing Yardage	1397
Passing Yardage	699
Passes	53-106
Passes Intercepted by	14
Punts	23-34.0
Fumbles Lost	6
Yards Penalized	321

	R.	Y.G.	Avg.
Richie Lucas	58	314	4.5
Jim Kerr	45	233	4.9
Dick Hoak	53	219	3.7
Pat Botula	49	152	3.1
Dick Pae	29	150	5.1

	Att.	Com.	Pct.
Richie Lucas	83	43	61.8
Galen Hall	17	10	58.8

	No.	Yds.	TDs
Henry Opperman	10	154	0
Norm Neff	10	132	2
Dick Hoak	8	105	0
Jim Kerr	6	95	1
Eddie Cave	6	47	0

	No.	Yds.	Ave.
Richie Lucas	11	362	32.9
Dick Pae	9	330	36.7

Booter's 16-Season Streak Threatened

By CRAIG YERKES

The way things are going now, Penn State's soccer team is headed for its second losing season in 40 years and their first since 1943.

The Lions are now 1-4 for the year with four games remaining. This means that Ken Hosterman's booters must win all of their remaining games if they hope to end up on the credit side of the ledger.

The meat of the Lion schedule lies ahead. This Saturday they meet Navy at home, next Saturday the opposition will be furnished by unbeaten Temple. November 14, they travel to West Point for a date with the Army, and a Nov. 21 engagement with Pitt at University Park will end the '59 campaign.

Soccer fans who were accustomed to winning teams at State are beginning to wonder just what's wrong with the '59 Nittany Lion booters.

Under the tutelage of coach Hosterman, the Nittanians captured national titles in 1954 and 1955. In '56 and '57 they enjoyed good seasons, but last year the booters slumped to a 5-4 record.

"We are still playing like 11 individuals out on the field," coach Hosterman explained. "Individually we have some good men out there, but they still have not jelled.

"There isn't a day that goes by when I have all 11 starters at practice. First it was registration that hurt us, now it is this early darkness.

"Another important factor to remember is that in the last two years we have been hampered by injuries to key men. Why, in the last two years our regular elected captain has been lost for the season.

KEN HOSTERMAN . . . trouble ahead

Lack of depth has hurt the Nittanians this year as players have transferred, quit the game, or been ineligible. This year's captain-elect, Bill Fiedler, could have been the spark that the Lions need so desperately. Fiedler netted 20 goals as a sophomore in 1957 and then tabbed 12 last year.

Another big factor in the disappointing showing of the Lions this year is their poor shooting average. Although they manage to get off as many shots as their opponents, the Lions do not make nearly as many as they should.

Last year the Lions managed to average four goals per game. This year the booters have netted only nine goals in five games for a 1.8 average.

Frosh Booters Seek 2nd Win

The Penn State freshman soccer team will travel to Lock Haven State Teachers College today in an attempt to record victory number two of the '59 season.

Ron Black's soccer men have a record of one win and three losses thus far. The Nittany Cubs have bowed to Navy, 1-0, Bucknell, 4-3, and Frostburg Academy, 4-1. Their one victory was over this same Lock Haven team in an early meeting at University Park, 5-0.

Coach Black's booters will be at full strength for the first time today. Certain eligibility rules kept some members of the team from playing in the earlier games.

The Lion Cubs are led by center forward Russ Naylor and wingman Eddie Hinojosa. Both Naylor and Hinojosa have netted four goals thus far.

In regard to the Lock Haven team, coach Black had this to say: "When Lock Haven played us earlier, it was their first game. We scored all five of our goals in the first half. The second half was a stalemate. They will be in better shape this time around."

Officials Club Members To Take Hockey Exam

The United States Field Hockey Association examination will be administered to members of the Women's Recreation Association-sponsored Officials Club at 6:30 tonight in 2 White Hall.

Giant's 1st Sacker Is Top Sophomore

NEW YORK (AP) — Orlando Cepeda of the San Francisco Giants, the National League's rookie of the year in 1958, yesterday was named the circuit's leading sophomore in 1959. He edged Vada Pinson of Cincinnati in the annual Associated Press Poll.

Cepeda collected 86 of the 172 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America. Pinson drew 66.

Cepeda, 22, a native of Ponce, Puerto Rico, batted .317 with 27 homers and 105 runs batted in. This was a better performance than his rookie campaign, when he wound up with a .312 average, 25 homers and 96 RBIs.

Pinson, 21-year-old outfielder, compiled a .316 batting mark, collecting 205 hits, 20 homers, and 84 RBIs. He led the league in doubles with 47 and runs scored, 131.

Dick Stuart of Pittsburgh was third in the balloting with six votes.

California Rejects Bout Between Olson, Moore

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The California Athletic Commission yesterday rejected a proposed light heavyweight championship fight between titlist Archie Moore and Bobo Olson, former middleweight king. The commission pointed out Olson had not met any ranking 175-pounder although the National Boxing Assn. lists him as the No. 8 challenger. Olson's manager, Bill Newman, asked the commission to sanction a championship bout early next year.

Wisconsin Lineman Wins AP Honors

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Danny Lanphear, University of Wisconsin's hard-crashing tackle rebounding from an injury-wrecked junior season, was named the Associated Press lineman of the week yesterday.

The strapping son of a former Wisconsin lineman was voted the coveted award in a poll of sportswriters and broadcasters for his magnificent performance last Saturday in leading the Badgers to a 12-3 victory over Ohio State.

When informed of his selection, Lanphear insisted there was a "lot of luck" to his great play, but called the game possibly "the biggest thrill I've ever had."

"It's not very often a lineman has a day like that," the 6-3, 200-pounder said. "A few spectacular plays can make a big difference."

Lanphear blocked a punt for a safety in the opening minutes, recovered two fumbles, one halting an OSU drive, and jarred the ball loose from a runner with a vicious tackle, enabling Wisconsin to recover the bobble on its own three.

"He played a magnificent game and deserved the APQ Honor," said Coach Milt Bruhn. "We're all mighty proud of him."

After a fine sophomore season, Lanphear was hobbled most of the 1958 campaign because of an ankle injury.

Probably the proudest man on the campus is George Lanphear, who played football for the Badgers a quarter century ago. George now is sport publicity chief at the university.

Mayo Named 'Back of Week'

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rich Mayo, a ball-faking Houndini for the young Air Force Academy team, has been named Associated Press "back of the week."

It was Mayo's running, passing and ball-handling wizardry which produced one of the weekend's biggest upsets—a 20-7 victory over UCLA Friday night.

Mayo and his crew play Army Saturday in New York. A 170-pound junior from Eureka, Calif., Mayo gained 74 yards rushing and 37 yards passing against UCLA — but always at critical spots in the game. He completed four of nine passes.

Mayo edged Northwestern's John Talley, whose exploits against Notre Dame were far more dramatic. Talley threw touchdown passes of 78, 54 and 18 yards and ran 61 yards for another score in the 30-24 victory over Notre Dame.

Nominations rolled in from all over the country for other sparkling performances.

Richie Lucas of Penn State was a standout in the East, intercepting two passes and accounting for 137 yards against Illinois.

Continued on page 10

... Here we come sayeth
Norm Kahn, AD 8-1591
Armando Vega, Beta Theta Pi
Jerry Garfinkle, AD 8-1742
Nittany Sweaters

RELAX,
ENJOY YOURSELF . . .
in the friendly CAVE surroundings!
We have hot dogs, submarine sandwiches, and plenty of good hot pizza for these cool fall nights.
.. The service is fast, and the beverages are great . . . utilize our free parking and "take out service."
Stop in today!

THE CAVE

ACROSS FROM THE GLENNLAND ON PUGH ST.

Catherman's
BARBER SHOP basement of
The Corner Room
Daily 8-5:30 - Sat. 8-12