

Kochman Paces Lion Offense

Reserves Play Most Of Game

(Continued from page one) quarterback, sat out most of the game after suffering a slight concussion.

Despite sitting out half the game, Lucas managed to pick up 69 yards passing. And for the second straight week he dazzled the fans with a perfectly executed double reverse pass good for 58 yards.

West Virginia scored first in the opening minutes after full-back Bob Lively recovered a Dick Hoak fumble on the Penn State 27.

The Mounties could move only five yards in three downs and on fourth down skinny Johnny Thackston, a place kicking specialist who doesn't wear pads, booted a 39-yard field goal to give the Mounties a 3-0 edge.

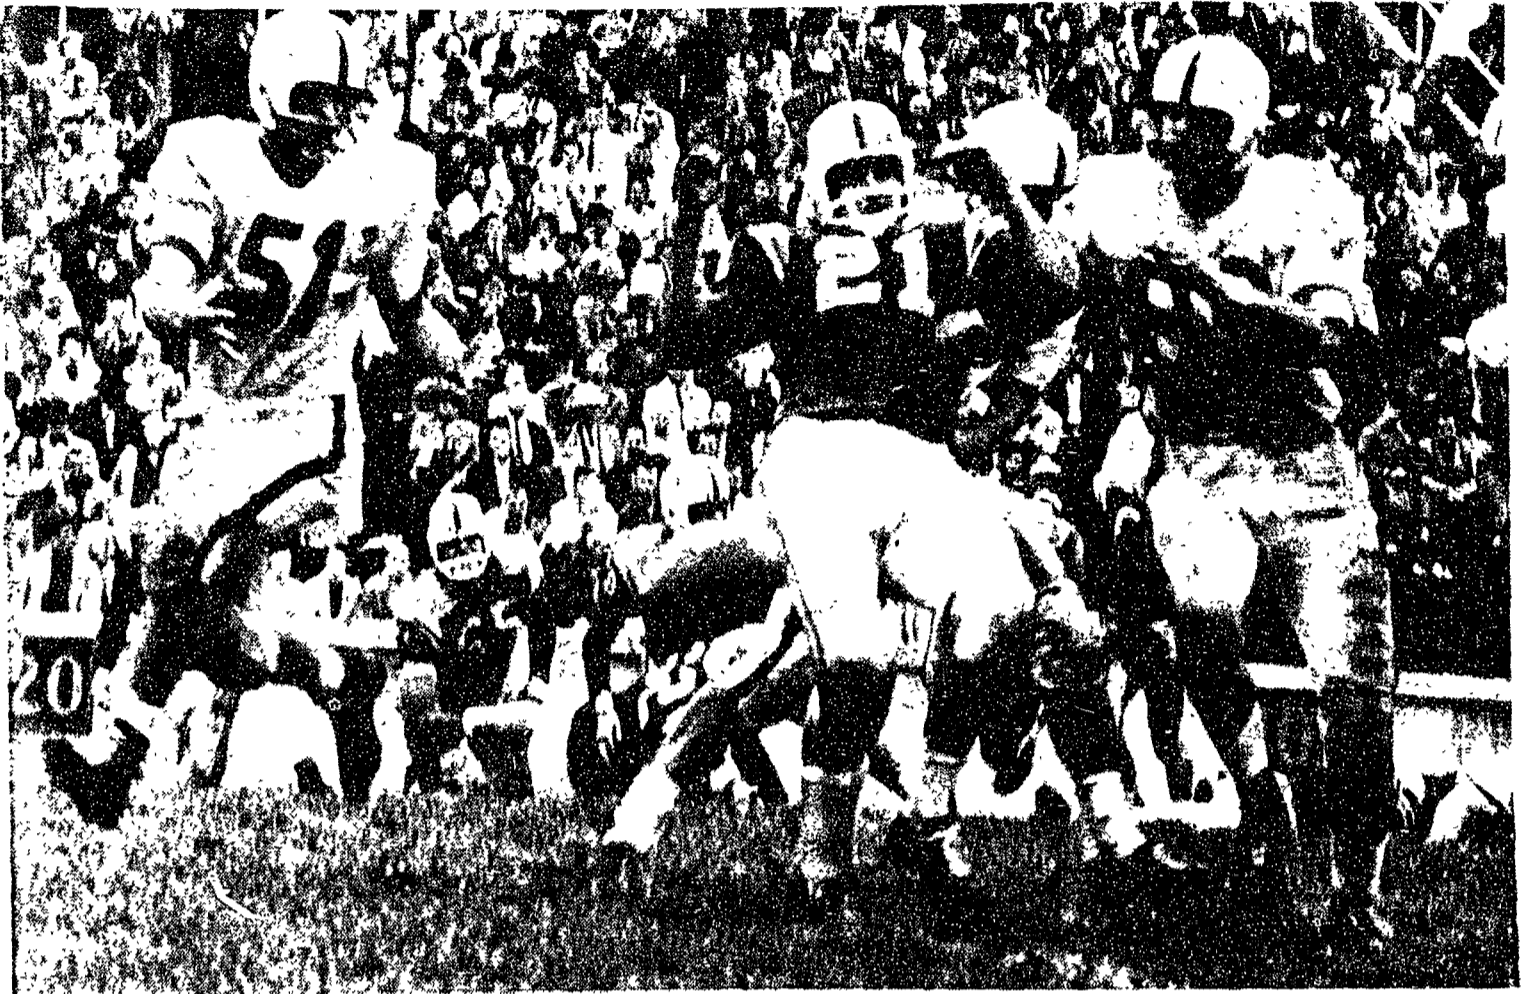

Thackston's field goal marked the second straight week that the Lions were behind in the opening minutes.

The Lions took the lead a few minutes later when Penn State halfback Jim Kerr intercepted a Danny Williams aerial and galloped 25 yards through the whole West Virginia team for the score. Sam Stellatella missed the extra point and the Lions led 6-3. It was Stellatella's first miss in 14 tries.

Kochman's 52-yard run before the end of the quarter upped the Nittany lead to 12-3. Stellatella's try for the extra point was good and the Blue & White had a 13-3 bulge.

The Lions broke the game wide open midway in the second period when Galen Hall, faking beautifully on a bootleg, passed 39 yards to end John Bozick for six points. Stellatella again booted the extra point and the Lions took a 20-3 halftime lead.

Halfback Eddie Caye scored Penn State's last touchdown

—Collegian Photo by Marty Scherr

ELUSIVE PIGSKIN—West Virginia halfback, Ray Peterson can't hang on to pass thrown by Mountie quarterback Danny Williams in third quarter of Saturday's game at Mountaineer Field. Three Lions, Henry Opperman (89), Richie Lucas (behind Peterson) and Jay Huffman (51) move in to defend. A completion would have given the Mounties a first down on the Penn State 30-yard line.

with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

This time Hall passed to Caye in the end zone for two points and the Lions were way out in front, 28-3.

West Virginia scored its only touchdown with five minutes left in the game. Hoak's second fumble set up the score.

Williams and halfback Ray Peterson took turns moving the ball to the two where Peterson went over for the six-pointer. Thackston's kick was good and the score wound up 28-10.

Kochman was Penn State's top ground gainer and Caye, Tony Wayne, Hall, and Sam Sobczak were bunched near the 30 mark.

In rushing the Nittanies picked up 216 yards and in the air they gained 131 yards for a total of 347 yards.

West Virginia only gained 157 yards on the ground and seven in the air for a total of 164 yards.

The win was Penn State's 10th straight over a two-year span and they are 7-0 for the season. West Virginia is now 3-4.

The last time Penn State lost was Oct. 25, 1958. Syracuse was the team that stopped the Nittanies.

Richie's Ready For Orangemen

Richie Lucas got final medical clearance yesterday to lead Penn State against Syracuse on Beaver Field Saturday in a battle for Eastern college football supremacy.

The Lions' great All-America quarterback candidate suffered a minor concussion in the West Virginia game Saturday. But the Nittany medical brigade says Richie is healthy and fit and will be in the lineup.

Lion coach Rip Engle and the rest of the Nittany coaching staff decided to keep him out after he was hurt Saturday just for "precautionary measures."

BEAT SYRACUSE

Catherman's BARBER SHOP basement of
The Corner Room
Daily 8-5:30 - Sat. 8-12

Game Statistics

W. Va.		P.S.
First downs rushing	3	12	12
First downs passing	3	0	0
First downs penalties	0	0	0
Rushing yardage	157	216	216
Passing yardage	7	131	131
Total offense	164	347	347
Passes attempted	16	11	11
Passes completed	2	6	6
Passes had intercepted	2	0	0
Fumbles	2	8	8
Fumbles lost	1	3	3
Punts	6	4	4
Punting average	35.8	33.0	33.0
Penalties	1	59	59
Yards penalized	3	59	59

Individual		West Virginia Rushing		Penn State Rushing
Name	No.	Name	Yds.	Name	Yds.
Peterson	15	Kochman	52	Caye	39
Williams	11	Caye	25	Wayne	28
Marra	5	Hall	27	Hall	27
Holdinsky	4	Sobczak	4	Sobczak	4
Herrig	2	Schaeffer	5	Schaeffer	5
Pomponio	1	Kerr	2	Kerr	2
Benke	1	Hoak	2	Hoak	2
Huston	3	Lucas	7	Lucas	7
Rider	3
Barzeloh	2

W. Va. Passing		Penn State Passing
Name	Att. Cp. Int. Yds. Td.	Name	Att. Cp. Int. Yds. Td.
Williams	12 1 1 7 0	Lucas	4 2 0 69 0
Pomponio	3 0 1 0 0	Hall	5 3 0 62 1
Peterson	1 0 0 0 0	Hoak	1 0 0 0 0

WEST VIRGINIA
LE—Timmerman, Borlie
LT—Dannenbergh, Foltz

Barnhart's 449 Paces IM Bowl

Ed Barnhart's 449 paved the way for a 4-0 Nittany 26 victory over Berks in intramural bowling league D on the University alleys.

Nittany's 2206 pin total was the highest team score of the evening. The only other league D standout found Forestry white-washing Nittany 39. Mike Kocur rolled the single of 158 and had the high triple—444.

Although Dick Bergman led the field with a total of 434, his Nittany 27 mates were defeated by the Knights, 3-1. Bergman and Stan Warner of the Knights tied for individual high game honors with 157.

In League C play, Montgomery House, Nittany Boys, and Poplar House defeated Luzerne House, Lackawanna and the Nitt-Witts respectively.

Coach Says Team 'Just Quit' Sunday

PITTSBURGH (AP) — "They just quit."

That was the simple statement of Coach Buddy Parker after his Pittsburgh Steelers took a 45-24 lacing at the hands of the Chicago Cardinals Sunday at Soldiers Field in Chicago.

It was undoubtedly the worst game the Steelers have played in a long time and only few of the players escaped Parker's wrath after the game.

Four Steelers were injured. Punter Bobby Luna suffered a torn cartilage of the chest; full-back Larry Krutko a dislocated finger; tackle Joe Lewis a sprained ankle; and halfback Jack Call a pulled leg muscle.

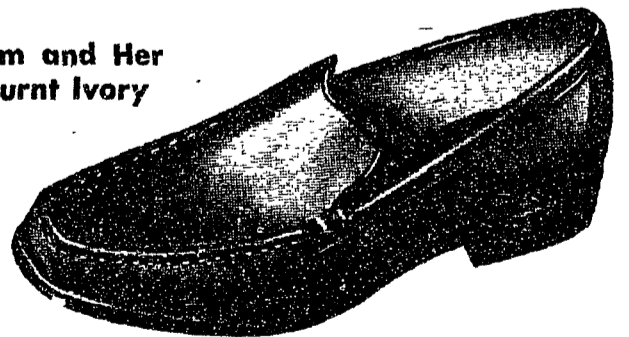

ORIGINAL DUFFER

Ideal for the outdoorsman of any age. No matter what the weather outside, it guarantees a warm, dry wearer inside. And they make such a handsome sight at the skating rink or Beaver Field. Available in forest green, navy blue, and tan. In genuine duffer cloth for girls also.

Jack Harper

Custom Shop for Men
Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd.

Him and Her Burnt Ivory

Supple leathers hand finished in our burnished ivory color add to this pattern a texture of unique softness and subtle character. Of the same leather—a belt, a wallet or a moccasin for her will achieve a match to do this pair justice.

Bostonian Ltd.
at
PENN STATE

Guy Kresge Jack Harper
Around the corner from the Jack Harper Custom Shop

We Deliver PIZZA and Pepsi
9 p.m. to 12 p.m.
MORRELL'S
AD 8-8381