

Soccer Win Brings Hope For Season

The Penn State booters finally found themselves this past Saturday when they downed Navy, 4-2.

After losing four of their first five matches, the soccermen bounced back with a strong team effort against the Middies. In the first five games the Lions played more like eleven individuals than a team.

Teams which normally were easy prey, stunned State by recording their initial win over the booters.

Bucknell won 2-1, after 22 years of frustration, and Colgate was also victorious, 4-1, after trying for 18 years.

In the first five games, the Lions usually played good soccer most of the first half, but in the second half they faltered and eventually lost. The Nittanians controlled the ball for the most part during these games, and were about even on corner kicks, shots, and saves however, they just could not win.

As one of the booters said, "we just didn't seem to get the breaks." In the Maryland game for instance, the Terps scored two goals that could be classified as flukes.

One hit a puddle and stopped dead, enabling a Maryland forward to boot it home. Another slipped off the Lion goalie's outstretched hands.

Hosterman's change of Lion captain Pete Wadsworth back to his old position of right wing paid off against the Middies. Wadsworth picked up three assists in Saturday's affair and also kept the Navy defenses loose with his hard shots from 20 to 30 yards out.

Temple, who the Lions play Saturday, could be the roughest opposition the Lions have faced this season. The Owls have won all six of their matches thus far. In the process, they have scored 38 goals while holding the opposition to only four.

Baer's Recruiting Pays Off For LaX

By BILL BARBER

For the past 46 years, Penn State lacrosse teams have trudged through the Eastern lacrosse circuit, scoring an occasional win here and there, but usually looking like beginners against the likes of Maryland, John Hopkins, and Navy.

In fact, last season was only the fifteenth time in 46 years of play that the Lion stickmen were able to come up with a winning season.

But the worst problem was that against the four usually top ranking teams of Army, Maryland, Navy, and Johns Hopkins the Lions could only notch three wins while dropping 73 decisions down through the years.

However, for the past three years, Lion Coach Ernie Baer has been working overtime in an attempt to build up the Nittany team into a unit equal to these teams. It seems that at long last, Baer's efforts are paying off.

Coach Baer's techniques of seeking out top flight high school prospects paid off in full this year when he landed three players from the starting team at Swana-haka High School, the top school in the Long Island League posing one of the best schoolboy lacrosse teams in the country.

Swanahaka's record of 182 wins against 12 losses is a good indication of the overall strength that it contains. In fact up until two years ago, Swanahaka boasted a 91-game winning streak.

While this trio will not be available for another year since they are only freshmen, Coach Baer has several sophomores coming up from last year's frosh team who have showed great potential in the fall practice sessions.

Baer's claims that the most amazing sophomore find of fall practice is Lou Meyer. Baer put Meyer in the goal during one fall practice session and he stopped everything that came his way. Playing on the line that same afternoon, he scored three goals.

Smith Sets Face In Ramblers' Win

Penn Haven, NROTC-1B, Dawson's Scholars, Herkimers and the Runkle Ramblers all scored decisive 4-0 victories last night in Independent IM bowling.

Bill Smith paced the Ramblers, who defeated the Spares, with a 199 high game and a 527 series total. While Herkimers was outtrouncing Delaware, Jack Morrison compiled game and series highs of 191 and 487, respectively. Cyril Wochok led Penn Haven to a win over the Janitors with scores of 187 and 491.

Other 4-0 contests saw the Terrors down NROTC-1B and Dawson's Scholars drub the Vets.

Three matches ended in 2-2 scores. They were McElwain and the Errors, Glenn Road and Splinters, and the Three Hundreds and the Slipsticks.

All other matches were decided by 3-1 totals. Bucks House downed The Devils; the King Pins defeated NROTC-1A; Labache Club topped the Holy Rollers; and the Hi-Fives won over the Strikes.

PHI KAPPA PSI BRUCE McKAY—takes the ball on a reverse run for a big gain in the Phi Psi-Omega Psi Phi intramural game last night. Phi Psi won the game by a 7-3 edge in first downs.

TKE, Alpha Sig Phi, Chi Phi Score Wins

By JOHN MORRIS

Tau Kappa Epsilon, Chi Phi and Alpha Sigma Phi all scored impressive victories last night as the fraternities had football to themselves on the battle-scarred fields of intramural play.

Tau Kappa Epsilon continued on the victory trail raising their record to 4-0 with a convincing 16-6 win over Pi Sigma Upsilon.

Herb Ludwig directed the victor's attack and threw TD aerials to Gene Flick and Tom Phillips. TKE caught Pi Sig in their own end zone for a 2-point safety. The loser's only score came on an intercepted pass with a few seconds remaining.

Chi Phi also stayed undefeated, downing Delta Sigma Phi, 20-0. The James boys terrorized once more as Dick James caught two touchdown passes and Don James chipped in with one. Jim Molenari was on the pitching end of two of the TD plays and Bill McDougall passed for one touchdown and kicked two extra points.

Alpha Sigma Phi came back after a scoreless first half to win going away, 17-0 over Triangle. Triangle had led in first downs at the end of the half, but couldn't cope with the striking power demonstrated by Alpha Sig in the final stanza. Dick Hinkel passed for two touchdowns, one to Bill Walton and one to Don Signor. Art Nagle kicked the two extra points, and Walton came back to kick a 30-yard field goal and wrap up the scoring.

In other games, Pi Kappa Alpha used a 50-yard Steve Troese to Bill Knuth scoring play to drop Delta Chi, 6-0. Knuth slipped behind the defenders and waltzed into the end zone untouched. The game then fell back into a kicking duel with no advances being made for either team.

Theta Delta Chi rode the strong passing arm of Bob Knepp to a smashing win over Lambda Chi Alpha. Knepp pitched to Bob Weisel and George Shugarts for the scores and then booted the PATS to have a hand in all his team's scoring in their 14-0 victory.

Larry DiGiacinto lobbed two TD tosses in Phi Kappa Sigma's conquest of Phi Kappa Tau. Bob Swid and Dick "Rabbit" Salt were on the receiving end of the scoring thrusts. A touchback provided the final two points in the game as the boys from Phi Kappa Sigma went home with a 14-0 win.

All the other games had to be settled by first downs, two in overtime periods. Pi Kappa scored their second win of the season by dropping Omega Psi Phi, seven first downs to three.

Beta Theta Pi lost to Theta Xi in overtime after the regular contest ended with the first downs tied at two for each team. Phi Epsilon Pi took two overtime periods to defeat Delta Tau Delta in a game that did not have a single first down.
