Spirited Games Mark Action As IM Grid Draws To Close

By BOB KILBORN

Some of the rapidly mounting enthusiasm toward the big clash with Syracuse must have rubbed off on the intramural football circuit last night as play was spirited in every one of the games. The fields were sloppy and cold hands dropped many passes but competition was keen.

Early games indicated that defenses would dominate play as one game was decided by first downs and a second narrowly missed doing the same.

Just as their game with GDI was about to be forfeited, NROTC Baker showed up and the game was played as scheduled. Although being held scoreless the Navy men eked out a narrow 4-3 victory on first downs.

Trailing on first downs 2-0, the Hamilton Bandits pulled off a 65-yard touchdown play on a pass from Ron Stauffer to Bud Lewis with only two seconds left in the contest. Frank Davis then booted a perfect placement to make the final score 7-0 in a game marked by interceptions on almost every attempted pass.

Larch picked up a win over Hickory and Labache took Co-op, both by virtue of forfeit.

Tom Durbin, the leading hitter on the baseball team, had a hand in all of his team's scoring as the Burke AC topped the Stump-jumpers in a 12-7 thriller. He took a 10-yard pass from Gene Long for the first tally and then raced 88 yards with an intercepted pass for the second Burke TD.

Frank Slapikas pitched 3 yards to Dean Berkey for the Stump-jumpers only touchdown and then kicked the extra point to conclude the scoring.

Navy ROTC Alpha continued its winning tradition, downing the Air Force ROTC, 12-6, on the fine passing of Dave Forney.

Forney hit Carl Mazzan from 18 yards out for the first score and then passed 2 yards to Bill Gosnell for the second, following a long march from deep in Air Force territory. Dick Crawford took a 7-yard toss from Henry Cabanis for the only Air Force tally.

In fraternity action, Delta Theta Sigma, Phi Mu Delta, and Phi Delta Theta all chalked up shut-out victories.

Delta Theta Sig's win came by virtue of a safety scored on a fumbled punt return in the Theta Chi end zone. Jon Mayhew almost jumped the score to 8-0 when he picked off a Theta Chi pass on the 40-yard line and raced to the two before he was stopped with 40 seconds of play remaining. But Delta Theta couldn't cash in on the opportunity.

Phi Mu Delta romped over Alpha Zeta, 20-0, on touchdown passes to Bob Luff for 70 yards and Mike Hader for 31 yards. Rog Welden intercepted an Alpha Zeta pass and ran it back 20 yards for the third touchdown. Rick Blend kicked two extra points to conclude the scoring.

Phi Delta Theta blanked Alpha Tau Omega 14-0 in the final contest of the evening. Bill Schwab flipped a 20-yard aerial to Jake Richardson for the first six points and Eldon Reed notched the second TD on a 22-yard pass interception. Schwab and Richardson kicked the extra points.

Western Universities study the charges of deliberate roughness. He said he accepted Dr. Topping's statement but declined further comment "until I have seen what corrective measures will be taken."

Cal, USC Feud Far From Over

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Despite an apology from Southern California, the McKeever-Bates football incident is far from closed.

Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg said yesterday he would seriously consider demands by California students that football relations with USC be broken off unless guard Mike McKeever is punished.

California officials have charged, and USC Coach Don Clark and McKeever have denied, that the 218-pound guard deliberately hit halfback Bates with an elbow in falling on him along the sidelines after the whistle had blown last Saturday. The Trojans won 14-7.

McKeever contends he could not stop nor change direction.

Bates is hospitalized with a shattered cheek bone and broken nose. He is out for the season. An operation is scheduled Friday.

USC President Norman Topping, who viewed movies of the play in Berkeley Monday, said in a statement Tuesday night the incident as well as others in the game could have been avoided. "To the extent that we are responsible, we apologize," Topping said.

California President Clark Kerr asked that the Athletic Assn. of

49ers, Giants Prove Defense Is Best Offense

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The New York Giants and the San Francisco 49ers are proof that a god defense is the best offense.

National Football League statistics showed yesterday that the Giants — leaders in the Eastern Conference — and the 49ers — leaders in the Western — are down the list in team offense but high on defense.

San Francisco, a surprise 5-1, is fifth in offense but second in defense. New York, 5-1, is sixth in offense and third in defense.

49er Coach Red Hickey has proved another thing — a pro team can run and win in professional football.

San Francisco has picked up 1,197 yards on the ground to 762 yards in the air. On defense, the 49ers have given up 766 yards rushing and 865 passing.

New York has picked up 1,916 yards in offense and has given up only 1,605.

Los Angeles, 2-4 for the season, continues to hold the lead in team offense with 2,159 yards.

Green Bay, 3-3, has given up only 1,607 yards to lead in total team defense.
