

High-Scoring Owls Post Unbeaten Slate

By CRAIG YERKES

Syracuse will not be the only unbeaten team to invade the Penn State Campus on Saturday.

The high flying Owls of Temple University will roost in University Park tomorrow morning in an attempt to make the Penn State booters their eighth straight victim of the 1959 campaign.

The Owl booters have racked up seven wins thus far and have been very impressive in doing so. Coach Pete Leanness's forces have completely humbled Bucknell, 7-0, Hofstra, 11-0, La Salle, 4-0, Lafayette, 8-0, and St. Joseph's, 5-0. The only two teams that have scored on the Owls are Haverford and Wagner.

Temple has scored 43 goals in their seven triumphs while limiting the opposition to a mere four. The booters from Philly will be out to avenge the 8-2 schellacking they absorbed from the Lions last year. Last year Temple came into the State game with a respectable 6-2 record, but the Lions put a blackmark on that record with their easy win.

Again this year, Temple has an impressive record while State is experiencing a sub-par season. The two Lions that helped wreck the Owls last season are back again this year. Pete Wadsworth and Gary Miller, who seem to have found themselves in Saturday's win over Navy, played important roles in the Lions' victory last year. Miller had two goals and four assists, while Wadsworth bagged a pair of goals.

Temple has practically everyone back from last year's squad that played the Lions to a stalemate until the fourth quarter when State scored six times to break the game wide open.

The Owls are paced by junior Walt Chyzowych who has netted 22 goals thus far. Bill Charlton and Skippy Kellogg, who scored Temple's two goals in last year's game, are both having good years.

Perhaps the reason for Temple's vast improvement over last year is their stellar defense. The Owl offense was about as strong last year as it is this year; however, last year's defense allowed the opposition to score 35 times.

Prime factors in Temple's nearly invulnerable secondary are Sam Wilson and Dick Kessel who could be the best goalies that the Lions have faced. Temple coach Leanness also singles out fullbacks Jim Gallo and Fred Wood as standout performers.

Manhattan Has Talent Loaded Club

A talent loaded Manhattan cross country team will seek to avenge last year's loss to Penn State when the two teams square off at 11:30 tomorrow morning in New York's Van Cortland Park.

Coach Chick Werner said that Manhattan always has one of the better teams in the nation. "They always provide a close, tough meet for us," the Lion mentor said.

This year the Jaspers have a 5-1 record, having defeated Dartmouth, St. John's, Fordham, Syracuse and Cornell. Their only defeat was a 20-40 licking at the hands of Army.

Manhattan has five top returning harriers from last year's fourth place IC4A team. Running number one is Peter Beyer, returning New York Metropolitan champion. Beyer has carded four firsts and two seconds so far this season.

Larry St. Clair is the second man on the Jasper's squad. St. Clair has been right behind Beyer this year. He has racked up three seconds, two thirds and a fifth.

Rounding out the Manhattan squad are Dan and John Corry, top brother duet, Dick Brimley, Joe Dreiss, Jim McGuiness, and Al Castellano.

The Jasper's real advantage lies in the meet being on their home course. They have not lost a dual meet at Van Cortland Park in two years.

Last year the Lions took Manhattan by a score of 23-30, carding four out of the five top places.

U.S. Favored Over British In Ryder Cup

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Capt. Sam Snead and his boys are heavily favored to win back the Ryder Cup in the biennial battle with the British, starting today and restore some of America's fading golf prestige.

Leading professionals of the two major golfing nations clash in four scotch foursome matches Friday and eight individual duels Saturday over the lush, El Dorado Country Club.

"We think we'll take them — we've never lost a Ryder Cup match in this country, and we don't intend to," said Snead, who at 47 is playing perhaps the best golf of the lot.

Dai Rees, a diminutive Welshman who is the only man to have played in every Ryder Cup match since 1937, refused to concede anything.

"The Americans should be favored—they're playing on their own grounds and under conditions far different than our own," he said, "But we may surprise."

The 36-hole team matches begin at 9 a.m. (noon EST) over the 6,820-yard, par 70 layout.

Muddy Turf Causes 'Slick' IM Action

By JIM KARL

A grotesque pantomime in three quarter time took place on the IM grid field last night, as Mother Nature waved her magic wand and football players changed into modern dancers.

Smooth-soled tennis shoes, two inches of mud, and a wet ball were the principal ingredients in the Mud Bowl—and slow motion football was the predominant result.

Such strange scenes as linemen charging stiff-legged on the bottom of their heels, half-backs trying to change direction and ending up on their backs, and ends slipping and sliding on the line of scrimmage were commonplace occurrences.

Sigma Chi put on the best performance of the evening with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Kappa Sigma. The losers scored first on a razzle-dazzle 60-yard pass from Bob Blank to Dave Bush.

The game then settled down to a defensive battle. But in the waning minutes Sigma Chi started a drive, and with 10 seconds left in the game the ball rested on Kappa Sigma's 4-yard line.

Quarterback Ron Rinker calmly stepped back and hit Lou Meier in the end zone for the TD. Rinker then rolled out on the extra point try and pitched a strike to Bob Belus. The game ended in a 7-7 tie, with Sigma Chi winning on first downs.

Pi Kappa Alpha blanked Alpha Phi Alpha 13-0 as Steve Troese threw scoring passes to Rus Charlesworth and Bill Knuth. Troese tacked on the extra point.

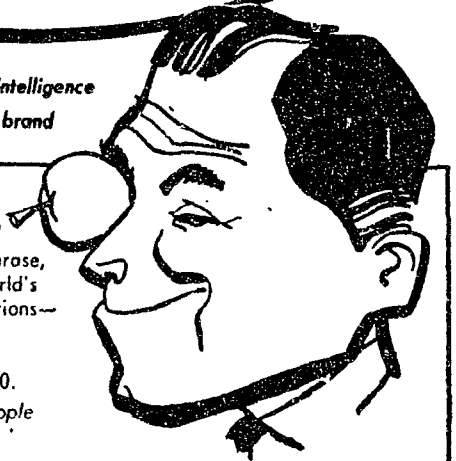

Triangle won its first game of the season defeating Omega Psi Phi, 7-0. The TD came on a pass from Steve Schlichter to Jim Bush.

A column of incidental intelligence by Jockey brand

"APPLE OF THE EYE"

For this overworked phrase, we must turn to the world's richest source of quotations—the Bible. Specifically, the Old Testament, Deuteronomy, XXXII, 10. "He kept him as the apple of his eye."

"ALL IS NOT GOLD"

Seems like everybody had a crack at this piece of homely philosophy, but the originator seems to be Geoffrey Chaucer, in "The House of Fame", Book I: "Hyt is not all gold that glareth"

"COUNT 10..."

Was there any limit to the talents of Thomas Jefferson? Statesman, scientist, architect—he also authored this admonition: "When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, a hundred."

Jockey T-Shirts

The most respected, creative name in underwear is Jockey brand. It stands to reason, then, that Jockey brand T-shirts are unmatched for quality as well as styling.
