"We have had demonstrations in the past and they all have been in good clean fun without any destruction of property." Seckinger said.

Bolduc feels that the students will be moderate in their post-game actions. "However, if there should be any destruction of property, we would be forced to step in," he stated.

'Scandal' Hits Erie Campus

The University's Behrend Campus at Erie has been hit by scandal.

The Nittany Cub, campus pa-per, reported a roundup of a nine student political machine involved in an attempt to gain control of the student council.

According to the report, eight have confessed their part in the plot. The ninth, a coed, has en-voked the fifth amendment.

The reason given for the attempt was to pocket the funds allocated to the council. According to the group's advisor, Gordon "Me Neither" Baker, suspicions were aroused when "Big Bob" Johnson broke down during a word-association test in psy-chology. The word "money" pu Johnson into semi-hysterics. Headed by "Spike" Sosnow ski, the campus machine reputedly stuffed the ballot box and extended threats to unsuspecting freshmen in order to gain seats on the council.

Nowhere in the entire Nittany
Cub story about the fraudulent elections was it mentioned that the story was as phony as the elections and the people named had only been elected to council
