

Parliamentary Procedure To Be Lecture Topic

The basic principles of parliamentary procedure will be the subject of an open lecture to be given by Carl Smith, AIM parliamentarian, at 7 tonight in 214 Boucke.

The lecture is co-sponsored by AIM, TIM, North Halls Council, West Halls Council, Nittany Council, Intercollegiate Conference on Government and Alpha Phi Omega.

Dance Tickets Available

Free tickets for the Town Independent Men's Autumn Leaves Dance on Saturday in the Hetzel Union ballroom will be available until Friday at the HUB desk.

gondola ride in Venice when we requested our young gondolier to serenade us. Grinning mischievously he straightened up, allowed the boat to drift and began to sing.

"O Sole Mio"? Like don't be square, man. We were treated to Elvis Presley's "Tutti Frutti" — in Italian — and complete with pelvic motion.

Ah, yes, memories are made of this. And now when I hear someone scoffing at the musical tastes of young America, I figure he's 99 44/100 per cent American, 'cause the cats across the ocean are swinging with us.

million request. He said then that the University must have $43.9 million or expansion would be completely eliminated. He stressed the need for more money for faculty salaries to close the gap where we are now and where salaries ought to be.

SGA Will Receive--

He added that he will try to defend all the views which last year's committee chairman presented. Justifying the resurrection of the ROTC issue, Darran said that many students have expressed interest in it during the recent campaigning for the fall SGA elections. ROTC is a "pertinent" issue of "high interest," he said.
