

Elections Group Delays Decision

Elections Committee has postponed its decision on a Campus Party charge that University Party misused University property by placing stickers on buildings.

Sharon Hoffman, co-chairman of the committee, said the decision has been put off because Otto E. Mueller, director of housing, was not on campus.

The committee is seeking Mueller's opinion as to the University's feelings concerning stickers. Miss Hoffman said a decision would be made soon.

Chess Match

A simultaneous chess match will be held at 7 tonight in Waring lounge.

Chess Master Eliot Hearst will play from 25 to 30 games at the same time. His opponents will be members of the Chess Club.

Hearst, present District of Columbia champion, was fourth in the United States Open Tournament this year.

fired a 40-yard pas to Bob Elder for a second score. John Gander added the extra point and SAE led 9-0.

Phi Mu's Ron Blend then took to the airways as he led his team on a sustained drive with Bob Luff as his chief target. Mike Hader took a 4-yard TD pass for Phi Mu's only tally and Rick Blend tacked on the extra point.

SAE again nailed Ron Blend in his end zone to conclude the scoring.

Down 7-0, Delta Upsilon charged back in the final minutes of play to beat Phi Delta Theta, 14-7.

Larry Beighty's brilliant catches of Jack Melchior passes for 47 and 61 yards furnished Delta Upsilon with its two touchdowns. Marty Hlay booted two perfect placements.

bringing up these facts at such a late date but there have been letters, concerning school spirit in the Collegian every day for the past week. We are not bragging about our school spirit, we realize this should be displayed by every student, but we feel that "credit should be given where credit is due."
