

Braun Will Speak At Chapel Service

The Rev. Theodore Braun, United Church of Christ Chaplain to the University, will be the preacher for the Protestant Service of Worship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

Rees Will Give Sermon In Schwab

The title of his sermon is "A Contaminated Thanksgiving." The Meditation Chapel Choir, under the direction of James Beach, will sing the choral anthem "Teach Me O Lord" by Atwood. The organist will be William Mastroccola.

Braun is a graduate of Elmhurst College. He received his bachelor of divinity degree from Eden Theological Seminary and his master of sacred theology degree from Yale University.

Sylvia N. Poling, member of the board of lecturership of The Mother Church in Boston, will speak to the Christian Scientist Organization at 3:15 p.m. tomorrow in the First Church of Christ Scientist auditorium, at 133 W. Beaver Ave.

She will speak on the topic "Christian Science Reveals the Door to Life More Abundant." The church service will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow with a service at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The Sabbath morning service for the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation will be held at 10 a.m. today.

The Israeli dance group will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Hillel Foundation recreation room.

Dr. Henry A. Finch, professor of philosophy, will speak on the topic "Freud-Moses and Monotheism" at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Hillel lounge.

The William Penn Foundation will sponsor a planning party at 4 p.m. tomorrow at Friends House. At this party they will plan all activities for December and January including the Christmas party.

A panel of international students will speak to the Lutheran Student Association at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The United Student Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Faith United Church of Christ. A film entitled "Patterns" will be shown.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet at 6:20 p.m. tomorrow. Nathan Krauss will speak on a "Preview of Judaism." The graduate group will meet at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Hetzel Union Building.

The Century of the Homelless Man" will be the topic of the sermon of Dr. Elfan Rees, permanent representative in Europe of the Commission of Churches on International Affairs at the University chapel service of worship at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor, will sing "Deo Dicamus Gratias" by Homilus as the introit. The anthem will be "Kyrie" by Lindgren. Both of these selections were sung by the choir of the Adolf Frederic Church at the reception following one of the Chapel Choir's concerts in that church in Stockholm last summer.

University organist, George E. Ceiga, will play the following compositions by Bach: Prelude—"Wachet Auf, Ruft Uns Die Stimme"; Offertory—"Lob Sei Dem Allmachtigen Gott"; and Postlude—"Fuge in G Major."

Rees, who was born in Wales, graduated from Oxford University in 1929. He studied theology at Mansfield College, Oxford and was ordained into the Congregational ministry in 1930.

After three years as a wing commander in the Royal Air Force, Rees became senior welfare specialist for the United Nations.

In 1947, Rees was appointed director of the Refugee Division of the World Council Department of Relief and Reconstruction.

SGA Approves Appointments

SGA Assembly Thursday night approved appointments to five legislative and executive committees.

Richard Lloyd was named chairman of the Spring Week Committee. He replaces Hart Langer, who resigned last week for personal reasons.

Appointed to the Town Affairs Committee were Herbert Deckert, William Stout and Robert Gandel.

Phillip Krietner and Ann Farley were named to the Food Service Investigation Committee; Cynthia Xanthopoulos and Suzanne Thomas to the Library Expansion Committee; and Judith Anzalone and Jane Vreeland to the Public Relations Committee.

The first newspaper to use cartoons regularly was the New York Evening Telegram under James G. Bennett.

SHE...
would like a collegiate gift—
get it in State College

Twenty HEc Students Receive Scholarships, Awards at Dinner

Twenty scholarships and awards were given out to students in the College of Home Economics at the 7th annual awards banquet.

Dorothy Yeager, senior from Bridgeville, N.J., received the $300 Bordan Award which goes to the senior with the highest All-University average for the three preceding years.

Peter Westerbook and Anthony Canike were the recipients of the Buff Henley scholarships worth $200, and Myrna Long received the Economics Homemakers award worth $50.

The $150 Extension Homemakers awards were presented to Nancy Griffin, Donna Koonsman, Julia Munn, Winifred Pyle, Marie Kieffer, Lorraine Bressler, Sandra Towe and Alice McChesney.

Ira Adler received the Don Meyer $100 award, and Martha Larsen received $100 Frances Palmer Award. Lurene Jochem was the recipient of the $100 George D. Barbey Award, and Ronald Jordan received the $100 Joseph Ashner award.

Jean Kutz and Lucille Toscano were recipients of the $200 Kroger scholarships, and Clayton Savercool received the M. C. Ma-teer scholarship of $100. The Pennsylvania Hotels Association gave James Stuhlmuller a $200 scholarship, and Ronald Jordan and John Lipko received $500 scholarships from the Pennsylvania Restaurant Association.

Clair Chaney received the $200 Pick Hotels scholarship which was given for the first time this year. Lillian M. Dawson, Pamela A. Harrison, Nancy K. Hartman, V. Sue Henderson, Marcia Michalski, Carolin F. Myers, Lois E. Rising and Marie I. Thomas received $100 awards from the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

The $100 Shuck Hotels awards were given to Carl Hathaway and Raymond Leahey; Carol Worrell, Eleanor Rosenberger, Carol Braidic and Louise White received $100 awards from the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs.

Carolyn Henricks was the recipient of the Allen L. Baker $50 award, and Avanelle Kirdsey received the award from General Foods Foundation Fund.

Members of the cast include: George Vlachos, Hank Moehling and Richard Mazza.

Members of the cast include: George Vlachos, Hank Moehling and Richard Mazza.

Members of the cast include: George Vlachos, Hank Moehling and Richard Mazza.

Don't light that fuse, Joe! You don't have to get rid of the boss to get yourself a promotion. Not when you work for an electric company in Pennsylvania.

There are plenty of opportunities for promotion in these companies because they're expanding so fast. With output doubling on the average of every ten years, advanced positions are opening continually for the employee who has talent and vision.

MORAL: If you're shooting for fast promotions, you'd better talk with the electric company interviewer when he visits your campus. Or write to:

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION
STATE STREET BUILDING, HARRISBURG, PA.

H E A R

J. HAROLD THOMAS

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sun., Nov. 22, through Wed., Nov. 25

Theme: The Second Epistle of Peter

Sun. a.m.—"The Knowledge That Really Counts"

Sun. p.m.—"Jesus Christ—Fact or Fable?"

Mon.—"The Enemies of Christianity"

Tues.—"Attitudes Toward God's Revelation"

Wed.—"Facing Up to the Future"

Evening Services at 7:30
No Evening Collections

Church of Christ

Hillcrest Ave. & Martin Terrace
(One block left of blinker light on N. Atherton)
State College

5 O'Clock Theatre Set for Monday

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, 5 O'Clock Theatre will be held Monday in the Little Theatre, basement of Old Main, instead of Tuesday.

The skit, "Who is Harlequin?", is in the style of the Commedia del' arte. The audience will be asked to decide which of the three contestants on a panel show "To Tell the Truth" is the real character Harlequin.

Helen Blumenfeld, graduate student in speech from Jackson Heights, N.Y., is directing the skit.

Members of the cast include: George Vlachos, Hank Moehling and Richard Mazza.

Members of the cast include: George Vlachos, Hank Moehling and Richard Mazza.

Through the Looking Glass

with Gabbi

Here we are, not even home for Thanksgiving vacation, and Christmas gift buying is in the air. You can feel it in the dorms and along State College Ave., and especially in Ethel's where you can find the largest selection of Christmas gift items in town.

For the Christmas Spirit in Decor

see Ethel's collection of holiday ashtrays. Some are decorated with jolly Santas, others with Christmas trees and still others with picasso-like reindeer.

For the Young at Heart

Ethel and I have decided that the stuffed animal is a favorite gift. Imagine a white furry (and washable) monkey with pink face and ears for your younger sisters or for a collecting roommate. Besides monkeys, we have brown, black, and grey poodles and even pink and blue ones. All charming and washable.

For Mother

a handwoven blanket by Juanita Westbrook would be a treasured gift. They come in red, blue, and grey plaid combinations plus a solid pastel assortment. Consider also Ethel's imported Danish coffee set. The coffee pot, sugar and cream bowl and cups are white glazed ceramic while each saucer is a different color.

For Spreading that Christmas Cheer

there is nothing like a card from Ethel's. See our varied collection in religious and traditional designs and contemporary cards to suit every taste.

And After You've Bought that Gift

remember that it has to be wrapped. Besides a large variety of gift wrappings and ribbons, we have both stickers and gift tag enclosures to dress up your package.

Have a Happy (Thanksgiving, that is) Gabbi

Ethel Meserve