

Pitt Booters Down Luckless Lions, 1-0

Although the luckless Nittany Lion booters put up a fight, once again they just couldn't capitalize on their breaks and succumbed to a fired up Pitt crew, 1-0, thus bringing down the curtain on their worst season in almost 50 years with a 2-7 record.

Saturday's game marked the first time since 1945 that a Lion soccer squad lost its final tilt of the season. The team to turn the trick that year was Navy, which defeated the Lion booters, 3-1, in a game played at Annapolis.

Eight seniors made their last appearance in a Nittany soccer game Saturday. Included in the group were Ike Ackley, Carlos Astiz, Larry Fegley, Jim Hockembrock, Loren Kline, Gary Miller, and captain Pete Wadsworth.

Pitt finished its season with an impressive 6-3-1 record, one of the best they have compiled in the last few years. In addition to its improved record, a Pitt standard was broken Saturday when Panther goaltender, George Zanicopoulos, blanked the Lions to keep the number of goals scored against him this season at 13, thus breaking the old record of 16.

In the first quarter the Lions pressed deep into Pitt territory several times only to be thwarted by the Pitt goalie, Zanicopoulos. In fact, the Nittanians outshot the Panthers, 8-2, in that quarter, but could never get going again except for a small flourish at the end of the end.

Simon Pestich scored the lone goal of the game at the 18:00 minute mark in the second quarter. Bob Murdock set up the tally with a shot that caromed off the cross-bar out to Pestich who booted it home.

Pitt had several chances throughout the game to score, but couldn't squeeze the ball past the Lion's alert goaltender, Larry Fegley.

Although the Lions outshot the Pitt team, 29-16, he game could best be explained by saying that the Lions' shots were in accurate.

This is backed up by the fact that, of the 29 Nittany shots, Zanicopoulos only had to make 14 saves. In contrast, Fegley had to handle 13 out of 16 shots by the booters from the "Smoky City."

Lion coach Ken Hosterman upheld this by saying, "We just did not get enough good shots. Pitt wasn't a better team than us; they just outthrustled us. We had several letdowns throughout the game. Fortunately, they only scored on one of these."

In reference to the poor season his team has had, Hosterman remarked: "I'm not disappointed. A team can profit just as much by losing as by winning. While winning for the past few years, we have overlooked some mistakes which are now evident. Now we can concentrate more on these mistakes next year."

2 TD's In Last 3 Minutes Give Collegian 26-26 Tie

One Penn State team did come through at Pittsburgh Saturday.

Refusing to break down under pressure, the spirited, fast-moving Collegian Pros laughed off a 26-12 deficit in the fourth quarter and made a phenomenal comeback to score two touchdowns and a two-point conversion in the last three minutes of the game to salvage a knock-down drag-out 26-26 tie with the Pitt News Hawks in the second annual Blood Bowl in Forbes Field.

Less than three minutes remained on the Forbes Field clock and the hard-pressed Collegian team was losing by 14 points when "Rompin' Ron" Smith picked off a Pitt News aerial at midfield.

Smith shot down the near sideline, then lateraled to "Dandy Denny" Malick, who scampered cross field and lunged into the corner of the end zone to pull the score to 26-18.

That's when the Pros displayed their superior pigskin savvy. As the final seconds ticked off on the stadium clock the Collegian grid-ers took the ball on downs on their own 20.

Without huddling between plays they ran an unbalanced shift sometimes left and sometimes right with quarterback "Jarrin' Johnny" Black rolling out and taking the option of running or hitting his receivers, Smith, "Jumpin' Jim" Karl, "Muscles Marty" Scherr, and "Bloomin' Brad" Davis.

The Pros rolled 80 yards in less than 80 seconds with Black racing into the end zone on the final play for the touchdown, and then passing to Smith for the two-point conversion to knot the count at 26-26.

The Pros' first two TD's came on a 70-yard pass from Black to Davis and a 20-yard pass and run from Black to Malick.

Foreign Students To Spend Holiday At Nearby Homes

Eighteen foreign students will spend their Thanksgiving holidays with members of the Pine Grove community.

For the fifth successive year, residents of the community have invited University international students to spend the 5-day vacation at their homes.

The students will leave by bus at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday and will return Sunday night. While in Pine Grove they will live with members of the community and visit the Hershey chocolate plant, a farm, and some industrial plants.

Livestock Entered In Chicago Show

Beefsteak cattle and possibly sheep will be the University's contribution to the International Live Stock Exposition and Horse Show to be held from Friday to December 5 in Chicago.

The entries will be made by the Department of Animal Husbandry in the College of Agriculture.

The department will also send two judging teams to enter the competition. Herman Purdy, assistant professor of animal husbandry, will head the livestock judging team and Glen R. Kean, associate professor of animal husbandry, will be in charge of the meat judging team.

Seeger Concert--

The name of the group was the Kingston Trio."

Seeger and the audience sang "Tzema, Tzema, Tzema" a festive Hebrew song, which he helped make popular when singing for the Weavers several years ago. Since then, he has been on his own, collecting and singing the songs he loves.

Seeger pointed out that folk music does not have to be old music. He defined it as any song sung by the people to express a feeling, usually one of protest.

"Folk music is meant to be passed on," he said. "The greatest compliment an audience can pay a folk-singer is to sing the songs presented."

Pete Seeger loves the people. And they love him.

All filter cigarettes are divided into two parts, and...

"Weni, widi, Winston!" Thus did Caesar (a notoriously poor speller) hail the discovery of Filter-Blend—light, mild tobaccos specially selected and specially processed for filter smoking.

He knew that a pure white filter alone is not enough. To be a complete filter cigarette, it must have Filter-Blend up front. And only Winston's got it!

That's why Caesar would never accept another brand even when it was offered gratis. In fact, history tells us he'd glower at the extended pack and sneer, "Et tu, Brute?"

In a stirring peroration to his legions, Caesar put it this way: "For the Numeral I filter cigarette—for the best-tasting filter cigarette—for the noblest filter cigarette of all—smoke Winston!"

"Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!"

P.S. to bachelors. If you're lucky enough to find a gal who'll keep you in Winstons, Caesar!
