

Practice Makes Perfect, 'Singers' Will Entertain

By AMY ROSENTHAL

At 12 noon, twice a week in Carnegie, a group of students give up their lunch hour to meet—not because they have a scheduled class but because they love to sing.

This group, the Penn State Singers, directed by Raymond Brown, will climax their weeks of practice at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Hetzel Union assembly room by giving a concert of madrigals and chorales.

Featured on the program will be a solo cantata, three songs performed by soprano and violin, a baritone solo, a string ensemble and a brass ensemble of trumpet, flugelhorn, trombone and tuba to play chorales at the start and end.

The program will start with the songs "Absalom, fili mei" and "Psalm 96."

Then the group will sing the complicated harmonies of four Elizabethan madrigals, "The Silver Swan," "Fair Phyllis I Saw," "Weep O Mine Eyes" and "Sing We and Chant It"

Sonja Brown, sophomore in arts from Philadelphia, will sing "Ein Kleines Kindelein," accompanied by the string ensemble, and Sandra Slinker, junior in music education from York, will sing three songs by Gustav Holst accompanied by Theodore Karhan, violinist

William Reeves, senior in arts and letters from Blue Bell, will sing "A Christmas Carol" as a baritone solo.

The singers will also sing three four-part songs for Christmas, "The Holly and the Ivy," "In the Bleak Mid Winter" and "Wassail Song."

Graduate Work ROTC to Issue Grant Forms Dance Tickets Due By Today

Today is the deadline for sending in applications for the fellowships in graduate work which are being given by the American Association of University Women, Pi Lambda Theta, and the Rockefeller Brothers Theological Fellowships Program.

The AAUW is awarding 40 national fellowships to women who have or will have their doctorate requirements except the dissertation by July 1.

Sixty fellowships are being given by the Rockefeller Brothers Theological Program to college graduates who are not now planning on seminary or graduate theological work, but who are willing to attend seminary for one year if awarded a fellowship.

These fellowships are made on the basis of a "trial year" during which the student seeks to determine whether the ministry should be his lifetime vocation.

Pi Lambda Theta is awarding three fellowships to women who have already completed at least one year of graduate study.

—According to the latest figures, last year's 100 top national newspaper advertisers invested over $300,000,000.

The printed tickets for the Military Ball will be available tomorrow. Any cadet or non-cadet who paid for a ticket and received a receipt may pick up the printed ticket at the detachment where he bought it by presenting that receipt.

Prior to Thanksgiving printed tickets were not ready and receipts were given upon payment.

The detachments at Carnegie, the Armory, and Engineering E will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow for those who have already paid for tickets.

Anyone else wishing to attend the ball, which will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday in Recreation Hall, may purchase a ticket at the Hetzel Union desk. Approximately 150-200 tickets are still available and will be on sale for the remainder of the week.

Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH:

Make the most of your college days. (The nights will probably haunt you the rest of your life.)

Dear Dr. Frood: Is it all right to study with the TV on? Distracted

Dear Distracted: Better not. You might miss some of the story.

Dear Dr. Frood: The Dean is trying to force me to go to classes. I think this is unfair because last season I scored 16 touchdowns, intercepted 18 passes and kicked 22 field goals in 23 attempts. What should I do? Letter Man

Dear Letter Man: I fail to see how going to classes will help. Better practice your kicking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a very plain girl and I don't have much personality. All I want is a man who will love me. Why can't I find one? Sad

Dear Sad: You're too particular.

Field-goal expert kicks about classes

(See below)

Dear Dr. Frood: I want to get married, but I don't like children. What shall I do? Surly

Dear Surly: Marry an adult.

Dear Dr. Frood: My husband teaches at a girl's college. I know it's silly, but since I'm middle-aged and stout, I am very jealous and worry all the time. What should I do? Plump, Tired

Dear Plump, Tired: Keep worrying.

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I keep people from borrowing my Luckies? Pestered

Dear Pestered: Put them in a Brand X pack.

DR. FROOD ON HOW TO BE A BEATNIK

I've drawn up instructions for becoming a Beatnik: Let your hair grow until your hearing is noticeably impaired. When beard covers your tie, discard tie. Hang your shoes and socks in effigy. Sell your sink for scrap. Stock your room with cigarettes—because you won't be allowed on the street any more. (Better make 'em Luckies and enjoy your isolation!)

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.
