Barnett, Barone Win IM Boxing Slugfests

By RON SMITH

Dave Barnett of Phi Epsilon Pi and Hank Barone of Sigma Chi, leveling a barrage of punches at their opponents, won impressive decisions in last night's IM boxing action at Rec Hall.

Fighting in the 135-pound class, Barnett stunned Delta Upsilon's Greg Thompson in the first round with a flurry of punches. After regaining his form, Thompson fought toe to toe with Barnett, but Barnett got the judges' nod on the strength of his first round attack

Wallace Amos of Omega Psi Phi wasted no time and waded right into Barone in the first round. Barone proved that he knows his way around the ring as well as on the mats where he performs as a varsity wrestler. Hard rights by Barone stunned an exhausted Amos in the second and third rounds to notch a unanimous decision in this 176-pound fight.

Also in the 176-pound class, Bill Brown of Tau Phi Delta won a unanimous decision over Charles Gaston of Tau Kappa Epsilon. Brown's punches landed effectively as his reach advantage had Gaston fighting from a crouch and his strong left jab kept his opponent at a safe distance.

In independent bouts Terry Snyder won over Paul Turek. Both boys were throwing a lot of leather early in the fight with Snyder being the aggressor and Turek countering effectively. Snyder, a 158-pounder, led on all three cards when the bout was halted in the last round.

In the final bout of the evening, Marlin Ebert won a unanimous decision over Harvey Getz in the 142-pound class. Ebert's relentless two-fisted attack earned him the victory even though Getz blocked many of his hard shots.

Forfeitures took a heavy toll. In the 142-pound class Al Kamis of Phi Epsilon Pi won by forfeit over Donald Dick, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Gerald Ziegler, Alpha Chi Rho, won by forfeit over Greg Weiss of Beta Theta Pi.

John Hornby, Delta Sigma Phi, forfeited to Frank Pittman of Beta Theta Pi in the 150-pound class. At 158-pounds, Ken Hall of Chi Phi won by forfeit over Wendall Pass of Alpha Chi Rho. Two forfeits were recorded in the 167-pound class. Nelson Kleintop, Phi Kappa Sigma, won over Robert MacDonnell of Phi Kappa Psi and Jim Anderson of Delta Upsilon won over Richard Waite of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Turinski Nets 24 in IM Cage

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Epsilon Pi and Sigma Tau Gamma all posted victories in IM cage action, but Bill Turinski of the Slipsticks stole the show as he collected 24 points for high scoring honors of the night.

Turinski's feat came in the Slipsticks' 33-19 win over the Distelfinks.

SAE downed Alpha Sigma Phi, 32-28. Phi Ep trounced Alpha Epsilon Pi, 28-7, and STG squeaked by Acacia, 21-19.

Independent games were highlighted by Nitanty 30's 40-10 conquest of Nittany 27.

Nittany 40 downed Nittany 21, 32-21. NROTC Baker topped the Thunderbirds, 25-19. Nittany 33 dropped one to Nittany 24, 26-14, and Nittany 37 defeated Nittany 44, 20-12.

The Quintets, behind Bill Patterson's seven field goals, defeated the Red Raiders, 35-24. Linwood House swamped the Civil Engineers, 39-17. Penn Haven beat the Studs, 31-13.

Charley Sieminski led the Masters to a 34-25 conquest of the Falcons. The Bears stopped Bill's Boys, 33-20. Air Force lost to the Rip Cords, 33-11.

Purdue Powerhouse Will Meet Cagers

Penn State will inaugurate basketball relations with Purdue tomorrow night when the once-beaten Nittanies travel to Lafayette, Ind., to meet Ray Eddy's Big Ten powerhouse.

The Boilermakers, who finished second in the tough Big Ten race last season, already have a win under their belts this year. They beat Valpariso, 70-57, Tuesday while Penn State was losing to North Carolina State, 65-53.

Eddy faces a great challenge this season after losing the top six men from last year's squad. But Purdue appears to be in good shape due to a couple of top-flight sophomore performers.

Terry Dischinger, a 6-6 forward from Terre Haute, Ind. is the key to the Purdue attack. Rated as one of the top basketball prospects to hit Purdue in a long time, Dischinger has every known shot, loads of spring, and plenty of stamina.

Dischinger

Darrell McQuitty, another sophomore forward, is expected to help out quite a bit too. He was one of the big guns on the freshman team, and was an All-State performer in high school.

At center Eddy has 6-10 John Kamman and 6-6 Larry Emerick. Dischinger also plays center and it's possible the Purdue coach will go with the soph at this slot.

If so, letterman Paul Conwell could get the nod at forward. He only averaged two points per game last year in the role of a substitute, but has improved quite a bit Eddy said.

The guard slots will be filled by two other letterwinners — Bob

Mitchell and Bob Orrill. Orrill had a five-point average a year ago while Mitchell averaged three a game

Backing them up are Bob Molsinger and Jerry Lawlis, who played with the varsity last winter.

Eddy, in his tenth season as Purdue coach, plans to use the same type offense and defense which brought Purdue a 15-7 record last year.

Purdue uses the fast break quite a bit and they have plenty of set patterns, too. Defensively they use the basic-man-to-man, but they also use a zone quite a bit.—Sandy Padwe

Boros Leads In Coral Gables Open

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP) —

Julius Boros combined accuracy with a long, low tee shot on a blustery day to card a 4-under-par 67 yesterday and take a one-stroke lead in the first round of the $25,000 Coral Gables Open Golf Tournament.

The former National Open champion from Mid Pines, N.C., finished late, just as it appeared that four players would share the top spot, each with a 68 over the 6563-yard Biltmore course.

The four, now deadlocked in the runnerup spot, are Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah; Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla.; former National Open champion Jack Fleck of Los Angeles; and Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla.
