If basketball's littlemen are dead, then Mark DuMars must be a ghost.

Last night the 5-10 magician had one of his best nights in a Penn State uniform, scoring 33 points to lead the Nittany Lions to an 80-75 win over Syracuse.

A Rec Hall crowd of 3500 cheered wildly as DuMars popped long jump shots in from all over the floor in his first appearance before the home fans this year.

DuMars' great performance enabled Penn State to cop its first game in four outings this year. The loss was Syracuse's first in four starts.

DuMars now has scored 100 points in four games for an average of 27.2 points per game. He hit on 14 of 24 (58 per cent) field goal attempts and five of six fouls for his 33 points.

Faking his way through the Syracuse defenses and throwing up soft jump shots, DuMars almost singlehandedly erased Syracuse's early nine-point lead.

With 2:58 left in the first half, DuMars hit a jumper from the right side of the key to pull the Lions within one point. Gene Harris, State's sophomore center, then took a baseball pass in mid-air from DuMars and stuffed the ball through to put the Lions ahead, 30-29.

Syracuse's leading scorer, center Tom Mossey, gave the Orange the lead but DuMars came right back from the left side this time and the Lions took over. Jake Trueblood hit again for State and Dick Conover scored for Syracuse to make it 34-33 at halftime.

The Lions jumped into a comfortable seven point lead at the outset of the second period on buckets by Wally Colender, Trueblood, and two by Harris.

Syracuse wasted no time getting back into the thick of things.

as Mossey and Pete Chudy hit and scored to give the Nittanics three quick buckets.

DuMars picked up the tempo for the Lions and with 11 minutes left State was ahead, 52-47.

Both teams traded baskets for the next few minutes when all of a sudden the Lions cooled off and Syracuse took advantage.

Mossey's jump shot from the corner tied the ball game up with only 2:50 remaining.

Then along came Paul Sweetland. Almost booed off the court minutes before for missing a few shots, "Sweets" grabbed a rebound best game a guard ever played against us in my four years at Syracuse." He came back to break the tie and put us ahead to stay."

Penn State coach John Egli who had watched his Lions lose to North Carolina State, Purdue and West Virginia, all on the road, was in a jubilant mood following the game.

"We've got a great bunch of kids. How'd you like the way they came back from those three straight losses. And how about that kid Sweetland. Why he's really got heart. The fans almost

Giants, Sox Gain In Trades

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago's strengthened their pitching staff immeasurably by acquiring southpaw Billy O'Dell and right-hander Billy Loes from Baltimore two weeks ago, pulled off a second major deal Tuesday, getting second baseman Don Blasingame from the Cardinals for infielder Daryl Spencer and outfielder Leon Wagner.

The White Sox filled two gaping holes and added much-needed power by acquiring left fielder Minnie Minoso from the Indians and third baseman Gene Freese from the Phillies.
