He led the Nittany Lions in rushing with 325 yards in 99 carries for an average of 3.3 yards per carry. As a passer Lucas completed 58 of 117 for 913 yards and 6 TDs.

Starting with Lucas in Penn State's backfield will be captain Pat Botula at fullback, and Dick Pae and Dick Hoak at halfbacks.

Pae is a newcomer to the starting lineup, having been promoted for his fine showing in a losing cause at Pittsburgh.

On the line Penn State has John Bozick and Bob Mitinger at ends, Andy Stynchula and Charley Janerette at tackles, Bud Kohlhaas and Bill Popp at guards and Jay Huffman at center.

Stynchula, Janerette and Kohlhaas were pro draft choices. Stynchula (227) and Kohlhaas (222) were drafted, along with Lucas, by the Washington Redskins. Janerette, a Philadelphia boy, was chosen by the Los Angeles Rams.

Penn State's second unit which plays almost as much as the first, is led by sophomore quarterback Galen Hall. In his backfield are Sam Sobczak at fullback, and Jimmy Kerr and Roger Kochman at halfbacks.

Kochman is the sensational sophomore who ran a kickoff back 100 yards against Syracuse. He missed the Holy Cross game because of a knee injury, but he's healthy and ready for 'Bama.

Norm Neff and Henry Opperman are the second unit ends and Stu Barber and Tom Mulraney are the tackles.

The guard slots will be filled by Frank Korbini, Wayne Berfield and Sam Stelatella. Dick Wilson is the center.

Pat Trammel, second in total offense in the Southeastern Conference, will direct the 'Bama attack. Trammel picked up 525 yards on the ground this year and is one of the best running quarterbacks in the nation. The amazing sophomore also had 293 yards passing.

Marlin Dyess, one of the smallest but one of the fastest backs anywhere will be at the halfback slot while Billy Richardson will be at the other.

Dyess only stands 5-6 and weighs 149 pounds. He does the 100 in 98. Reports from Alabama and the Southland say that "if you give 'il Marlin a foot, he'll turn Philadelphia Stadium into the Indianapolis Speedway."

Either Hank O'Steen or Tommy White will be the starting Alabama fullback.

The Stingy 'Bama line is headed by Bill Rice and Tommy Brooker at ends, Gary Phillips and Billy Neighbors at tackles, Bill Hannah and Don Cochran at backs in the nation. The amazing sophomore also had 293 yards passing.

Following the game, Rip Engle and three of his Lion gridgers will take off for the Copper Bowl in Phoenix, Ariz. Engle will coach Richie Lucas, Charley Janerette and Frank Korbini along with 21 other National All-Stars in a game

Colgate, Tourney Await Improving Lion Cagers

A busy holiday schedule including the first annual Keystone Classic in Harrisburg, awaits John Egli and his Lion Cagers.

The Lions, with a 1-3 record, play Colgate Saturday night at Rec Hall and then play in the Harrisburg tournament Dec. 28-29.

Colgate brings a 1-2 record into the Saturday night tilt. That doesn't include the Lehigh game in Bethlehem tonight.

The Red Raiders, coached by Howard Hartman, have beaten Sienna for their only win and have lost to Cornell and Columbia in their other two outings.

The Raiders have a veteran club headed by captain Art Brandon who averaged 11 points a game last year.

Also back is Ken Norum, another 11-point man a year ago.

The Lions beat the Red Raiders twice last winter but Egli has warned his team not to take the game lightly.

The Lions broke into the win column against Syracuse after losing three straight to North Carolina State, Purdue and West Virginia.

Mark DuMars leads the Lions in scoring through the first four games with 109 points for a 27.2 average.

He scored 31 against West Virginia and had 33 in the Syracuse game Tuesday night.

A big duel is anticipated when DuMars and Temple's Pickles Kennedy hook up in the Keystone Classic, Dec. 28-29, in Harrisburg's Farm Show Arena.

Last year DuMars held Kennedy, an All-American, to just eight points as the Lions walloped the Owls, 70-36. Kennedy has been waiting to get even and he'll have his opportunity when the Owls and Lions clash in the first round Dec. 28. Duquesne and Penn are the other two teams in the tourney. Games start at 7:30 p.m.

Nittanies Have Appeared In Rose, Cotton Bowls

By JOHNNY BLACK

When the Nittany Lion gridgers take the field against Alabama in Philadelphia's first Liberty Bowl game tomorrow, it will be only their third appearance in a post-season bowl. But the Lions are not novices at inaugurating bowl games.

It was Hugo Bezdek's iron-man crew that helped inaugurate the granddaddy of all bowls—the Rose Bowl back on Jan. 1, 1923.

Pasadena's famous Tournament of Roses started its annual football game in 1902 but the 1923 battle between Penn State and Southern California was the first game played in the present Rose Bowl—a huge concrete oval, seating 101,000.

Names like "Dutch" Bedenk (All-American guard in 1922, later a Penn State football coach and now baseball coach), Mike Palm, "Tiny" McMahon, and Harry Wilson dotted the Lions' small 22-man lineup that made the long trek westward back in the "Roaring 20's."

Bezdek's Nittany Mountain boys had been the terrors of the East from 1919 till 1922. They had a 31-game winning streak going including five high-scoring wins in 1922 (54-0, 28-7, 20-0, 32-6, 33-0) before Navy knocked them off midway through the season. The Lions lost two more games that fell to Penn and Pitt but still rated the trip to Pasadena for the first official Rose Bowl.

The lads from the central Pennsylvania hills threw a scare into the mighty Trojans when quarterback Palm booted a 15-yard field goal in the first quarter to give Penn State a 3-0 lead.

But the brilliant line play of Leo Calland and the "ball-packing" of Bullet Baker and little Harold Galloway earned a 14-3 victory for Coach Elmer Henderson's Trojans.

Penn State's other bowl appearance came in the 1948 Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Tex., when the undefeated "Champions of the East" battled the now legendary Doak (Continued on page seven)

Wind and Light Rain Predicted for Liberty

Wintery weather is expected for tomorrow's Liberty Bowl game in Philadelphia.

Cloudy skies will combine with rather strong and gusty winds and chilly temperatures to cause rather unpleasant weather.

There is a slight possibility that some light rain or snow will fall during the early periods of the game, but present indications show no precipitation during late afternoon.

Winds should be blowing out of the west or northwest at 12 to 20 miles an hour and temperatures will be in the middle or upper 30's.
