

Challenging Foes Loom On Wrestlers' Horizon

Penn State's varsity grapplers returning from vacation, found looming on their horizon a fate tougher than that of the bleary-eyed student with an unfinished term paper. For they are faced with the prospect of meeting probably the two strongest opponents on their schedule in their next two meets—Lehigh and Cornell.

After emerging victorious in all three matches before the class break, the last an inter-sectional battle with Michigan, the Lions settle down to the meat of their schedule with EIWA foes.

Coach Charlie Speidel's charges travel to Bethlehem for the traditional Lehigh bout Saturday and return for their second home meet of the season against Cornell Jan. 23.

These two clubs, which together with Penn State form the triumvirate that is expected to rule eastern grappling circles this winter, met in the season's opening match. Cornell eked out a 17-14 victory.

The Engineers bounced back to nip Syracuse, 16-14, in their second test but dropped their last meet to Oklahoma, 20-10.

Lehigh lost to the Sooners the same night Penn State was beating Michigan, but looked strong in the heavyweight divisions. A bad start ruined the Brown and White wrestlers as the visiting Oklahomans took the first three matches, two by falls, and added a win in the unlimited class. Lehigh's Bob Gunst and Thad Turner wrestled to draws at 147 and 167, while Dave Angell and Jim Detrixhe won decisions at 157 and 177.

NCAA Speaks, Sooners Sob

NEW YORK (AP) — The University of Oklahoma yesterday was handed one of the severest penalties ever meted out by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.—indefinite probation and a ban from appearing in post-season football games and on television—for failing to disclose details of a fund for recruiting athletes.

At the same time, the NCAA council, the policy-making body, put the University of Tulsa under one year probation for recruiting irregularities.

In both cases, it appeared that the institutions were being held responsible for violations not entirely under their control.

Oklahoma's difficulty arose from a fund administered by Arthur L. Wood of Oklahoma City. In at least one case the NCAA established that the fund had provided improper financial aid to a student athlete.

by the Amateur Wrestling News, left a swath of destruction following their sweep through the east just before Christmas.

In addition to the 20-10 win over Lehigh, the Sooners swamped Maryland, 25-3, and Rutgers, 29-6.

Michigan, the night after its loss to the Nittanies, traveled to Syracuse and handed the Orangemen an 18-6 setback.

Sedgman to Retire

MELBOURNE (AP) — Frank Sedgman, believed to have made a quarter of a million dollars in professional tennis, is going into semi-retirement.

The former Wimbledon and U.S. champion said yesterday he had turned down an offer from promoter Jack Kramer to compete in the championship tournaments this year.

Frosh Track Mentor Issues Candidate Call

The freshman track team will begin practice on the Rec Hall boards tonight for its first meet against Army February 20, coach Norm Gordon announced yesterday.

Gordon issued a call for all interested freshmen, whether they have had high school experience or not, to report to him in 237 Rec Hall during the day or on the indoor track between 4 and 6 p.m. He said he is particularly looking for broad jumpers, high jumpers, pole vaulters, hurdlers and sprinters.

There are very few track men on scholarships and Gordon pointed out that two-thirds of the current varsity competitors got their start by just coming out for the freshman team.
