

Pi Kappa Phi 'Adopts' 11-Year-Old Italian Boy

By DEX HUTCHINS

Pi Kappa Phi fraternity has financially "adopted" an 11-year-old Italian boy through the Foster Parent's Plan Inc. The boy, Alessandro Ferranzani, will receive $15 a month from the fraternity for food, clothing and medical care. He will receive $8 a month from that sum as a cash grant.

Although the Foster Parent's Plan does not give either the donating or receiving party personal addresses the fraternity has received pertinent information concerning the boy's family history.

Alessandro is the son of a deceased Italian airline mechanic who died in November of 1958. His family received $500 sever-

Contest Set For Judging Livestock

Beef animals, swine and sheep better be on their toes today, because they will be under careful inspection at the annual Livestock Judging Contest to be held in the Pavillion on Ag Hill.

Registration will begin at noon and the contest is open to all students interested in livestock judging.

Sponsored by the Block and Bridle Club, the contest will be divided into two classes, amateur and professional. Students who register for the professional division will be required to give oral reasons to the supervising judge as to why they placed the animals in a particular order.

The cost of entering the amateur division will be 25 cents and for the professional division, 50 cents.

There will be two classes of beef animals, two of swine and two of sheep. Students ranking high in the overall contest and in the individual classes of livestock will receive ribbons and monetary awards.

Students placing high in the professional division will increase their opportunity of being selected for the livestock judging team next fall.

Swinyard to Speak In MS Auditorium

Dr. Chester A. Swinyard, of the Bellvue Medical Center, will speak at 8 p.m. Monday in the Mineral Sciences Auditorium on "Neurophysiologic Bases of Language."

His lecture is sponsored by the Society of the Sigma Xi and the Speech and Hearing Clinic at the University.

He is a graduate of Utah State College, University of Minnesota and the State University of New York and has published papers on endocrine glands, electromyography, and rehabilitation.

Alpha Delta Sigma To Sponsor Panel

A panel discussion on "Motivation Research" will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Sigma Chi fraternity.

The discussion is sponsored by Alpha Delta Sigma, men's professional advertising fraternity.

Members of the panel include Milton J. Bergstein, WMAJ station manager; Leland Beik, assistant professor of marketing; and Dr. Albert Tsugawa, instructor in philosophy.

The discussion is open and special permission has been obtained for women students to remain until it is over.

A business meeting of Alpha Delta Sigma will precede the panel discussion at 7 p.m.

By BARB FOSTER
Preparations for the March of Dimes campaign which began Jan. 1, are in progress locally by the women's service society, Gamma Sigma Sigma, and the Centre County March of Dimes chapter.

Gamma Sigma Sigma members have addressed and prepared mailers which will be sent to all students. The purpose of sending these is to inform the students of the drive in the hopes that they will contribute, and to stimulate them into getting the preventative polio shots if they haven't already received them, said Ellen Keefer, freshman in arts and letters from Lewistown.

Miss Keefer is state chairman of the teen-age program of the March of Dimes National Foundation.

She attends state conventions of the March of Dimes and speaks at various programs to interest teenagers in helping with the drives by sponsoring car washes, fashion shows, etc.

Basil O'Connor, president of the March of Dimes National Foundation, was quoted as saying that teen-agers have proved to be excellent campaigners in the past and he would like to get more students interested in this work.

Some of the benefits available are the 25 scholarships offered each year by the national foundation to students entering the fields of nursing, medical technology and physical therapy.

Today, TAP day, an air lift will be held at the University airport, the proceeds of which will go to the March of Dimes. The planes and gas will be donated free of cost.

Miss Keefer said that this drive is emphasized on campus because any students who get polio are directly referred to the Centre County chapter and receive aid there, not from the University hospital.

ance pay from the airline company on which they have been living the past two years.

Alessandro is a fifth grade student, especially interested in history and geography. He hopes to work for an airline when he is older.

He has two sisters. One is a senior in high school and will be able to work and help support the family next year. His other sister is in primary school.

Members of the fraternity said that they receive mail from the boy about once a month.

Foster Parent's Plan Inc. has helped rehabilitate more than 76,000 children since it was founded in 1937.

Nittany Tackle Cub Matmen To Play in Bowl Open Season With Lehigh

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Despite the presence of numerous top ball carriers, the possibility rose that a passing record may fall in today's televised Senior Bowl football game.

Penn State's All-East tackle Andy Stynchula will play for the North.

Both Coach Weeb Ewbank of the favored South and Coach Jim Lee Howell of the North gave some indication along that line as they closed out preparation for the game. Both again had their quarterbacks throwing often in the closing drill.

Charley Britt of Georgia's Southeastern Conference champions did the throwing for the Southerners and Jack Lee of Cincinnati for the Yankees.

It will take some doing to better the passing record, set in the inaugural Senior Bowl in 1950.

Travis Tidwell of Auburn and Billy Wade, now of the Los Angeles Rams, locked horns in a duel with little Eddie LeBaron, now the Washington Redskins veteran passer, as the South won 22-13.

A total of 56 passes were thrown, 36 by the South. The Southerners completed 24 and the North 14.

The Penn State freshman wrestling team will open its season tonight when they face the power packed Lehigh frosh in Bethlehem.

Coach Dave Adams will send his nine top wrestlers, decided by elimination contests, against Lehigh which he describes as being "always tough."

Al Hastings will open the card in the 123 pound tussle. Following him, at 130, will be Denny Slattery, recent winner in the Lock Haven YMCA tourney.

Mike Williams, a former Hershey High star, wrestles at 137. Chuck Beatty is Coach Adams' representative in the 147 bracket.

Whitey Noll, former state runner-up from Bellefonte, is slated as the 157-pound grappler.

Dan Kolody has drawn the 167-pound assignment and Ed Pohland will go at 177.

Ron Lucas, a Bald Eagle Area grad will take the mat in the 191-pound position.

Dave Hayes, a former Nassau county, N.Y. champ, defeated "Tiny" Bartlett, a 310-pound giant from State College, for the right to wrestle in the unlimited.
