

-Collegian Photo by Don Schoengold LET'S BREAK THE ICE-A University physical plant workman cracks through a thin layer of glaze on the sidewalk, Warmer weather is expected for today.

Greek Week Events To Start April 13

Difficulties in reserving desired facilities have forced the Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Greek Week At Conference committees to reschedule some of their planned Greek At Week events.

Official Says Signs Erected To Aid Visitors

visitors to find their way around campus," a University spokesman said yesterday.

The rectangular signs, which not only give building locations and names but also provide additional information about the buildings, are part of a long-range plan to mark buildings and

Armbruster Named Frosh Board Chairman

in arts and letters from Verona, having opened up and swallowed was named chairman of the anyone or anything during an Freshman Class Advisory Board earthquake. Sunday and Joan Gilliland, freshman in arts and leters from Pittsburgh, was named secretary-trea-

The constitution was read by Robert Carson, freshman class president, and approved by the

JOKERS

Be a Hit at Parties and School
Free: Book of 50 tricks you can do
Free: Com thru hole mystery
Free: Catalox of misgic MAGIC VANISHER: A clever device makes cipareties, bills, pencils, etc.
disappear, Do it for the first time $1.00
Dept. 1-D 736 West End Ave.
New York 25, N.Y.

that difficulties in reserving will be the keynote speaker tours. Schwab Auditorium for the first at the Omicron Delta Kappa ers said SGA was taking the event of Greek Week, the IFC-Province Conference to be deposits to make it easier for the paper of t Schwab Auditorium for the first at the Omicron Delta Kappa Panhel Sing preliminaries, have Panhel Sing preliminaries, have made it necessary to hold he contest Sunday, April 3; Monday, April 4; and the finals Wednesday, April 6.

To the Contest to be deposits to make it easier for the those taking both the flight and the tour.

ODK, men's national leadership honorary, will host the 55 student handle deposits only for those day, April 6. day, April 6.

Those large blue and white sing contest is not yet certain even sion workshops on the theme topwith the present schedule. The ic "The Challenge of the Changnew Wagner Military Science ing Academic Environment."

Signs marking building locanew Wagner Military Science ing Academic Environment."

Building, which will be finished by April 6, and 121 Sparks are for business administration, will the cost will be about $285 to appear to the conappear who has been associated. assist a growing number of two possibilities as locations for give a welcome speech to the conthe contest, Novak said.

Robert Evans, outstanding pledge banquet co-chairman, suggested that fraternities and sororities be allowed to enter anyone pledged between March 22, 1959, and the end of the fall semester as candidates for the outstanding pledge honor.

He also suggested that anyone Leonard Julius, Student Govern-buildings, are part of a long-range plan to mark buildings and points of interest, the spokesman said.

The program resulted from a study made of the need for better markings of buildings which, the spokesman said, originated in complaints received from visitors attending conferences, visitors having business on campus and new students who found it difficult to locate buildings.

T. Reed Ferguson, director of University relations, serves as chairman of a committee studying the sign problem.

Other committee members in-

Stewart Medwin and Susan Other committee members in-clude Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, dean of admissions; Floyd B. Richard Pigossi and Janine Mitch-Fischer, associate director for ad-ell, publicity; David Engdahl and ministration in Continuing Edu-cation Services; and Elton B. Tait. Susan Linkroum, Greek Week booklet; Lorraine Jochem, Robert extension.

Evans and Howard Glick, outstanding pledge banquet; and Nancy Gilliland and Robert Harrison, work projects

There is not one single au-Eugene Armbruster, freshman thenticated record of the earth's

HISTORY ROUNDTABLE MEETING Tonight

7:30 211 Boucke

Speaker:

Dr. Louis Hacker

"Re-examination of American History Between 1865-1900"

Scholarships

87 Students Receive Senate Awards

George N. Leetch, coordina-tor of scholarships, announced yesterday that 87 students have been awarded scholar-ching by the Senate Course, the senate of t ships by the Senate Committee on Scholarships and Awards.

William Horn, junior in chemical engineering from New Castle, received the largest grant

Angelotti, Judith Herron, Edward Martin Bradley received the Al-Burnosky, Marshall Haitman, pha Phi Omega scholarship which Ruth Wilson, John Miller and is worth $200. The School Admin-

Richard Reiter.
Lorraine Prokopowicz, Bernice Bongiorno, Samuel Diehl, and Boyd Hutchinson received the Class of 1921 scholarships worth $200 each. General scholarships worth $400, $200, and $100 were received by Lamar Wagner, Dorothy Baker, Bonnie Evans, Roger Grasier and Joyce Hurst.

The 1920 class scholarship, worth $100 each, were given to Nola Snyder, Richard Elnicki, Robert McCown, James Wilson, Linda Harmon, Carol Blakeslee, and Edward Abrams

The class of 1922 memorial scolarships were received by Du-

Dr. Harold J. O'Brien, assistant to the dean of the College of Liberal Arts, will speak at the luncheon in the Hetzel Union Building

Before the discussion workshops begin on Friday morning,

Players Present

JOHN

GABRIEL

BORKMAN

by

Ibsen

The Viking of modern drama

CENTER STAGE

LAST WEEK

John Gassner

Friday.

Barbara Yunk received the Chimes award which is worth $75, and Eve Neuberger received the $100 Mary Thompson Memorial Scholarship.

the Alcoa Award, worth $650.

The Louis Carnegie Scholar-ship worth $150 was given to Don-The Vance McCormick Scholarships, worth $100 apiece, went to ald Tanner, and the $150 Garner-Roger Keilin, George Ripsom, Rothrock Memorial Scholarship Webster Hatton, Alice Pyle, Ruth was received by John Kardos.

istrator's Scholarships went to Janice Wanner, Arlene Shupak, Carol Braidic, Paul Jones, Larry Howard received the Class of Tschopp, Diana DeAngelis, Mau-1941 scholarships which are worth rice Hutton and Marjorie Moor-$125 each. head. These scholarships were worth $250.

The Lawrence J. Ostermayer Memorial Scholarships went to Carl Formoso, Thomas Savits, Richard Zdarko, Clifford Hunt, Sallie Hall, Donna Fullerton, Arthur Kressly, Genevra Peck, Gay Kinsinger, Martha Larsen, Donald Smith, Glenn Currie, Frank King, Paul Abplanalp, Peter Cheplick, Alfred Norman, and Emmett Holman.

The Lt. Harry Edward Wagner

Linda Steiner and Richard Bonser received the Helen Wood Morris Scholarships worth $62.50, and Vernon Barger, Carolyn Cope and Jeffrey Lightner received the John W. White Scholarships which are worth $200, $150 and

The Ethyl and Bayard Kinkle Scholarships worth $250 each were received by Patricia Hagan, John Puhalla, Dorothy Yeager, Linda Nearhoof, William Sleighm, and Ronald Koot.

The recipients of these scholarships and awards were chosen by the nine-member Senate Committe on Scholarships and Awards, headed by Dr. Joseph F. Bradley, professor of finance. They were chosen on the basis of scholarship

Murray Named SGA Explains Main Speaker Stand on Tour

The Student Government Association will take deposits for the Penn State Travel agency-spon-Robert K. Murray, head of sored tours, but chairman Car-Ronald Novak, Greek Week co-chairman, said Tuesday the Department of History, that SGA is not sponsoring the lay, April 6.

He said that the location of the universities who will hold discus-must go to the travel agency.

anyone who has been associated ference members on Thursday with the University for at least night.

Six months and his wife, (husband), children or parents if they share the same household. A $100 deposit is required for each reservation.

Miss La Spada said that three persons have signed to take the flight and that 20 more have picked up applications.

—All men are created equal and endowed by their creator with an insatiable urge to become oth-

A WARNER BROS. PICTURE Free a TECHNIRAMA Color by TECHNICOLOR

NOW DOORS OPEN 6:45 P.M.

All the fish you can eat for only $1.00!

> FRIDAY, JAN. 15 11:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.

All the fish you can eat will be served with hot french fries, oven fresh rolls and crisp cole slaw. Hurry, and be paces ahead of the pack.

Penn State Diner 130 W. College Ave.

