

Gymnasts to Meet Winless Mounties

By DICK GOLDBERG

The Penn State G-men, with the best one-two-three punch in collegiate gymnastics, travel to Morgantown today for a meet with the winless Mountaineers of West Virginia.

Co-captains Jay Werner and Lee Cunningham and Greg Weiss make up the triple-threat combo. In last week's win over Temple, Weiss copped three firsts for one of the most impressive debut ever made by a college sophomore.

He won the parallel bars with a 276, the horizontal bar with a 267 and the side horse with 260.

Penn State coach Gene Wettstone calls Weiss "one of the steadiest performers we have on the squad." His steadiness in the Temple meet, where every performer was having trouble completing routine, enabled him to rack up the three high scores.

Werner and Cunningham had a bad time in Philadelphia last week. Werner took thirds on the flying rings and tumbling and a fourth on the high bar. Cunningham took a second on the high bar, a third on the parallel bars, and a fourth on the horse.

However, both believe they have worked all the kinks out of their routines. Wettstone attributed the Goldust Twins' lack of success to experimentalism on the bars. "They now know what they can do and what they can't," the Lion mentor said.

All three men—Weiss, Werner and Cunningham—will perform on the same piece of apparatus which they competed on at Temple.

Wettstone's only lineup change is in the rope climb where he will send Bill Mumma in place of Bruce Fosnacht. Fosnacht climbed the rope in 54 to tie for fourth place at Temple. The Lion mentor believes the addition of Mumma will strengthen his lineup.

Vinco Neuhauser is the top climber for the Nittanians. Against the Owls, he scaled the heights in 3.9 but Wettstone feels he is capable of reaching 3.5 or 3.6.

The third rope climber is Bill Fosnacht, who carded a 4.2 against the Owl.

Behind Werner on the mats, Wettstone is starting Bernie Buhl and Tom Criley. "Both men are very inexperienced but are rapidly improving," the Lion mentor commented.

Ken Morrow will compete as the third man on the parallel bars for the Lions. He took third in the Owl meet, racking up a score of 203. Wettstone feels he will become a very steady, capable all-around performer.

pear on the side horse. The two-year letterman came through with his best performance in the Temple meet, scoring 220 to take fifth place.

Two yearling performers, Jerry Schaefer and Larry Yohn will go on the flying rings. Wettstone was pleased with Yohn's performance last week—201 score for fourth place—and labels Schaefer as "a sophomore with a great deal of potential."

JYM JOTTINGS—Werner and Cunningham both come from Philadelphia which Wettstone calls the hotbed of Eastern Gymnastics. . . . Werner graduated from Olney High School and Cunningham from Germantown. . . . Armando Vega, one of the gymnastic greats of Penn State, won the NCAA all-around title for three years—1956, 1957, 1959.

Trackmen to Run In 'Star' Invitational

By JIM KARL

Coach Chick Werner will get a pre-season peek at some of his top trackmen next Saturday when sprinter Bobby Brown and Penn State's mile and two mile relay teams go to Washington, D.C. for the Washington Star Meet.

Last year State's 2-mile relay squad, composed of Ed Moran, Fred Kerr, Dick Engelbrink, and Don Davies, ran the event in 7:50.7 to take first place.

Although both Moran and Kerr have graduated, Werner expressed confidence that the relay teams would be "very strong" again this year.

The 1-mile relay squad will be chosen from the likes of such stars as Dick Hambricht, Bob Szezyler, Blaine O'Connor, George Metzgar, Ron Landon and footballer Tony Wayne.

In the running for the 2-mile relay are Engelbrink, George Jones, Steve Moorhead, Denny Johnson, Bill Schwab, Mike Miller, Dave LaHoff, and Herm Web-

Brown, Penn State's stellar sprinter, will run the sprint series (a series of 70, 80, and 100-yard dashes) in the Star Meet. Brown came in third in the 70-yard dash and second in the 80 and 100-yard dashes in the Star Meet last year. Olympic sprint champion Bobby Morrow took firsts in all three events.

Brown will be one of many stars to compete in the short-distance event. Also entered are Dick Winder of Morgan State, Ed Spiegel of Maryland, Dave Sime of Duke and Ed Collymore of Villanova.

Across the Boards—Miler Ed Moran, representing the New York Athletic Club, will also make the trip with the Nittanians. Last year Moran captured first place with a 4:14.3 effort. . . . Both relay teams and Brown will also compete in the Millrose Games at New York Jan. 30. . . .

ACRho Tied In IM Basketball Title Defense

Defending fraternity IM basketball champion Alpha Chi Rho along with six other fraternities are leading their leagues as IM basketball heads into its second half schedule.

Dentist Indicted In Pitt Bribe Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An Allegheny County grand jury yesterday indicted a 33-year-old dentist on charges of attempting to bribe two Pitt basketball players.

The indictment was returned against Dr. Edward H. Sebastian of suburban Kennedy Twp., a one-time Pitt dental instructor.

Dr. Sebastian is accused of trying to bribe the two players to have points so he could win bets on games. He has denied the charges.

Walker Named Manager

Lucas will speak on his recent post season football activities.

Cornell Next Test For Matmen

By JOHNNY BLACK

Cornell's undefeated Bears will be the first of two teams to get a crack at Penn State's high-flying grapplers before the start of the second semester.

The second club to get a shot at Coach Charlie Speidel's matmen will be Maryland, which hosts the Nittany Lions February 6 in College Park, Md.

Cornell, sporting an unblemished 4-0 record, will pull into University Park next Saturday to tangle with the Lions—likewise undefeated in four outings and ranked first in the nation by the Amateur Wrestling News—in the early part of a mat-cage twin-bill at Ree Hall.

Already boasting wins over Colgate, Lehigh, Yale and Harvard the Big Red is regarded as the team that should give the most trouble to Coach Speidel's wrestlers in their quest for eastern mat supremacy.

Last year the situation was somewhat reversed. Cornell was the defending eastern champion and had lost only an inter-sectional clash to Iowa State, which later finished second in the NCAA tourney. The Lions were pulling out of the doldrums and had won their previous two meets.

The inspired Nittanians came within 30 seconds of pulling off a major upset but lost by a 15-13 count. In the next to last bout, the Lions' Barone was leading, Steve Friedman, 9-7, when the Cornell senior got a disputed take-down to tie the match and earn a draw.

Even then, Barone just missed gaining a point for time advantage by 22 seconds. Had Barone won, the score would have been the same but the teams reversed.

At least three veterans from that winning Cornell squad will face the Lions again this year.

Eastern 123-pound champ Dave Auble, who has moved up to 130 this year, 157-pound Al Rose and 167-pounder, Al Marion, will be here to haunt the Nittanians again.

These three plus 177-pounder, Phil Oberlander, have been instrumental in leading the Bears to their undefeated mark so far.

In their last meet, the Big Red rapped Harvard, 33-7. The Bears took every match except the last two. The 191 bout was a draw and the Crimson's top-notch heavyweight Bob Winne threw Dick Konover in the final match.
