

Ingo-Floyd Fight Set For June

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP)—Heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson's adviser said yesterday the Johansson-Floyd Patterson return bout was all set now under the promotional banners of Feature Sports, Inc.

In New York, travel agent Bill Fugazy, one of the chief executives of Feature Sports, said the fight will be held in the New York Polo Grounds the week of June 19-25.

"The only thing holding us up is getting our promotional license from the New York State Athletic Commission," said Fugazy. "We hope to get it this week. When we do, we will apply for the date."

Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's adviser, arrived here Wednesday night following long hours of negotiations in New York with the new group headed by Fugazy and lawyer Roy Cohn.

"The return bout is as good as on now," said Ahlquist. "The only thing that remains is the formal signing of the contract and that could have been done in New York, too, except for some technicalities. Instead Ingemar and I plan to go back to America late this month to have the papers signed."

Fugazy said the fighters each will get 25 per cent of the gate receipts. Regarding television, radio and movies, Fugazy said the contracts on that were being renegotiated so that the fighters will share 70 per cent of those rights.

Spring Intramurals Begin With Swimming, Handball

Intramural action for the spring semester begins Feb. 16 with swimming and handball singles. Entries for both will be accepted no later than Feb. 12 and will open Feb. 8. The season lasts five weeks.

The swimming events are the 60 yd. freestyle, 60 yd. backstroke, 60 yd. breaststroke (or butterfly), diving, and 120 yd. relay (4 men). The handball singles will also be a single elimination type tournament and will last four weeks.

Entries will open for the volleyball round robin tournament March 1 and will close March 8. Play will begin March 15.

Wrestling and handball doubles play will begin March 21. Entries will be taken from March 8 to March 15.

It is not necessary to have a complete team for wrestling. Individuals may enter by themselves and need not be affiliated with a team.

This tourney will last three weeks and the handball doubles will come to a close a week later. Entries will be accepted at the IM office at Rec Hall.

Opponent Team--

The Student Government Association offers this Flight to Europe as a service to the student body, faculty and staff of the University. Flights are limited to those who have been officially associated with the University for at least 6 months prior to departure. A qualified applicant may also apply in behalf of an accompanying spouse, dependent children and/or parents occupying the same household. Applications are limited to round-trips only and there is no reduction in fare for children. We believe the demand for space will be great and, of necessity, the priority of applications must be established by the date of their receipt at the office of The S.G.A. together with supporting documents which will be furnished with application forms. The necessary forms may be obtained by using the blank below or by appearing in person at Rm. 203A HUB.

Student Gov't Assoc. has also arranged for two optional, low-cost tours of Europe timed to conform with the dates announced above. The tours are all-inclusive, carefully planned and broad in scope. Based on group purchasing of transportation, facilities and food they provide unusual value for each dollar of cost. Experienced multi-lingual escorts eliminate the difficulties of border crossings, currency-exchange and customs.

Tour A is for the full period between outbound and return flights. Tour B permits about 2 free weeks for independent travel.
