

New Area Involved In Israel-Syria Rift

JERUSALEM (AP) — Skirmishing broke out on a second sector of the Israel-Syrian frontier yesterday. Syrians and Israelis exchanged fire near Shaar Yashuv, 25 miles north of the Tawafik battle zone.

Discoverer IX Fails to Orbit

VANDERBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Discoverer IX satellite rocket failed to reach orbit, speed and fell back into the earth's atmosphere yesterday after a successful launch.

The Air Force said the rocket failed to achieve orbital velocity for reasons unknown. Officers said they did not know whether or not the second stage separated from the first—for lack of information.

First indication of trouble came about an hour after launch with the report that no radio transmission had been received.

The rocket was tracked by radar and this data was being analyzed to determine what went wrong.

This was the third of the nine Discoverers launched to date, which failed to achieve orbit. None has performed the main mission of the series: to eject a capsule so it can be recovered—pioneering a new way to return man from space.

The Air Force said it did not know why the communications system failed.

The 10:52 a.m. blastoff seemed perfect. The tall two-stage rocket, spurning orange flame, soared majestically through the overcast.

Like others in the troubled-plagued series, Discoverer IX carried an instrumented capsule designed to be ejected from the satellite—and snatched from the air by planes 26 hours after launch.

DeGaulle Will Name New Cabinet

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle will announce today a new French cabinet to go along with his new iron-rule powers to crush Algerian crises.

The somewhat tamed hothead Jacques Soustelle is expected to be dropped.

Dismissal of the one-time political lion of Algeria's rebellious French settlers would coincide with a current drive against right wingers and petty fascists.

De Gaulle and Premier Michel Debre talked for just over an hour last night after Debre had spent several hours consulting Cabinet and government officials.

Word was passed after Soustelle saw de Gaulle and Debre yesterday that he would not attend today's Cabinet session, and the Paris press assumed that means he is out.

A spokesman at Soustelle's office said he would never resign, "but what might happen is that de Gaulle would fire him."

Algiers was the focus of the present drive against the right, some of whose more vociferous members are opposed to democracy outright. Between 30 and 40 rightists were caught there by police for questioning on the sources of last week's settlers' uprising, and unofficial reports said about 60 persons in France have been arrested or are being sought.

It held out against Arab attack throughout the Palestine war of 1948.

Syrian and Israeli accounts agreed the skirmish erupted at 12:20 p.m. Each side blamed the other.

The Israelis said one of their policemen was wounded earlier by Syrian gunfire across the demilitarized zone southeast of the Sea of Galilee, where the border crisis broke out last Friday. An Israeli spokesman reported the fire was not returned.

Action in that area has centered around Tawafik, an old Arab village wrecked by Israeli demolition crews Monday night on the ground the Arab farmers there were soldiers in disguise. About 30 mud huts were destroyed. Seven still stand.

A belief that the conflict is "giving into a more quiet period" was expressed in New York by U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold who told a news conference the U.N. line must be the implementation of the armistice agreement of 1949 to demilitarize the zone.

A spokesman for the United Nations, Albert Grand, was optimistic that Syria and Israel would meet in the Syrian-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission, which Israel has boycotted since 1957.

Israel was described at its Foreign Ministry as ready for direct talks with the Syrians provided the discussions cover steps to "prevent further border incursions and shooting," but not the status of the demilitarized zone. Israel claims the whole zone as Israeli property.

6 Sailors Missing in Mishap

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Eleven men were washed overboard from the destroyer Daly yesterday when she rolled heavily during a full-power run about 200 miles off Cape Henry.

Five of the men were rescued and the other six were missing, Atlantic Fleet headquarters reported yesterday night.

The Daly plucked three men from the ocean and the merchant ship Alabama rescued two others. Search for the six missing men was continued yesterday night by the Daly and two other destroyers, the Young and the Cotten. The Alabama proceeded toward Cape Henry.

One of the rescued men was reported injured seriously.

Mateos Cuba-Bound

HAVANA (AP)—Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos will visit Cuba sometime this year and will send a delegation here to a proposed conference of underdeveloped nations, the government announces. Officials also say Cuba's foreign minister, Raul Roa will visit Venezuela Feb. 19 for that country's national holiday.

U.S., Reds Argue Lend Lease

WASHINGTON (AP) — An argument flared up between the Soviet Embassy and the State Department yesterday over what was said at Camp David last September between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

White said an American loan came six months after the British settled their lend lease account, and was not part of the same transaction and didn't want any credit.

The Soviets said the question of settling their lend lease debt was coupled at the Camp David talks with the removal of trade restrictions against their country. They also renewed a contention that the British received favored treatment, including a long term loan, when they settled their lend lease account.

State Department press officer Lincoln White denied that Eisenhower ever told Khrushchev that credits and trade could be tied in with a lend lease package settlement.

"On the contrary," White told a news conference, "Mr. Khrushchev said he didn't need any credit."

White said an American loan came six months after the British settled their lend lease account, and was not part of the same transaction and didn't want any credit.

For New Students

—who have not as yet found the campus meeting place. This is an inside tip on where to find the "guys and gals." If you go down Garner St. a few steps and enter a small white building, good cheer will appear.

—Yes, it's the LION'S DEN . . . the campus meeting place in the campus shopping center. The tavern where you can get Steamed Clams, Shrimp, and Beverages all under one roof. Stop in soon—ask for Charley, George, or Bob.
