He said that as soon as this information is available and complete, the letter will be forwarded to them.

Leap Year Dance OK'd By Leonides

By PAT DYER

A Leap Year Dance to be held Feb. 26 in the Hetzel Union ballroom was approved by Leonides Council last night.

The dance, which may be on the "Lal Abner" theme, was originated by the Association of Independent Men. Anne Farley, sophomore in education from Cedars, was appointed Leonides chairman for the event.

Walter Caplan, Spring Week chairman, presented a report to the council urging independents to participate in the 1960 Spring Week. Any interested independent women's group should contact Betty Kohudic, general secretary for Spring Week, he said.

Carolyn Herr, sophomore in applied art from Pittsburgh, was named Leonides representative to the general Spring Week meeting to be held at 8:45 tonight in the Hetzel Union assembly room.

About 200 bluebooks were collected at the Town Independent Men-Leonides Bluebook Jam Session Saturday night, Carol Frank, Leonides president, reported. The two organizations may try a regular jam session later in the year, she added.

Miss Frank announced the appointment of Arlene Evangelista, freshman in physical education from Biomall, as representative to the annual Marriage Conference jointly sponsored by the University Christian Association, Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council and AIM.

Magazine to Hold Cover Girl Contest

By ANN PALMER

Have you ever looked with envy at the glowing, peaches-and-cream beauty of a real live cover girl? Now is your chance to be looked at and admired in the same way.

The Press Roto Magazine is sponsoring this year the seventh in their annual series of Campus Cover Girl Contests.

Drawing from the entries presented by many schools throughout Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia, the judges will select five girls as finalists. These girls will be invited to a luncheon in Pittsburgh where they will meet and talk to the judges.

From these five, the judges will choose the Campus Cover Girl. The remaining four will automatically become the queen's court.

The winner will be featured on the cover of The Roto Magazine and an accompanying biographical sketch of the chosen one will appear within the magazine.

The members of the queen's court will be pictured in the magazine also.

The members of the queen's court will be pictured in the magazine also.

The contest is open to any coed. To enter the contest, coeds should bring to The Daily Collegian office in Carnegie Building a 5x7 or an 8x10 glossy or mat finish photograph. These photographs should be flattering but, of course, quite accurate. And please, no cheese-cake! The deadline for entering photos is 5 p.m. Feb. 24.

The finalist for this campus will be selected by the skilled and shrewdly accustomed eyes of male members of the Collegian staff. These men are eager to begin the judging, so get your pictures in early.

Pictures of the candidates submitted by the various schools will appear in the March 27 issue of Roto Magazine and the judges will meet during the following week to select the finalist.

Journ Association Elects New Head

Barbara Yunk, sophomore in journalism from Pittsburgh, has been elected president of the Journalism Student Association.

Also elected to office were Benjamin Bronstein, vice president; Karen Bosler, secretary; and Harold Deisher, treasurer.

H. Eugene Goodwin, director of the school of journalism, has replaced John Vairo, instructor in journalism as advisor to the club.

The members saw "The Twisted Cross," a movie depicting the rise and fall of Adolf Hitler.

Two amendments to the constitution were read to the members and will be read again at the next meeting for final approval.

Orr said that fraternity men should discuss their policies and programs openly during the rushing period and should answer any questions which the freshmen might have.

In other business, Ronald Novak, Greek Week chairman, gave the following schedule for this year's Greek Week, which will be held from April 3 to 9:

- April 3 and 4—IFC Sing and Quartet preliminaries
- 5—Exchange Dinners
- 6—IFC Sing and Quartet Finals
- 7—Outstanding Pledge Dinner
- 8—Bridge Tournament
- 9—Work Projects
- 11—Panhel - IFC Banquet

Novak also said that he and his committee will recommend that Greek Week be held in the fall next year instead of in the spring. Novak said that IFC has been having "quite a bit of trouble getting settled because Spring Week is so close to Greek Week."

At the meeting, Gentzler also said that he is accepting self-nominations for the three IFC offices—president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer. Only those men who are or have been house presidents or chairmen of one of the 10 IFC committees are eligible.
