

Bradley to Talk To Entre Nous

The Entre Nous Club of the Young Friends' Society will sponsor a program, "Penn State's Celebration of National Negro History Week," at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel.

The Hon. Andrew N. Bradley, State Secretary of Property and Supplies, will be the guest speaker. Bradley is the first member of his race to serve in the governor's cabinet.

Active in numerous political and business organizations, Bradley was elected five consecutive times as vice president of the Young Democrat Clubs of the state.

Bradley's address will cover three main areas, including racial discrimination, opportunities for Negroes today and anthropology.
