

3 Ideas Given For Senior Gift

Seniors have turned in three suggestions so far for their class gift

Suggestions will be received until next Friday at the Hetzel Union desk

The gifts suggested so far are money for retired faculty members, library books and a revolving art exhibit

About $3900 will be spent for the class gift. During fall registration $1300 was collected and the University will add $2 to every $1 collected this year.

The Senior Class Advisory Board has decided that all seniors will be able to make the final choice for a class gift when they vote for the traditional senior awards

UCA to Sponsor Faculty Colloquy

A series of papers and a faculty colloquy on the subject "Is Christianity Intellectually Defensible?" sponsored by the University Christian Association faculty committee, will be presented during March in the Eisenhower Chapel.

"Grace and Responsibility" is the title of the first paper which will be presented by the Rev. John Whitney, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in State College at 8 tonight.

Dr. John Ferguson, director of the Institute of Public Administration, and Dr. Gordan Pritham, professor of physiological chemistry, will discuss the paper by Whitney.
