

UCA Conference Opens On Missionary Work

Missionary work in the world today is the theme of a conference on "Christian Frontiers Overseas" to be sponsored this weekend by the University Christian Association.

Rev. Louis Grier of Osaka, Japan, will speak on "Why Christian Missions in Today's World?" at 8 tonight in the chapel lounge. The alternate questions of whether Christian churches should be evangelistic or should provide technical assistance will also be discussed by Grier.

Fifteen overseas church leaders and eight University faculty members will conduct eight seminars at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the chapel.

These seminars will describe by vocational areas the overseas openings with the church. Areas to be considered are medicine, education, agriculture, home economics, engineering, and technical work. The courses of study necessary for each field of work will be discussed.

"The Mark of the Hawk" will be presented at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow and at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the HUB Assembly hall. This movie tells the story of nationalism as seen by an educated African Christian.

An informal discussion on "Missions and Nationalism with Focus on Africa" will be conducted at 9:30 p.m. tomorrow in the chapel lounge.
