

EIGL Tournament Starts Tonight In Philadelphia

By LARRY ROTH

Twelve Penn State gymnasts will begin their search for individual laurels tonight in the preliminaries of the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastic League championships.

The preliminaries begin at 7:30 at South Hall in Philadelphia. The finals will begin at 8 tomorrow night.

In addition to qualifying the top eight men in the regular events for the finals, tonight's program will also decide the first five scores of the all-around event.

The sixth and final event of the trying all-around — the free exercise — will open Saturday's program and will decide the winner.

The other five all-around events are the still rings, long horse vault, side horse, horizontal bar and parallel bars.

The latter three are also included among the regular events in addition to tumbling, the rope climb and the flying rings.

Although tonight's prelims won't determine any champions, they will give a fair indication of the winners under the EIGL combined scores system. Scores are totaled for both the preliminary and the final to determine the winner.

The only defending champ for the Lions is Lee Cunningham, who won the high bar a year ago.

There should be a battle royal for the all-around crown between the Nittanians' Jay Werner, Cunningham, and Greg Weiss, and Heinz Briegal of Massachusetts and Jeff Cardinelli of Springfield.

For the Lions' big three, it could be a matter of which one has a good day.

Each has scored a triple victory in dual meet competition this season. On the other hand, each has also experienced a bad day at one time or another.

Briegal and Cardinelli placed fourth and fifth, respectively, in last year's Easterns and were close behind Werner and Cunningham, who took second and third.

In other words, a break by any of the five could prove to be disastrous in his bid for the championship.

Armando Vega, captain of last year's national championship Lion squad, set the all-around record of 1667.5 points last year.

In 1958, Werner and teammate Cunningham battled right down to the wire before Werner won, 1515-1514.

tumbler for Penn State in what has consistently been regarded the Lions' weakest event.

Since under EIGL rules five men from the same team are allowed to compete in one event, Coach Gene Wettstone has added Ernie Lofgren to his side horse crew of Dave Palmer and the Big Three.

Bruce Fosnocht has also been added to the team as a rope climber where he'll join brother Bill, Vince Neuhauser and Bob Mumau.

Parallel bars specialist Ken Morrow and flying rings ace Jerry Schaefer will also see action for the Lions.

18 Thinclads To Compete In IC4A's

Lion track coach Chick Werner has entered 18 boardmen in tomorrow's IC4A indoor championships in Madison Square Garden.

The Nittany thinclads will be seeking their third straight IC4A title—they won both the indoor and outdoor championships last year.

Werner will enter his flashy middle-distance runner, Steve Moorhead, in the mile along with Herm Weber and Denny Johnson.

This will be a big opportunity for Moorhead, who has been termed by his coach as "one of the best sophomores in the East."

The boy from Harbor Creek has great potential and works as hard as anyone on the squad, according to Werner. Last year he set a freshman record in the mile against Cornell with a clocking of 4:17.3.

Johnson and Weber have looked good in practice recently and Johnson ran a 4:22 practice mile last week in Rec Hall.

Werner will send Dick Engelbrink in both the 1000-yard and the 2-mile run in hopes that the Lion captain will come through with a double win. And Engelbrink may be just the man to do it. Last year he captured both the indoor and outdoor titles in the 2-mile run.

The Lions' third big gun is sprinter Bobby Brown. The powerfully built dash man is only one of many stars entered in the sprint, but he appears to be in top form.

If vaulters Dick Gross and Dale Peters can get off a couple of good leaps, the Lions can pick up some points in the pole vault. No competitor entered in the vault has gone over 13.6 this year.

Although high jumper Dick Campbell is not being counted on to outjump the fabulous John Thomas, he should be in position for a runner-up spot if he can get off another jump like his 6' 6" effort in practice last week.

Delta Chi Romps to 26-14 IM Swim Win Over Acacia

By DEAN BILLICK

Delta Chi, on the strength of a convincing 26-14 IM swimming win over Acacia, served notice to all teams in the fraternity loop that it will again be the top team to be reckoned with in the championship drive.

Not only did the defending champs win by a surprisingly wide margin over an Acacia team that had won its first meet by a 29-8 spread, but in the process recorded the lowest times of the year in the fraternity leagues in the freestyle and the medley relay.

While Delta Chi was working for its victory over Acacia, Montgomery House advanced to the independent finals. Blair House and Allegheny both forfeited, thus clearing the way for Montgomery to swim the winner of the "Mice"-Nittany 27 meet for the independent championship.

Delta Chi captured first place in four of the five events to earn their 26-14 victory.

Ray Seely got Delta Chi off to a flying start in the 60-yard freestyle by roaring to a first place finish. His time of 32.0 was the fastest time this year and fell only 6 short of the all-time IM freestyle record.

Acacia's Hal Zook and Charles King captured second and third place.

Ron Nutter of Delta Chi was never challenged in the backstroke but his teammate Bill Grauch had a "photo finish" with Bill Barber of Acacia before nudging out Barber for the second place honors.

Illegal kicks in the breaststroke race disqualified two swimmers creating only a first and second place. Delta Chi's Steve Sulzbacher won first place in a slow time of 51.5 and Jerry Logue of Acacia took second.

Buzz Noll saw to it that Delta Chi would not shut out Acacia in the first place finishes as he copped the diving honors.

Noll scored an 18.8 with a judging score of 4 in all his dives. John Johnson of Delta Chi beat out Zook for second place.

The 120 freestyle relay race proved to be no contest with John Butcher, Seely, Nutter and Dick Cowling lapping Acacia. The time of 1:00.8 is the fastest fraternity relay time this year.
