

Temple Beats Cagers, 79-68

Lions Close Season Tonight at Rutgers

BY SANDY PADWE

PHILADELPHIA, March 4—There's no doubt about it, "Pickles" Kennedy is one of the greatest.

Playing his final game before the home fans, he poured in 28 points to lead NIT-bound Temple to a 79-68 win over Penn State at the Palestra.

The crowd of 2911 gave the 5-11 playmaker a standing ovation for more than a minute when he left the game.

Kennedy was brilliant, especially in the first half when he scored 18 points and brought the Owls out of an early slump which found them behind 7-0 in the opening minutes.

Still behind 11-6, at 16:10, Temple roared back and outscored Penn State 15-2 in the next six minutes for a 21-13 lead which put them in front for good.

The Owls took a 38-30 lead to the dressing room at halftime, but State came back to make it interesting. The Lions narrowed Temple's lead to 48-44 on a jump shot by Mark DuMars with 13:41 left.

Wally Colender and Gene Harris kept it close for the next few minutes, until Russ Gordon got hot and scored six straight to sew things up for Temple.

DuMars was held to 11 points, his lowest output of the year. He made only 5 of 21 shots.

Paul Sweetland was high man for Penn State with 16 points and Jake Trueblood and Gene Harris were right behind with 13.

Temple shot 54.8 per cent and Penn State 40.6 per cent.

Penn State now is 10-11 and Temple has a 17-8 record. The Lions close out their season tomorrow against Rutgers in New Brunswick, N.J.

Temple's NIT invitation came as a surprise today but the consensus of opinion of the Philadelphia basketball writers was that the Owls earned it on the basis of improvement. They've won seven of their last eight including a 68-63 upset over another NIT team, St. John's.

Big 10 Bans Post-Season Competition

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Big Ten voted yesterday to end post-season competition in all sports, climaxing a chain reaction that stemmed from rejecting resumption of a Rose Bowl football contract.

In the biggest athletic upheaval in the conference's history, explosions were fired in this order: 1. By a vote of 5-3, continuation of a Rose Bowl contract netting some $300,000 annually was killed. Wisconsin, Ohio State, Northwestern, Illinois and Minnesota were against it, and a majority vote was needed for approval.

2. Voted 6-4 to not permit a school to go to the Pasadena New Year's Day classic on an individual basis. Indiana's vote was the decisive one.

3. Athletic directors made a startling motion that all athletics be ended with the regular conference championship campaign. Faculty representatives cast a majority vote of approval.

Items 2 and 3 still are to be voted on, on an institutional level, within the next 60 days. After this process of placing basic policy matters under the so-called White Resolution, faculty representatives will be instructed by their respective schools how to vote officially on the matters at the Big Ten May meeting in East Lansing, Mich.

If the post-season ban is adopted it would mean that Big Ten teams in all sports would be ineligible for NCAA championship meets as well as AAU meets. The only exception would be made in regard to Olympic trials.

Matmen Wrap Up Season At Rutgers

The Blue and White wrestlers have a chance to wrap up their best season in seven years tonight when they meet the Rutgers grapplers in their final dual meet of the 1959-60 season.

There will be two lineup changes for the Lions who go after their ninth win in 10 meets. Coach Charlie Speidel's matmen have not lost a meet this year but were held to a 14-14 tie by Pitt in their home finale last Saturday.

Gordie Danks, hard-working senior, will take over the 130-pound slot for the Lions. It will be the last meet in the Blue and White tights for the two-year letterman, who has a 2-2 record this winter.

Ron Pifer, highly regarded Lion sophomore will be missing from his familiar 157-pound slot because of a mishap in practice this week. Pifer banged into a wall but was not seriously hurt.

Speidel plans to insert sophomore John Barone into Pifer's spot tonight. Barone earned his numeral with the Lion frosh last year and is a brother of the Nittanians' undefeated 177-pounder, Hank.

The rest of State's lineup will remain intact.

Tony Scordo (6-1-2) will go at 123, Guy Guccione (5-1-2) at 137, Captain Sam Minor (6-2-1) at 147, Jerry Seckler (8-0-1) at 167, Hank Barone (7-0-2) at 177, Phil Myer (3-1-1) at 191 and Johnston Oberly (8-0-1) at heavyweight.

The feature match of the night should come at either 137 or 147, depending upon where Rutgers' mentor Dick Voliva uses his senior ace Tom Grifa.

Grifa, who has a career dual-meet record of 24-1-1, is undefeated this winter and has wrestled at both 137 and 147. Grifa's list of victims includes Stan Abel, Oklahoma's 130-pound NCAA titleholder. Grifa was held to a 2-2 draw last week by Lehigh's Curt Alexander.

The other unsettled area in Rutgers' lineup is the upper-weights.

Eight different grapplers have seen action in the four upper weights for the Scarlet this year. Three are 167-pounders, four are 177-pounders and one is a heavy-weight. All eight have been jumbled through the various classes from 167 to unlimited at some time during the year.

John Narcisco, is the top man of the eight and should start at

... veteran back at 130

177 or above. Other than Narcisco the most likely starters are Carl Skuba, 167, Don Cory, 177, Jim Sierk, 191, and Jim Horner, heavy. Lehigh trimmed the Scarlet, 21-12, to hand them their fourth loss of the season. They have won seven.

The Scarlet lost two of their first three meets—16-14 to Yale and 29-6 to Oklahoma—then captured six straight before Army stopped their string.

Rutgers owns victories over Columbia, 26-3, Temple, 29-3, Penn, 22-9, and NYU, 43-0.

The Lions have stopped Army, Colgate, Michigan, Lehigh, Cornell, Maryland, Navy and Syracuse.

V-Ball Entry Deadline

Deadline for the entries in IM volleyball is 4:30 p.m. Tuesday. All entries must be turned in to the IM office in Rec Hall.

Olympic Coach

Gene Wettstone, Penn State gymnastics coach, was coach of the U.S. men's gymnastics team at the 1948 and 1956 Olympic Games.

Track Records Expected To Fall In IC4A Meet

By JIM KARL

NEW YORK, March 4—Records are expected to tumble by the wayside here in Madison Square Garden tonight when a host of stars from all the eastern track powerhouses compete in the East's biggest track extravaganza of the indoor season—the IC4A's. Squads from Notre Dame, Maryland and Marquette are also entered in the 39th annual board carnival.

John Thomas will headline a list of entries including Penn State's Bobby Brown and Dick Engelbrink, Frank Budd, and Paul Drayton from Villanova, Kye Courtney and Joe Marchiony from Manhattan and Jim Stack and Tommy Carroll from Yale.

Penn State won the championship last year after an 11-day dispute. A reversal of a third place judge's decision 1 1/2 hours after the completion of the meet caused enough of a point change in team standings to give Manhattan the title over the Lions.

Before the reversed decision State had been declared the victors over Manhattan, 21-20 17/36.

Eleven days after the meet the IC4A Executive Committee invalidated the decision and gave the crown back to the Lions.

This year's contest should be a wide-open affair with Penn State ranked slightly behind co-favorites Manhattan and Yale. Other teams that figure to be in the running are Villanova, Navy, Army, Notre Dame and Maryland. Yale's principal scoring threats are two juniors, Tommy Carroll in the 1000 and Jim Stack in the 600. These Bulldog runners have posted faster times in their events than any of the other entries.

Perennial track powerhouse Manhattan will be led by Courtney in the 600, Art Evans in the 1000 and Marchiony in the shot put.

Penn State will count heavily on its Big Three—Bob Brown, Dick Engelbrink, and Steve Moorhead.

Brown will face some stiff competition in the 60-yard dash. Drayton and Budd of Villanova, Jonas Spiegel of Maryland, Mel Barnwell of Pitt and Ed Sprague of Army are the other top sprinters entered.

Engelbrink will run against Stack, Evans, and Alfred's Frank Finnerty in the 1000. In the 2-mile the Lion captain will face Dartmouth's Tom Laris, Brown's Bobby Lowe and Carl-Olar Holmen of Delaware.

Penn State's 2-mile relay team of Don Davies, Dick Hambright, George Jones and Mike Miller is expected to hook up in a great duel with Manhattan.

The Jasper quartet ran a fast 7:45 clocking to defeat State by a split second last week in the Knights of Columbus Meet here.
