

Weiss Leads EIGL All-Around

Cunningham Holds Firsts In 2 Events

Special to Collegian
 PHILADELPHIA, March 4
 —Greg Weiss, Penn State's sensational sophomore gymnast, took a commanding lead in the all-around event last night in the Eastern-Intercollegiate Gymnastic League tournament at South Hall in Philadelphia.

The crew-cut Weiss scored a 456 for the five events run off tonight to take the lead over Springfield College's Jeff Cardinelli who scored 446.75 points. Only the free exercise event remains to be run off tomorrow night.

The Nittanians' senior co-captains, Lee Cunningham and Jay Werner are in third and fourth place, respectively, with scores of 411.75 and 409.25 after the first night's competition.

Cardinelli must outscore Weiss by at least 9.25 points in the free exercise tomorrow night if he hopes to steal the coveted all-around title from the flashy Lion soph.

Cunningham, defending Eastern high bar champ, took the lead in two other events. He scored a 94.5 in his specialty to lead teammates Weiss and Werner, and racked up a similar 94.5 total to lead the side horse.

Weiss, last summer's Pan-American Games side horse champ, is in second place with a 90.5 total.

The only other event in which a Penn Stater placed first was the long horse vault where Weiss tallied a 91.25.

Although the consistent Weiss

only scored one first place in the five events in the all-around, he carded three seconds and one third place to take the lead.

In the flying rings, the expected duel between Army's Jon Aaronsohn, Werner and Pitt's John Hirst materialized as they paced the field in that order.

Aaronsohn, defending Eastern champ in this event scored a 96, highest total of the night, to lead national ring champ Werner, who had a 93.5.

The Lions' brilliant sophomore, Jerry Schaefer, suffered a major break and scored an 82.5, which was good enough only for ninth place—one place short of qualifying him for tonight's finals.

Lion senior Dave Palmer continued his late-season improvement when he scored an 86.5 in the side horse for a temporary fourth place.

Penn State's lone tumbler, Bernie Buhl, failed to qualify for the finals as Navy's John Marshall topped the tumblers with a score of 90.

Lee Cunningham

The horizontal bar proved to be the Lion's strongest event as it has all season. Cunningham, Weiss and Werner placed first, second and third, respectively.

Nelson Hulme of Navy, the EIGL record holder in the rope climb, was timed in 3.6 seconds to hold the lead over Penn State's Vince Neuhauser and Bob Mau, who were timed in 3.7 and 3.8.

For the six regular events, tonight's finals will decide the champions on the combined-scores system, whereby the scores from the prelims and finals are added to determine a winner.

Big 'O', West Top AP Poll

NEW YORK (AP)—A new college basketball star will emerge next season, in the wake of the graduation of Oscar Robertson and Jerry West. And the selection of the 1960 collegiate basketball All-America by The Associated Press yesterday indicates the successor to the "Big O" and the "Cabin Creek Comet" will be Jerry Lucas of Ohio State.

Robertson, 6-5, of Cincinnati, and West, 6-3, of West Virginia, were far ahead in the voting by 329 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the nation. Their skill and finesse is well known and it was no surprise that they repeated from 1959. In fact, this is the third straight year Robertson made the All-America.

Lucas, 6-8, sophomore who sparked Ohio State to its first Big Ten title in more than a decade, polled 253 first place votes to 311 for Robertson and 304 for West. This showing points to him as next year's individual standout.

Darrell Imhoff, the 6-10 senior who led California to its first NCAA title in 1959 and who will help defend the crown in this year's tourney, also was named on the first team along with Tony Jackson, junior star of the defending National Invitation champs, St. John's of New York.

Slith topped the second team selection composed also of Terry Dischinger of Purdue, Roger Kaiser of Georgia Tech, Chet Walker of Bradley and Len Wilkens of Providence.

ATO, Phi Gam Reach IM Swim Quarter-Finals

By BOB KILBORN

Phi Gamma Delta and Alpha Tau Omega earned berths in the quarter-finals of the intramural swimming tournament by eliminating their third round opponents last night.

Phi Gamma Delta beat Phi Kappa Theta, 22-18, and ATO eliminated Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 30-10.

Phi Kappa Theta started off in high style against Phi Gam as Walt Benecki breezed to victory in the freestyle in 33.8 seconds and in the backstroke with a time of 43.8 seconds, both the best times of the night in those events.

At that point, however, Phi Gam swept firsts in the breaststroke, diving and the 120-yard relay to win the meet.

ATO took first places in every event to down SAE.

ATO's Ken Coles and Bill Surger, who traded firsts in the freestyle in their first two meets, engaged in a nip and tuck battle, with Coles edging his teammate by less than a foot for the win in 36 seconds. Dick McCoy of ATO again took the backstroke, coming from behind in a time of 45 seconds to beat Chuck Stender of SAE.

Carl Tongberg won the breaststroke for the third straight time in 38.6 seconds, beating his nearest opponent by over half the length of the pool.

Bill Pinder of ATO topped all divers of the night, piling up 24.4 points to win his third straight diving event.

In the third meet of the night, Phi Kappa Sigma decisioned Delta Sigma Phi, 24-16, for its second win of the season. Phi Kappa Sigma won first places in every event but the breaststroke.
