

Cagers Gain Even Split On 85-59 Win At Rutgers

By SANDY PADWE

John Egli's "get tough" policy paid a big dividend Saturday at Rutgers where Penn State (11-11) closed out its 1959-60 basketball season with an 85-59 win over the Scarlet Knights (11-14).

Displeased with the play of backcourt stars Mark DuMars and Wally Colender in the Temple loss Friday, Egli started Mel Ramey and Don Wilson against Rutgers and the psychology worked perfectly.

DuMars and Colender were hopping mad and when they entered the lineup they put on an all-around performance that completely dazzled the near capacity crowd in the Rutgers Field House.

"I can see now that I should have done something like that earlier this year," said Egli. "Things are going to be different next season."

Colender was the first to agree. "I could have used something like that before. It sure woke me up," he said.

Without their high scoring duo in the lineup, Penn State fell behind, 20-8, with seven minutes gone.

Then Egli went to the bench and in came Colender, DuMars and John Phillips. This trio pecked away at the Rutgers lead and after Phillips produced a three-point play with 1:08 left in the half, the Lions were behind by only one, 31-30.

Al Ammerman gave Rutgers a 32-20 lead, but DuMars made a jumper to tie it. A moment later "the magician" got the ball under the Rutgers boards, dribbled the length of the floor, and weaved through the whole Scarlet team for a layup and a 34-32 halftime lead.

After that it was like taking candy from a baby. The Knights just couldn't stop the backcourt bombers and they led an offensive attack which netted 51 points in the second half compared to just 27 for Rutgers.

DuMars' passing, more than anything else, had the crowd screaming its approval. He led several fast breaks and ended them with behind-the-back

Guccione Sparks Matmen To 20-9 Win over Scarlet Knights

By JOHN BLACK

Guy Guccione's 5-4 win over Rutgers' previously undefeated captain, Tom Grifa, sparked the Lion grapplers to a 20-9 victory over the Scarlet Knights Saturday night to complete their best season in seven years.

Guccione's triumph over the highly respected Grifa in the 137-pound match turned the tide after Rutgers had captured the 123 and 130-pound bouts.

The Lions went on from there to win five of the remaining six matches and raise their season record to 9-0-1.

Only a 14-14 tie by Pitt marred a perfect season for Coach Charlie Speidel's charges this year.

The 9-0-1 slate is the best dual-meet mark a State wrestling team has posted since its record victory string of 34 straight was stopped in mid-season 1954. This also marked the first undefeated year for the Blue and White matmen since their national championship club of 1953 won all nine meets.

Guccione, whose season record is 6-1-2 and career dual-meet slate 11-6-4, escaped in the last period to upset Grifa, second-place winner in the Easterns last year and possessor of a 24-1-1 3-year dual meet record.

The agile Lion senior won one point up in the first period when he scored a takedown and Grifa escaped. Guccione started on top in the second period and Grifa escaped but "Guc" took him down again.

Grifa tied the score with a reversal but Guccione escaped in 29 seconds in the third round and earned the 5-4 verdict.

Nittany captain Sam Minor followed with a 6-4 conquest of Ed Hawthorne at 147.

Minor tallied five points in the last period on an escape, takedown and time advantage to overcome a 4-1 lead by Hawthorne. Rutgers took the lead for the last time when Jerry Rinker decided Lion soph John Barone, 4-1, in the 157 match. It was the first varsity appearance for the younger of the Barone brothers, who is normally a 147 pounder.

Barone was filling in for Ron Pifer who was shaken up last week in a practice mishap.

Jerry Seckler quickly tied the meet score by taking the measure of Bob Nelson, 7-1, in the 167-pound bout.

The undefeated Lion junior elevated his record to 9-0-1 on two takedowns, a reversal and 5:55 time advantage.

Nittany 177-pounder Hank Barone won his fifth straight decision, turning back Don Cory by a 7-2 count. Barone's record now reads 8-0-2.

Phil Myer, the Lions sophomore surprise at 191, outclassed Scarlet veteran John Narciso, 5-1, to ice the meet for State with one match left. Myer scored a takedown, reversal and 2½ minutes time advantage.

Johnston Oberly finished the meet in fine style by throwing Jim Sierk in 4:42 with a double bar arm. It was the seventh fall among Oberly's nine wins. He tied once.

With their dual-meet season now closed, the Nittanians return to the practice mats to prepare for the Eastern Intercollegiate Tournament at Princeton this weekend where they will be one of the favorites to cop the team title. They finished a surprise second last spring after a mediocre 5-3 dual meet season.

Two weeks later the Lions will be one of the top contenders in the national championships at the University of Maryland.

Summaries:
123—Hogan (R) dec Scordo (PS), 4-2.
130—Leta (R) dec Danks (PS), 12-7.
137—Guccione (PS) dec Grifa (R), 5-4.
147—Minor (PS) dec Hawthorne (R), 6-4.
157—Rinker (R) dec J. Barone (PS), 4-1.
167—Seckler (PS) dec Nelson (R), 7-1.
177—H. Barone (PS) dec Cory (R), 7-2.
191—Myer (PS) dec Narciso (R), 5-1.
Hwt—Oberly (PS) pinned Sierk (R), 4:42; double-bar-arm
Referee—Lee

WALLY COLENDER
... quite a finale

passes to teammates for easy buckets.

Colender played inspired ball too. He and DuMars both led the scoring parade with 19 points, but it was the Lion captain who pulled the big surprise of the night by leading all rebounders with 15.

The win gave Penn State a final record of 11 wins and 11 losses while Rutgers finished with 11-14.

Penn State's Mark DuMars has been named to UPI's all-littleman team. He joins such stars as Dick Hickox of Miami (Fla.), DePaul's Howie Carl, George Washinton's Jon Feldman, and Utah State's Max Peery.

Rutgers star Doug Patton broke the school's all time single season scoring record Saturday when he scored 22 points against the Nittany Lions.

	Box Score			PENN STATE (85)			RUTGERS (59)
	Fg	Ft	Tp	Fg	Ft	Tp	Fg	Ft	Tp
Sweetland	3	1-3	7	Barton	1	0-0	2
Trueblood	4	0-0	8	Osofsky	4	7-11	15
Harris	2	2-3	6	Strelecki	2	0-1	4
Ramey	0	3-4	3	Patton	7	8-11	22
Wilson	4	0-1	8	Am'erm'n	2	5-7	9
DuMars	8	3-5	19	Kaufman	1	3-4	5
Colender	7	5-5	19	Homer	0	0-1	0
Phillips	2	6-6	10	Case	0	0-3	0
Saul	0	5-6	5	Hellings	1	0-1	2
Eisele	0	0-0	0	Button	0	0-0	0
Totals	30	25-33	85	Totals	18	23-39	59
Halftime Score, Penn State	31-32

NCAA Tourney Navy, Mounties Meet Tonight

By The Associated Press
California's Golden Bears open defense of their National Collegiate NCAA Basketball Championship tonight meeting Idaho State in a regional game at San Francisco.

The game highlights regional activity which also features Navy and West Virginia at New York's Madison Square Garden and two at Lexington, Ky.

Here is today's schedule:
At New York: New York U. (19-3) vs. Connecticut (17-8); West Virginia (24-4) vs. Navy (16-5); Duke (15-10) vs. Princeton (15-8).

At Lexington, Ky.: Ohio U. (16-6) vs. Notre Dame (17-8); Western Kentucky (19-6) vs. Miami, Fla. (23-3).

At San Francisco: California (24-1) vs. Idaho State (21-4).

In another preliminary game tomorrow for the Far West, New Mexico State (19-6), the Border champion, plays Oregon (17-9).

Winners of these games move into the second round of the regional eliminations, which are scheduled Friday and Saturday at the following points: Charlotte, N.C.; Louisville, Manhattan, Kan, and Seattle.

The single survivors from each of these regional centers qualify for the semifinals and finals at San Francisco March 18-19.

The National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden opens Thursday with Villanova (19-5) playing Detroit (20-6), and Providence (21-4) meeting Memphis State (17-4).

Other teams in the NIT are Temple (17-8), Bradley (24-2), Utah State (22-5), St. John's (17-7), St. Louis (18-7), Holy Cross (20-5), St. Bonaventure (19-3), and Dayton (20-6).

Mac
Sez...
Finest
On Two Feet

Nationally advertised Esquire Olympian crew socks. Loafers just love Olympian crews. Casual crews for every pleasure-filled hour. In many patterns and colors, in sized and one-size socks. Shown: 80% orlon and 20% wool blends, $1.00 pair.

Also
Nationally advertised Alder crew socks in a variety of colors and the ever-popular white.

HABERDASHERY
Mac's
"In the Center of Pennsylvania"
329 S. Allen St.
AD 8-1241

Credit
Staff
TONIGHT
7:00 Business Office

SOCIAL DANCING 123-123

Leading Questions
Professor Dip

Female reaction to dancing partners using ordinary hair tonics (Text: I'm Dancing With Tears in My Eyes). Female reaction to dancing partners using 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic (Text: Waltz Me Around Again, Willie). Universal use of water on hair with drying effects therefrom. Conversely: with 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic you can use all the water you want...with neat results. Status of the Male Wallflower at Contemporary Proms discussed in relation to briarpatch hair caused by alcohol tonics. Use of tacky hair creams explored, outlining sticky situations. Emphasis on the one step (the one step necessary to be on the ball at the ball, namely a simple application of 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic.)

Materials: one 4 oz. bottle 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic

it's clear,
it's clean,
it's Vaseline®
HAIR TONIC

"Vaseline" is a registered trademark of Chesebrough-Pond's Inc.