

Sr. Gift Ideas Due by Friday

Friday is the last day seniors may turn in suggestions for their class gift.

So far seven suggestions have been turned in at the Hetzel Union desk.

The gifts suggested include a new lighting system for the reference system of the library, the conversion of the Army into the "Penn State Museum," money for retired faculty members, library books and a revolving art exhibit.

Other suggestions are donations for a new auditorium and a monument outside of Beaver Stadium with the inscription, "Beaver Stadium, Home of the Nittany Lions."

Memorial Service To Honor Leiper

A memorial service for the Rev. Hal Leiper, associate director of the University Christian Association and Protestant chaplain to the University, will be held at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow in the State College Presbyterian Church.

Leiper died Friday at the Philipsburg State Hospital after a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church in Englewood, N.J.

Friends are requested not to send flowers. A memorial gift may be sent to the Kirkridge Retreat Center, Bangor, Pa.

Beach Will Organize Graduate Student Choir

A small choir, composed of graduate students at the University, is being organized under the direction of James W. Beach, director of the Meditation Chapel Choirs.

The choir, which will sing sacred music from various periods, will participate in Meditation Chapel services. They will sing in concerts given by the Meditation Chapel Choirs this spring.

Any graduate student interested in singing should contact Beach at UN 5-6548 for additional information.
