

All-Americans Dominate Opponent Cage Team

By SANDY PADWE

All-Americans Jerry West of West Virginia, Pickles Kennedy of Temple and Terry Dischinger of Purdue head the 1959-60 all-opponent basketball team chosen by Penn State players and coaches.

Two sophomores, Temple's Russ Gordon and Colgate's Bob Duffy, rounded out the team which was selected in a special poll for the Collegian.

All five stars played big roles in victories over the Nittany Lions this year, especially West.

Called the best all-around player in the country, West proved it to Lion fans by scoring 60 points, and leading all the rebounders in two games against State.

He had 34 points in West Virginia's 104-74 win in Morgantown and added 26 more, most of them in the clutch, when the fifth-ranked Mounties squeezed out a 75-73 win at Rec Hall.

Kennedy did his share of damage too as Temple beat the Lions, 60-50, in the Keystone Classic and 79-68 last Friday in Philadelphia.

The 5-11 playmaker was the big offensive gun for the Owls with 49 points, but he had plenty of help from Gordon, one of the most promising sophomores in the country.

Gordon was a demon off the boards, pulling down 25 rebounds in Harrisburg and 12 in Philadelphia and whenever Temple needed a few points, he was right there. The 6-5 leaper put Friday's game on ice for the Owls with three straight buckets after State had narrowed the gap to 48-44 midway in the second half.

Dischinger, who will be at Rec Hall next December when Purdue comes to town, has been named to every All-American team this year.

Only a sophomore, he wound up as one of the top ten scorers in the nation. Dischinger was at his best, scoring 25 points, when the Boilermakers beat the Lions 63-54 early in December.

Colgate's Bob Duffy is the other first team member. He was personally responsible for restoring Colgate's basketball prestige this season with some outstanding individual performances.

One came against Penn State a few weeks ago when he made the tying basket and poured in 29 points in Colgate's 84-75 overtime win at Hamilton, N.Y.

Others receiving votes were Lee Patrone, West Virginia; Bill Soffa, Carnegie Tech; Norm Brandl, Lehigh; Jay Metzler and Jim Bower, Navy; and John Mills, Pittsburgh.

Pressure Is on Top Ranked Cincinnati in NCAA Tourney

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's slick Bearcats were the nation's No. 1 college basketball team for 1959-60.

The Associated Press' final poll of the season had the Oscar Robertson-led Bearcats perched in the top seat — just where they have been since the first poll was taken in December.

Now it's up to the Ohio five to prove its merit in the NCAA championships against a talented field that includes California's defending champs, the No. 2 team in the poll.

Since The AP basketball poll began in 1949, six of the 11 quintets chosen for the No. 1 rating crowned their campaigns with NCAA titles.

A year ago, however, Kansas State was named the top team and then was upset in the early NCAA eliminations. California, ranked 11th, beat Cincinnati in the semifinals and then edged West Virginia for the title. Another meeting between Cincy and Cal would set up the game of the year for the hardwood sport.

Cincinnati which wound up its regular season Monday night with a 25-1 record.

In the final poll, the Bearcats collected 92 first place votes from the 194 cast by sports writers and sportscasters. They piled up 1,832 points on the usual basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

California (24-1) received 46 first place votes and 1,716 points. The first 10 teams, first place votes and won-lost record through March 6 in parentheses:

Cincinnati 92 (24-1)	1,832
California 46 (24-1)	1,716
Ohio State 14 (21-3)	1,492
Bradley 14 (24-2)	1,396
West Virginia 19 (24-4)	1,001
Utah 2 (24-2)	608
Indiana (20-4)	460
Utah State (22-5)	382
St. Bonaventure 6 (19-3)	313
Miami (Fla.) (23-3)	312
