

—Collegian Photo by Wally Mater

LOCKERS WERE NOT BEING CONSIDERED for the HUB expansion plan—claimed William Fuller, director of associated student activities. But immediately following Fuller's statement, the SGA Assembly passed a recommendation that lockers be installed in the HUB extension.

Rutledge To 12 Sororities Assigned Deliver Talk Locations of New Suites On Marriage

"Getting to Know You—The First Years of Marriage" will be the lecture topic of Dr. Aaron L. Rutledge, head of the counseling service and the training program in counseling and psychotherapy at the Merrill-Palmer School, at 7:30 tonight in 214 Boucke.

Tomorrow he will conduct an overnight couple's retreat at the Bucknell Conference Center. The engaged couples will hold informal discussions and counseling sessions with Rutledge about problems they may face in their marriages.

Rutledge has received undergraduate degrees in biology and the social sciences. He did his graduate work in the psychology and philosophy of counseling.

In addition to conducting a private practice as marriage counselor, he is a member of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, president of the National Council on Family Relations and chairman of the planning committee for the 1960 International Conference on the Family.

Rutledge is the author of many magazine articles and books. Two of his books, "Marriage Counseling" and "Responsible Family Living" are now being published.

Blackadar Participates In Meteorological Talks

Dr. Alfred K. Blackadar, associate professor of meteorology, has recently completed a series of nine lectures at several Pennsylvania colleges on atmospheric turbulence, numerical weather prediction, and the meteorological uses of artificial earth satellites.

He was invited to present these lectures by the American Meteorological Society in connection with its visiting scientist program under the sponsorship of the National Science Foundation.

COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS BUY, SELL, TRADE, TELL

Locations in the Pollock Area residence halls have been assigned to the 12 sororities moving into the new suites next fall.

Dorothy J. Lipp, dean of women, and Mrs. Norma Mountan, assistant to the dean of women and sorority advisor, made the assignments.

There are eight buildings in the Pollock area—three are for men, four are for women and the eighth one is a dining area.

The women's buildings will be behind the men's halls.

The locations of the sorority and the floors they occupy are as follows:

- Pollock No. 2—Pi Beta Phi, first floor; Sigma Delta Tau, second floor; Delta Zeta, fourth floor.
- Pollock No. 3—Alpha Delta Pi, first; Delta Gamma, second; Alpha Epsilon Phi, fourth.
- Pollock No. 4—Alpha Phi, first; Kappa Alpha Theta, second; Alpha Xi Delta, fourth.
- Pollock No. 5—Alpha Gamma Delta, first; Zeta Tau Alpha, second; Phi Mu, fourth.

The third floor of each building will be occupied by sorority members who cannot be assigned to their sorority's floor.

The suites will be on the ground level.

LUTHERAN STUDENT SERVICES

GRACE CHURCH COLLEGE and ATHERTON

Sunday: March 13th 8:30 & 10:45 a.m. — The Service 6:30 p.m. — Beginning of Religion and Science Series

STUDENT CENTER

DR. ROBERT OLIVER

Head of the Penn State Speech Department

"From Darwin to Scopes"

Job Placement Line Begins to Diminish

What seemed like endless lines outside the placement office in Old Main have now started to level off, according to George N. P. Leetch, director of the University Placement Service.

Leetch said the placement office has averaged more than 1000 interviews a week for the last three weeks, last week having 977, the smallest number.

He also said that the volume will fall off regularly for the rest of the spring semester. The service will continue scheduling interviews into May. However, they have advised interviewing corporations to schedule interviews early in the semester for there are more students who are interested at that time.

More companies are interviewing on campus and offering more jobs than student can ever consider, Leetch said. Three hundred and fifty companies are scheduled for interviews this spring.

Companies interviewing rarely stress specific curriculums or averages for job applicants. Very few (perhaps one out of 50) interviewers specify average requirements, he said.

The Placement Service averages 11 interviewing companies a day. These interviews are held in the placement office, the Hetzel Union Building and in some rooms in Boucke and Whitmore Laboratory.

Mook Conducts Conference

Dr. Maurice A. Mook, professor of anthropology, conducted a Career Day Conference on "College Teaching at the Westtown School, Westtown."

YOUR Last Chance to Register

Come to . . .

UNIVERSITY PARTY'S

OPEN MEETING

7:00 P.M. 119 Osmond

Sunday, March 13

SALLY DARNES LOOKS AT

Everybody's Talking About the Jones Boy

Namely Antony Armstrong. Tony, a former photographer, was once asked to leave the Royal Opera House in Convent Gardens for taking ballet pictures from the stalls. Now he enjoys a seat in the royal box with his intended, Princess Margaret, while the flashbulbs pop in his direction.

Life has collected a fetching group of Tony's photographs. A little offbeat in subject and style, Tony's pictures give us a hint of his apparent vivaciousness and wit. His gimmick shot of Princess Margaret caused some uproar among the English.

Sleepy Southern Senators Set Record

The Supreme Court hall looked something like a Penn State dorm during finals last week. In one great attempt to defeat the civils rights legislation, our nation's Southern Senators slipped into suits over red pajamas to answer to the quorum call. This filibuster set a Senate record of 82 hours of continuous session. Life photographers captured all the humor and incongruity of the situation by snapping the Senators snoozing on cots among the stately columns of our nation's capitol.

Dixie Wins in Grins

Penn State upperclassmen will be reminded of the "Hypnotic Eyes Contest" held on campus a few years ago when they see the winners in the "Smile Contest" conducted on grade school children by the University of Alabama School of Denistry. We guess the little smiler in the upper left-hand corner would also be a shoo in winner in the National Freckle Contest.

Khrushchev's "Can-Can" Passes Censors

The new 20th Century-Fox film, "Can-Can," which delighted Mr. Khrushchev until Mrs. Khrushchev said it mustn't. will be shown in American movie theaters soon. Life photographers caught colorful shots of a slinky ballet by Shirley MacLaine and Marc Wilder. With a cast like Frank Sinatra, Maurice Chevalier, Louis Jordan and Miss MacLaine and songs by Cole Porter, even Mrs. Khrushchev would applaud.

"Beautiful Dress. Orbach or Dior?"

This is becoming a socially acceptable question even at New York's fashionable charity ball where a dozen socialites arrived all impeccably attired in the same Orbach duplicate of a white Balenciaga evening dress last winter. Coeds will love all nine of Orbach's copies colorfully photographed for Life by Mark Shaw in some distinguished Paris home.

Live a Little

Take a Look at the World's Week. See Ike reach for another champagne and U.N. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko "cut a rug." Music majors, read about the quiet music at the University of Detroit. And don't miss the picture story of Elvis bidding German beauty Priscilla Beaulieu goodbye as he returns, minus sideburns, to his fans in the States.

TIM'S

SHAMROCK SWING

COME RIGHT ALONG WITH THE O'BRIENS O'REILLYS O'HARAS O'SHEAS AND O'KELLYS, TOO!

Stan Barton's AIM BAND

FREE TICKETS Available at HUB Desk

MARCH 12, 9 to 12

HUB Ballroom

T.I.M. March 8-10 Others March 11-12