Pacific Coast Teams Are NCAA Threats

The Pacific Intercollegiate Gymnastic Championships were held in California last weekend and the results have raised a few eyebrows.

On the basis of their performances, both champion Southern Cal and runner up California will be prime contenders for the NCAA championship, which will be decided at Penn State March 18, 19.

While his team was making a name for itself, California's Art Shurlock established himself as a contender for the NCAA all-around title. He won the PIGL all-around crown last weekend with a score of 568.25.

Shurlock won the long horse vault with a 95.75, and added scores of 92.5 in the free exercise; 95.5 on the side horse; 93.5 on the still rings; 95 on the high bar; and 96 on the parallel bars.

Because of these scores, Shurlock must rate as the favorite in the NCAA all-around competition next week at Rec Hall.

The California star, who finished second to Penn State's Armando Vega in last year's nationals, will also be defending his side horse title.

Although the side horse is considered one of Shurlock's better events, teammate Jim Fairchild edged him in the

Tony Scordo rates an outside chance to place at 123 but will probably find the going too rough against F&M's Cleon Cassel (9-0), Pitt's Dick Martin (7-0) and Navy's Jim McKinney (5-0).

The 157 and 167 pound classes have caused consternation for Coach Speidel all year because of two good men — Ron Rifer and Jerry Seckler — and the problem of who to place where.

Speidel plans to use Pifer at 157 because with his style of wrestling "he may pick up a couple falls, while Seckler's strength and experience can cope much better with the bigger boys at 167."

Pifer (6-3) may even be able to slide through for a title against the likes of Harry Pollak, Syracuse (5-2-2), Ed Hawthorne, Rutgers (7-3) and Dave Angell, Lehigh (7-2).

But Seckler will have a Herculean job against Thad Turner, Lehigh (11-0-1), and Al Marion, Cornell (10-0), second and fourth place finishers last year.

So the Lions enter the easterns today as one of the favorites, but they may have to rely more on advance and place points than on title winners.

Brain Hemorrhage Kills A's Owner, Johnson

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Arnold Johnson, who turned a white elephant ball park into a financial success by moving the Philadelphia Athletics to Kansas City, died yesterday.

There was no immediate word on the club's future.

TKE, Beta Triumph; Enter Swim Semis

By JOHN MORRIS

Tau Kappa Epsilon and Beta Theta Pi splashed to IM swim victories last night and set the stage for the semi-finals of the fraternity tourney in Glennland this evening.

TKE and Beta will square off in one match, while Delta Chi and Alpha, Tau Omega are paired in the other.

Beta dropped Phi Kappa Psi out of the tourney by posting a 27-14 triumph. Going into the diving event, Beta only had a 14-13 lead, but gymnasts Armando Vega and Greg Weiss iced the meet with a 1-2 finish.

Herm Weber and Dan Gifford were other first place finishers for Beta. Weber took the freestyle in 33.5 and Gifford edged Phi Psi's Joe Marchand and Ken Miller with 40.8 in the backstroke.

Phi Psi's best event was the breaststroke. Bob Passmore won in 44.7 over teammate Jay MacMullen.

Weber, Gifford, Fred Kochey and Fritz Paige combined to give Beta a one-stroke relay win in 1:02.3.

TKE had a much easier time, in swamping Delta Upsilon, 33-8. They won every event and DU only had captured two second places.

Al Egolf and Gary Raimy started TKE off on the right foot by sweeping the freestyle. Egolf won in 36 flat.

Jim Cober took the backstroke with a 45-second clocking and Jess Coontz triumphed in the breaststroke in 48.5 with DU's Dave Young a close second.

Trackmen Enter Chicago Relays

Penn State's 2-mile relay team of Dick Hambright, George Jones, Steve Moorhead, and Mike Miller will be competing against the top track powers of the midwest tonight when they run in the Chicago Daily News Relays.

Also running for State will be sprinter Bobby Brown. The Lion dashman will be seeking his fifth blue ribbon of the indoor season.

Graduate student Ed Moran is entered in the mile along with arch rival Phil Coleman of the University of Chicago Track Club and Brian Hawson, the European mile champ.

The former Nittany captain will be seeking his second indoor victory of the year.

In his last appearance Moran took the mile in the New York Knights of Columbus Meet with a time of 4:11.8.

Tomorrow the Penn State contingent will move to Milwaukee for the Milwaukee Journal Meet, with Moran switching from the mile to the 1000.

finals to win the PIGL championship, 97-96.5, Fairchild also placed fifth on the parallel bars with 88.5.

Although the Golden Bears failed to capture any other first places last weekend, they had a number of high finishers.

Mario DeLara tied for second in the rope climb in 37 seconds, and scored 87.5 on the still rings which wasn't even good enough for the top ten.

Rich Schmidt scored a 90.5 on the still rings and 84.5 on the high bar for seventh and sixth places, respectively.

Pat Kelly placed fifth on the high bar with 87.5, while Frank Fitz took sixth on the trampoline with 71.5. Bill Lambdeu also took a fifth place, scoring an 85 on the side horse.

Shurlock is the Bear's only all-around man but Coach Hal Frey has a four-event man in Roy Davis.

Last weekend Davis took ninth on the p-bars with 83, eighth in the free 'X' with 89, and seventh on the rope with 3.7. He also scored a 70.5 in tumbling but failed to place.
