

Kuhre Will Give Talk At Protestant Service

The Rev. William Kuhre, teaching assistant at the Lutheran Student Center, will be the speaker at the Protestant Service of Worship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Helen Eisenhower Chapel.

The Meditation Choir, under the direction of James Beach, will sing the choral anthem "Let Us Worship and Fall Down" by Willan. The organist for the service will be Nancy Hadfield.

Masses for Roman Catholics will be said at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Victory Church and at 9 a.m. in Schwab Auditorium.

The St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship will hold a dinner at 5 p.m. tomorrow at the student center. Following the dinner they will hold a group discussion on "Your Emotional Maturity."

Dr. Henry S. Albinski, professor of political science, will present a lecture, sponsored by the Unitarian Student Group, at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in 205 Boucke. The topic of the talk will be "Problems of Political Integration in India."

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation will hold its Purim Carnival from 8 to 10 tonight at Hillel. Proceeds from the carnival will benefit the United Jewish Appeal Drive.

Liz Jallie, American Friends Service Committee Middle Atlantic Region College secretary, will lead a discussion on the value of the AMFS projects for members of the William Penn Foundation at 7 p.m. tomorrow at 124 S. McAllister St.

The first lecture in a new science and religion series "From Adam to Atom" will be presented at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Lutheran Student Association center. Dr. Robert Oliver, head of the Department of Speech, will discuss Darwin's theory of evolution.

The Baptist Student Movement will hold an overnight cabin retreat at the Forestry cabin. The group will leave at 10:30 tonight and return at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow. Dr. Rustum Roy, professor of geochemistry, will conduct the discussions on "Prayer," the theme of the retreat.

Members of the Westminster Fellowship planning to go to the Bucknell University Westminster Fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. tomorrow at the student center. A movie, "Martin Luther" will be shown at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Presbyterian Church.

The Penn State Newman Club will present the first lecture of its annual marriage forum at 7 p.m. on Tuesday in the HUB assembly room. Monsignor Thomas O'Shea of Bellefonte will discuss "Mixed Marriages."

The Wesley Lecture Series on "Immortality" will begin with a talk by Rev. Preston Williams, acting University chaplain, at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the Wesley Foundation, 256 E. College Ave.

Pappa Reddy will speak on March 20 and Andrew Case, professor of art, on March 27.

Samuel Zamirlik will be the speaker April 3 and Fritz Rothchild, assistant professor of religion, on April 10.

Radio Engineers' Board Names Waynick to Office

Dr. Arthur H. Waynick, professor and head of the Department of Electrical Engineering, has been made vice chairman of the Editorial Board of the Institute of Radio Engineers. He attended the first meeting in connection with this position in New York, N.Y., in February.

Visiting Prof To Speak In Schwab

Dr. J. Neal Hughley, college minister and professor of economics at North Carolina College, will speak at the University Chapel service of worship at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

The topic of his sermon will be "A Judaean-Christian View of Man."

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor, will sing "Deck Thyself, My Soul" by Cruger as the choral introit. The anthem of the morning will be "Lord, How Long Wilt Thou Be Angry" a setting of Psalm 79, by Purcell.

University organist George E. Ceiga will play Kreckel's "Magnificat—Mode VIII" as prelude and Kyrie's "Rex Genitor" as the offertory. For the postlude he will play "Gloria in Excelsis Deo."

Hughley earned his undergraduate degrees at Morehouse College and the Union Theological Seminary. He holds a master of arts degree and a doctor of philosophy degree from Columbia University.

He is the author of "Rethinking Our Christianity" and "Trends in Protestant Social Idealism" and the co-author of "The Christian Way in Race Relations."

As a minister and educator, Hughley has been the Baptist pastor in several churches in the south and has taught in the fields of social science and economics at Bishop College and at North Carolina College.

Speaking Contest Forms Available

Entry blanks for the annual Guldin Public Speaking Contest sponsored by the Penn State Coaly Society are available in 211 Armsby. An orientation meeting for the contest will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 112 Buckhout.

Any agriculture student may enter the contest. Entrants may give an original speech on any topic related to agriculture. The topic must be decided upon by the time of the orientation meeting.

The six highest ranking speakers will receive awards. The awards are first place, $75 and a gold medal; second place, $50 and a silver medal; third place, $25; and four, fifth and sixth places, $10. Judges for the contest will be staff members from the Department of Speech and the College of Agriculture.

Factory Authorized
VOLKSWAGEN
Sales—Parts—Service
New '60 Deluxe Sedan $1625.
WYNO SALES CO.
1960 E. Third St. Williamsport, Pa.
Phone 2-4633

'Soviet Empire' To Be Topic Of Scott Talk

Ticket distribution will continue until 5 p.m. Tuesday for the Lecture Series presentation of "The Soviet Empire," by John Scott, special assistant to the publisher of Time magazine and authority on Russia.

About 900 tickets still remain for the lecture to be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Schwab Auditorium.

Scott, who is widely known as a foreign correspondent, author and lecturer, has just returned from a 4-month study tour of the Soviet Union during which time he also visited every Soviet satellite except Albania.

Born in Philadelphia, Scott attended schools in the United States and Switzerland. He was graduated from George School and spent two years at the University of Wisconsin.

The story of Scott's life in Siberian steel mills and chemical plants is told in his first book "Beyond the Urals," published in 1942.

Shortly afterward his second book, "Duel for Europe," was published, followed by "Europe in Revolution." "Political Warfare" appeared in 1955, and a fifth entitled "Democracy Is Not Enough," will be published later this year.

Scott was in Moscow for three years as a correspondent for Havas, the French news agency, and later for the London News Chronicle.

Perez Nominated For Prof Snarf

Lawrence Perez, assistant dean of the Engineering and Architecture College, was unanimously approved as the Engineering-Architecture Student Council's candidate for the Prof Snarf contest.

The council at its meeting also accepted nominations for 1960-61 council officers. The nominations will not be closed until the next meeting.

Nominated for president are Alexander Cimochowski, Charles Gaston, and Charles Barb. Gerald Logue was nominated for the offices of vice president and corresponding secretary. Raymond Farwell, Jr., assistant professor of industrial engineering, was nominated to be the council's faculty adviser.

Emerson Society

Dr. Henry M. Albinski, instructor of political science, will speak on "Problems of Political Integration in India" to the Emerson Society at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in 205 Boucke.

CLASSIFIEDS—RESULTS
50c BUYS 17 WORDS

Angel Flight Announces Program for Workshop

The program for the 6th annual Blue Yonder Workshop of Angel Flight has been announced by Chairman Gloria Barton.

The workshop is designed to acquaint prospective servicemen and their wives with on-base living.

A get-acquainted tea and panel discussion on the social aspects of air force life will begin at 7 p.m., March 31, in McElwain lounge.

Panel members will be Capt. and Mrs. Norman M. Winter, Mrs. C. M. Richardson, Mrs. O. V. Robichaud, Mrs. Clyde R. Cloar, Mrs. Joseph B. Koi and Mrs. James S. Robinson.

Base living will be the topic for the meeting April 7 in 214 Hetzel Union.

Capt. Winter, Mrs. Cloar, Mrs. Glen A. Hellenka and Mrs. William K. Rudewick will speak about the facilities on a base, first duty stations, housing and job opportunities for wives. Capt. William M. Davis III will speak on personal affairs at the April 21 meeting in 214 HUB. His talk will include information on pay and allowances, survivor benefits, legal aid, Medicare and records.

Capt. Alan E. Wolfe and Capt. and Mrs. Rudewick will speak on overseas assignments on April 28 in 214 HUB.

The program will end on May 5 when Maj. and Mrs. Richardson speak on reassignment and preparation for overseas movement. This meeting will also be held in 214 HUB.

Collegian Jam Session

A jam session will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. today at Phi Kappa Psi for all Collegian staff members.

Memo for opportunity

Ingersoll-Rand
will interview
Graduating Engineers
(B.S., M.S., Ph.D.)
March 17 & 18

I-R offers attractive opportunities in research and development, design, production and sales engineering. Our machinery products include pumps, compressors, engines, vacuum equipment, power tools, and mining and construction equipment.

CAMPUS PARTY

OFFERS OPEN DEBATE
At the FIRST MEETING OF ITS
POLITICAL NOMINATING CONVENTION

Issues May Be Proposed By ANY Interested Student

PRELIMINARY NOMINATIONS FOR THE PARTY'S CANDIDATES TO SGA OFFICES AND ASSEMBLY POSITIONS WILL BE HELD

SUNDAY, MARCH 13
121 Sparks
7:00

EARN YOUR MASTER'S DEGREE AND PREPARE FOR AN EXECUTIVE CAREER IN RETAILING

Comprehensive nine-month program for college graduates; emphasis on executive direction in major stores dovetailed with classroom work. Total pay for store work $700. Co-ed. Scholarships. Selective job placement before graduation. G. I. approved. Next class, August 20, 1960. Apply now. Write for Bulletin G.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF RETAILING
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

