Eisenhower Supports Nixon For 1960 Presidential Race

WASHINGTON (P) - President Eisenhower nailed it down yesterday at a news conference. "Yes, very definitely" Vice President Richard M. Nixon is his man for the presidency.

Afterward, he telephoned Nixon in New York and told him what he had said.

This doesn't mean Eisenhower was taking sides within his own party, since Nixon has administration, school construc-

House voted 188-120 yesterday to nail new Negro-voting assurances into its civil rights

It adopted an amendment saying that if Negroes or others who have been kept from voting apply to a federal court referee and their cases are still unsettled on election day, they will be allowed to vote anyway.

Their ballots would be impounded until their cases were settled, then counted.

The amondment was drawn to National Convention.
