

Air Force ROTC Begins 'New Approach' Lectures

A "new approach" toward instruction of sophomore Air Force ROTC cadets began Tuesday when Gen. James B. Knapp spoke about the Strategic Air Command, Col. Orin H. Rigley, Jr., commandant of the University ROTC program, said.

HUB Exhibit Will Feature Work by Zoller

More than 50 oil paintings, drawings and water colors by Edwin W. Zoller, professor of art, will compose an exhibition that will open in the Hetzel Union art gallery Sunday, and continue through April 5th.

Professor Zoller has been associated with the University since 1927 when he taught fine arts in the summer program of the University at Altoona.

His formal education was received at the University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie Institute of Technology and here at the University, and was supplemented by extensive travel in Italy, France, Spain and Mexico.

His work is represented in numerous private and public collections and has been exhibited in Florence, Paris and in major American cities. He has participated in showings at the Butler Art Institute, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Columbia Art Institute and Creative Gallery of New York City.

A reception honoring Professor Zoller will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the HUB.

Pa. Ed Society to Meet

The Pennsylvania Student Education Society will meet at 7:30 tonight in Hibbs lounge.

The juniors and seniors in the group will conduct a panel discussion on "State Teachers and the Educational Block."

Deadline Set For Students To Give Blood

The deadline for registering to give blood in the drive sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega and Gamma Sigma Sigma, national service fraternity and sorority, is 5 p.m. tomorrow.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be on campus March 23 and 24 to take all blood donations.

Registration cards are available at a booth in the Hetzel Union lobby. Students are urged to register, although they may give blood without registering, according to Walter Schwenger, member of APhiO.

Parental permission cards, necessary for all unmarried, non-veterans under 21, are available at the Hetzel Union desk. They may be turned in when blood is given, Schwenger said.

More than 100 students have signed up and 50 more are expected tomorrow, Schwenger said.

The goal for this year is 300 donors, he said. "We usually get an additional 150 walk-ins during the donation periods," he said.

Student Displays Abstract Paintings

Currently on display in the Graduate Students' Art Gallery in Temporary Building is an exhibit by Dale Kendrick, a graduate student working towards his doctorate in art.

The 13 oil paintings are part of a one-man show by Kendrick who paints under the name of "Vadeekay." The collection is composed of abstracts done in a contemporary vein bearing titles such as "Sophisticated Embryo," "Wedding Couple" and "Synapse of an Embryo."

The "Vadeekay" exhibit which opened Monday will continue through March 25.

Bush to Give Talk At Photo Staff Meeting

The photography staff of the Daily Collegian will meet at 7:15 tonight in the Collegian office.

George S. Bush, professor of journalism, will speak at the meeting.

Knapp was the first in a series of guest lecturers who will discuss the role of their organization in the United States defense structure.

Rigley said that these speakers will "liven up instruction." They will inform the sophomores about Air Force commands and how they function.

The next lecturer will be Col. Frederick M. O'Neill, acting director of plans of the Tactical Air Command at Langley Air Force Base, Va. He will speak on March 24.

The Air Defense Command will be represented by Brig. Gen. Gilbert L. Pritchard on April 5.

Pritchard is director of the New York Air Defense Sector with headquarters at McGuire Air Force Base, N.J.

Brig. Gen. B. C. Harrison, deputy director of personnel procurement and training at U.S. Air Force headquarters at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., will speak on "The Air Force Today and Tomorrow" on April 7.

A representative from the Military Air Transport Service headquarters in St. Louis, Mo., will lecture on April 26.

These lectures will be given on closed-circuit television during regular sophomore ROTC classes

Right down the alley

of America's second largest telephone system

Never before has America known such sustained growth and expansion. New industries, new plants, new additions to old plants—each day reveals dramatic changes on the industrial horizon.

And to help provide the new and greater communications systems for this building boom is our daily work at General Telephone.

You'll find a good example of what we mean in Muskegon, Michigan. Here Brunswick-Balke-Collender has just completed huge new facilities to keep up with the demand for its world-famous automatic pinsetters. In the same area, foundries, oil refineries and three new chemical plants are going round the clock.

And as Muskegon grows and prospers, its communications requirements become more complex and compelling. That's why Gen Tel, in the past three years, has spent more than $36 million in its Michigan operating areas alone—improving, increasing, expanding its telephone services.

This is a typical example of how we strive—not only to meet today's communication needs, but to answer the needs of tomorrow, too.
